The lawyer offered his observations in an interview in Birmingham.

He said he still could hardly credit the brusque manner in which he and his son, Arthur J. the Federal Bureau of Investi-Hanes Jr., were dismissed from the Ray case last Sunday night: when they arrived at the Shelby jail in Memphis to give Ray a new gray suit to wear during his trial. Upon his arrival the lawyer was handed a note from Ray stating that he had been relieved.

Hanes said that for months; the nad been aware of many indications that Ray might be preparing to switch attorneys and that about a month ago he been ordered by men who wantbecame virtually certain that ed his death to provoke outthis was Ray's plan. Hanes said that he had not learned until after he had been dismissed by Ray that the two prothers had ordered a copy of the British hearings on the Ray case.

"That certainly indicated they had tried to find another attorney,' he said.

Percy Foreman, the Houston criminal lawyer who agreed Sunday night to represent Ray, said that John and Jerry Rayhad asked him last week to take the case and that he reluctantly had agreed to do so after going to Memphis to talk to Ray himself.
