	SECRET .
ļ						T
	B-10 THE F	VENING STAR
1		C., Tuesday, July 9, 1968 -	Ut Pl	ELEASE OF TH	HS DOCUL	FNT
+
	Kay Appeal	Schedule	ed .	* KY	AA	X
1			Regions .	7-15		A
┼	↓ For mearing	コ July Zソ
	LONDON (UPI)—A British	this client why he had t	to keen	,
 						\
ļ	peal against extradition to the	Quirements of British law Eugene, has another	veek to		T. H. D.)
	The second are second and the second	appeal the order that a	Ray be			1
+	King Jr. The surprise announcement	slaying of King an Me	emphis,	, [↓
	was made when Ray appeared		Brain.	ŀ
	on charges of violating British		- 234 j	gride the ways	- 144. 2	+-
—	gun and immigration laws.	. \		·	- -
	again July 16 to answer to the				ו חחחו	TDA
	.38-caliber pistol and two forged	CIA HISTOH	IUH	KEVIEV	Y PHU	#KH
 	passports, which led to his ar-	DELE	NCE	IN CHI	-
	It was expected Britain might	N kee kas faar	Town the s		1:	†
 	ignore the charges if Ray is extradited.
	Appearance Required	ļ
 	At the Bow Street court, Chief
	asked if a date had been set for _	· the appeal in Queen's Bench Di-
 	- tice	-
	official replied.		.
	Ray, whose extradition was					-
ļ	court today to meet a British appear before a magistrate every eight days while they are held.	- I he cy	ien	ra UT	.yr	-
	The announcement on the ex-	9	J4	12, 19	68
	pected as the appearance today	्र प्रशास के प्रदेश संस्कृति के प्रदेश	-	٤ ،
	was supposed to deal only with the gun and passport charges Ray, brought to court in a car-
-	cruisers, appeared under the		\neg
ļ	name listed on one of the two —				3.5
1	! Iorged Canadian passports Scot.	į pulled from his coat along with					-
	the gun at Heathrow Airport		.]
	1					\dashv
	une to dispose of the gun and
ļ	passport violations charges Milton Jasked Ray's layver Michael Farger to Them to			-
	A. A	1
		Ray Appear For Hearing London (UPI)—A British court said today it will hear on July 29 James Earl Ray's appeal against extradition to the United States to stand trial in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. The surprise announcement was made when Ray appeared at Bow Street magistrate's court on charges of violating British gun and immigration laws. Ray was ordered to appear again July 16 to answer to the charges of carrying a loaded 38-caliber pistol and two forged passports, which led to his arrest in the first place June 8. It was expected Britain might ignore the charges if Ray is extradited. Appearance Required At the Bow Street court, Chief London Magistrate Frank Millon asked if a date had been set for the appeal in Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice. "Yes sir, July 29," a court official replied. Ray, whose extradition was ordered a week ago, appeared in court today to meet a British legal requirement that prisoners appear before a magistrate every eight days while they are held. The announcement on the extradition appeal had been unexpected as the appearance today was supposed to deal only with the gun and passport charges. Ray, brought to court in a caravan of three police Jaguar cruisers, appeared under the name listed on one of the two forged Canadian passports Scotland Yard detectives said they pulled from his coat along with the gun at Heathrow Airport! Less Than a Minute It took Milton less than a minute to dispose of the gun and	Ray Appeal Schedule For Hearing July 29 London (UPI)—A British his client why he had returning to court said today it will hear on July 29 James Earl Ray's appeal against extradition to the United States to stand trial in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther. Engage, has, another was made when Ray appeared at Bow Street magistrate's court on charges of violating British gun and immigration laws. Ray was ordered to appear again July 16 to answer to the charges of carrying a loaded 38-caliber pistol and two forged passports, which led to his arrest in the first place June 8. It was expected British might ignore the charges if Ray is extradited. Appearance Required At the Bow Street court, Chief London Magistrate Frank Milton asked if a date had been set for the appeal in Queer's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice. "Yes sir, July 29," a court official replied. Ray, whose extradition was ordered a week ago, appeared in court today to meet a British legal requirement that prisoners appear before a magistrate every eight days while they are held. The announcement on the extradition appeal had been unexpected as the appearance today was supposed to deal only with the gun and passport charges. Ray, brought to court in a caravan of three police Jaguar cruisers, appeared under the name Ramon George Sneyd, the name listed on one of the two forged Canadian passports Scotland Yard detectives said they pulled from his coat along with the gun at Heathrow Airport! Less Than a Minute At took Milton less than a minute to dispose of the gun and	Ray Appeal Scheduled For Hearing July 29 London (UPD—A British this client why he had to keep court said today it will hear on July 29 James Earl Ray's appeal against extradition to the United States to stand trial in the staying of Dr. Martin Luther was made when Ray appeared at Bow Street magistrate's court on charges of violating British gun and immigration laws. Ray was ordered to appear again July 18 to answer to the charges of carrying a loaded 38-caliber pistol and two forged passports, which led to his arrest in the first place June 8. It was expected Britain might ignore the charges if Ray is extradited. Appearance Required At the Bow Street court, Chief London Magistrate Frank Milton asked if a date had been set for the appeal in Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice. "Yes sir, July 29," a court official replied. Ray, whose extradition was ordered a week ago, appeared in court today to meet a British legal requirement that prisoners appear before a magistrate every eight days while they are held. The announcement on the extradition appeal had been unexpected as the appearance today was supposed to deal only with the gun and passport charges. Ray, brought to court in garavan of three police Jaguar cruisers, appeared under the name Ramon George Sneyd, the name Ramon George Sneyd, the name Ramon George Sneyd, the name listed on one of the two forged Canadian passport tays with the gun and passport charges: Alt took Milton less than a minute to dispose of the 'gun' and	Ray Appeal Scheduled For Hearing July 29 London (UPI)—A British his client why he had to keep court said today it will hear on July 29 James Earl Ray's appears against extradition to the United States to stand trial in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther, Eugene has another week to United States to stand trial in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther, Eugene has another week to United States to stand trial in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther, Eugene has another week to United States to stand trial in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther, Eugene has another week to United States to stand trial in the slaying of Martin July 19 and Martin July 19	Ray Appeal Scheduled For Hearing July 29 LONDON (UPI)—A British libic client why he had to keep court said today it will bear on July 29 James Earl Ray's appeal against extradition to the United States to stand trial tria