(OO: Memphis)

Re Boston teletype to Bureau 4/8/68.

Enclosed for the Laboratory are four pieces of paper each containing laundry marks on red tape which were obtained from four separate thermo-seal machines manufactured by Textile Marking Machine Co., Inc., Syracuse, N. Y., and a partial roll of unused red tape, furnished by PAUL CAMPBELL, President and General Manager, Superior Laundry Co., Inc., 625 Concord Ave., Cambridge, Mass.

For the information of the Laboratory, CAMPBELL advised that his machines print six digit numbers. He advised that his company prior to 9/67 or 10/67 used a code whereby all six digits were used as follows:

First three digits would be numbers;
then two dashes;
followed by a letter.

His company presently uses a code of six digits as follows:

first two digits are numbers;

then a letter.

CAMPBELL viewed a photograph of laundry tape which was on the tee shirt and undershorts, the color photograph made available to Boston, and CAMPBELL said this tape definitely is not his marking.

FBI Laboratory is requested to make comparisons of the enclosed sample tapes with those found on the under-clothing of unsub in Memphis, Tenn.

Gentlemen:

I have already written you one letter concerning remarks and plans by Charles G. Adams against the late Martin Luther King., but since I read the newspapers today and see where the marches will continue as usual, I recalled Adams saying: "Dr. King does not have enough intelligence as to staging his marches."

The Southern Conference must have some guilty members on its roster, because the inflow of donated funds has attracted men such as Charles G. Adams. He told his Concord Baptist Church Membership that they were striving with Martin Luther King to submit to their organized authority in the handling of marches which would also require their authority over the inflow of the donated funds.

Mr. King had a harder struggle with his greedy fellow Negro ministers than he did with the whole white race.

After the Progressive National Convention at Memphis a few years ago, Adams has not ceased to find fault with Dr. King's way of handling things. Adams is a money grafter and he is overcharged with Black Power.

So, I feel if they are so cocksure and calm about continued marches in spite of King's tragic death, their plans must have gone through at the death of the leader of both marches and financial donations.

There is nothing under the heavens that Charles G. Adams wants more than money and power.

He lives at 40 Hillsboro Road, Mattapan, Mass. He is as saintly as any man you can meet and can fool the very "elect" if it were possible. He had to be a traitor if he could preach in King's pulpit the week before he was killed and had already planned against him.

Very sincerely,

Sara F. Jones

and I am a Christian woman.

While this is just a clue, I would be most testify to what I heard Adams say.

Gentlemen:

This is the third letter to you giving possible clues to the Martin Luther King slaying.

Since Charles G. Adams took Martin Luther King's pulpit in Atlanta, Georgia for the whole week before King was slain, it seems he, Adams, should be questioned as to who appointed him to run the revival and under what conditions; he should also be questioned as to any confidences he may have entered into with the officers of Dr. King's church (many times the deacons and trustees do confide in a visiting minister against the pastor); (Adams had a way of trying to root greater men than himself out of their positions).

It would be very wise to question the tenor of things during his schedule with Martin Luther King's church in Atlanta last week, to determine if Adams did any secret deals with King's membership. Adams likes to place his friends in big churches, especially from Harvard and who knows if they are not paying him large sums of money for such pastoral placements?

Adams actually wants rulership, and sponsors more racism than Christian doctrine. He staged a march against the Police Dept. in Dorchester, Mass about two years ago.

Now he is presently fooling his illiterate congregation with the idea of building a Concord Towers for $30,000. He keeps them raising money, but with no results. When this $30,000 is raised he will in all probability give them a reason why he cannot go through with it.

He may keep his monies deposited in Detroit, Mich. his home town, where he spends the summer every year. He has found that his Harvard Masters Degree helps him to fool and fleece the unlearned Negro people, so he keeps them jumping.

He knew he was against Dr. King, and yet took his pulpit last week.

He has invited Martin Luther King's father here to speak in his church next month, just as a drawing card for money purposes. Just as he posted the title Truman Capote's IN COLD BLOOD on his church bulletin to attract big money collections.

Charles G. Adams should be very cautiously and thoroughly questioned regarding the death of Martin Luther King. King he was not King's friend, although he posed as such.

Respectfully submitted,

Note: Without letting them know it, you should find out how close Ralph Abernathy, head of SCC, and Charles G. Adams were as friends. The smattering of education from Harvard made Adams a very shrewd confidence preacher.
He will try his technique of speech with any man.

Bureau of Investigation

Gentlemen:

If you will study very carefully this list of Baptist Officers who were closely associated with Martin Luther King you will find the names of two who should be questioned very carefully.

These are preachers who pulled out from the regular National Baptist Convention and organized a convention of their own, but could not rule Martin Luther King when it came to staging marches. After this convention about two or three years ago, Charles G. Adams, historian, on the list of officers came back to Concord Baptist Church here in Boston and started to poison the minds of his members against Martin Luther King and the way he staged his marches. This list also includes a very close friend of Adams who is a judge in the courts of Memphis, Tennessee, namely, Judge B. Hooks (you will see his name also on the enclosed list of officers) who did not agree with King and his marches. They wanted to help control the marches, but it seems King would not accept their arguments.

This same Charles G. Adams of Concord Baptist of Boston has just finished a week's revival in Martin Luther King's church in Atlanta, but he was not King's friend. There was also some strife over King's manner of doing things. They contended that King was staging marches against the hands that fed them, etc.

I really do not think you could make a mistake by questioning both this Judge B. Hooks of the Memphis Courts and this Charles G. Adams of Boston who preached in King's church the week before he was killed. They did much to knock King's manner of staging marches.

These officers not only pulled out from the regular convention but pulled out from the publishing company and started publishing their own literature. There has always been the most bitter strife in these National Baptists Conventions.

Prayerfully submitted,

Sara F. Jones

Note: For four weeks, Charles Adams has kept the title IN COLD BLOOD on his church bulletin, and being a religious hypnotist and psychologist, he may have kept it there bound to his own conscience. His church is located at 184 Warren Avenue, Boston. Adams is one of the most crafty men I have ever handled the word of God. He deserves a questioning.
