On the morning of 8/5/68, Mrs. LONGCRIER advised that BARNES had returned to his residence at 4 PM, Sunday, 8/4/68, and had left about 5 AM, 8/5/68, apparently enroute to work.

On 8/5/68, neighborhood source, Mrs. GERALDINE WILKINSON, 1383 East Riviera Drive, advised that both Mr. and Mrs. BARNES, according to Mrs. WILKINSON's daughter, were at their residence late in the afternoon of Sunday, 8/4/68, and left in their stationwagon which was loaded down. She had not seen them on the morning of 8/5/68.

It appears that BARNES may be moving, possibly to Miss., since he works in Miss. His activities are being followed in order to determine whether or not he moves and to determine any contacts which may have a bearing on this case.

Re Miami teletype to the Bureau, 8/2/68, setting forth information to Miami by WILLIAM SOMERSETT concerning MARGARET CAPOMACCHIA.

Mobile was requested to be alert as to activities of SIDNEY C. BARNES who reportedly was leaving for Jackson, Miss., 8/2/68.

SIDNEY CROCKETTE BARNES, 1379 East Riviera Drive, Mobile, Ala., is a bombing suspect of the Mobile Office and his activity has been covered in the past month by four different neighborhood sources. No information has been reported by these sources to indicate that BARNES was away from his residence just prior to or subsequent to the murder of MARTIN LUTHER KING. These sources have furnished no information indicating that THOMAS A. TARRANTS, III or KATHLEEN AINSWORTH had stayed at the BARNES' residence.

In the late afternoon of 8/2/68, neighborhood source, Mrs. MARY LONGCRIER, 1382 East Riviera Drive, telephonically advised that at about 5:20 PM that date she had observed BARNES in his stationwagon which vehicle appeared to be packed as if BARNES was moving from the residence. She did not see Mrs. BARNES on that occasion.

BLAYLOCK was advised that he did not have to furnish any information, that any information furnished by him could be used against him in a court of law, and that he was entitled to consult an attorney or anyone else prior to furnishing any information, by SA JAMES F. BODMAN, JR.

BLAYLOCK, who was interviewed at the Travel Inn Motel, advised as follows:

He formerly operated the Candlelite Lounge, Highway 82 West, Winona, Mississippi, during June and July, 1967. BLAYLOCK advised that he recalls an individual by the name of J. W. ROGERS, who is from and resides in the Winona area, coming into the lounge just about every day during June and July, 1967.

BLAYLOCK stated that ROGERS, who "got drunk every day," would after getting drunk boast that he would pay $100,000 to anyone who would kill Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. BLAYLOCK stated that no one paid any serious attention to ROGERS, as ROGERS seldom had enough money to pay for his own drinks.

BLAYLOCK stated that ROGERS and his drinking became such a problem that he stopped ROGERS from coming into his place of business.

BLAYLOCK stated that he has never heard of anyone from the state of Florida offering $100,000 to have Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING killed. He said that the dated 8/10/68, with airmail copies to Atlanta and Mobile.

GAAR, JR.

On 8/11/68, the Jackson Office furnished the Miami
Division via AMSD a current photo of THOMAS ALBERT TARRANTS, III.

A review of Jackson file 157-22, Bufile 157-2387, captioned "HORACE BYRON GAAR, JR.; RM", disclosed that from the period March 24, 1964, when GAAR and NOAH JEFFERSON CARDEN were arrested by ATTU Agents at George County, Mississippi, for operating an illegal distillery, and possession of illegal firearms, a fugitive-type investigation was conducted by the Jackson Division in an attempt to locate GAAR. This matter was closed by the Jackson Division on 10/26/65.

By letter dated 5/18/66, HERBERT R. DAVIS, Chief, Compliance and Security Division, Federal Aviation Agency (FAA), Southern Region, P.O. Box 20636, Atlanta, Georgia, 30320, advised the Jackson Division that GAAR was then in Managua, Nicaragua, address furnished as Box 2458, that city. The letter alleged that GAAR used this address when he took a medical examination in connection with his Airman's Certificate.

Investigation in the Jackson Division in 1964 and 1965 to locate GAAR disclosed he was a former pilot for Eastern Airlines.

On 7/15/65, DONALD BEALL, Airman Certificate Branch, FAA, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised that GAAR holds Airline Transport Pilot Certificate # 406012, dated 12/16/60, with ratings: Airplane Multi-Engine Land; Martin 202/404; Commercial privileges; Airplane single-engine, land. Address: 11850 Southwest 185th Street, Miami 57, Florida.

DEAN MITCHELL, Aeromedical Records Branch, FAA, Oklahoma City, advised that GAAR was afforded a medical examination on 11/5/64, at which time he indicated his address as Box 434, Coconut Grove 33, Florida. GAAR was given a first-class ATP Medical Certificate with no limitations. At that time, GAAR indicated his occupation as a self-employed pilot, one and one-half years, military file # 15364092.

Jackson Division files failed to disclose any current information concerning automobiles or airplanes available to GAAR.

It is being noted GAAR was a licensed airplane pilot and according to source in Miami Division, GAAR is presently in Texas.

It is also noted in re Miami tel to Bureau that SIDNEY CROCKETTE BARNES was with THOMAS ALBERT TARRANTS, III around 4/18/68, which information is based on a bill of sale bearing that date that was located in the automobile used by TARRANTS and AINSWORTH in the attempted bombing of MEYER DAVIDSON's house in Meridian, Mississippi, 6/30/68.

All offices receiving a copy of this communication should bear in mind the possibility that ROBERT BOLIVAR DePUGH, IO # 4176, and WALTER PATRICK PEYSON, IO # 4181, both Bureau fugitives, may be hiding out at the locations described in re Miami tel. All leads should be covered expeditiously and thoroughly. Since SIDNEY CROCKETTE BARNES is apparently an associate of TARRANTS, it appears imperative that BARNES, GAAR and CARDEN should be located and their activities for the past several months verified.

In view of the alleged mental condition of Mrs. Margaret Capomacchia, mother of Kathleen Ainsworth, and in view of the past performance of the informant, Miami should have no further contact with the former informant in regard to the information that Kathleen Ainsworth and five other individuals were involved in the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr.

In view of the fact that in interview with Mrs. Capomacchia she denies any knowledge of this alleged participation in the assassination and refuses to discuss it, receiving offices should conduct no further investigation in this aspect.

If any further information comes to your attention regarding this, you should notify the Bureau of same, submit your recommendations and take no further action.

The Mobile Office currently has four neighborhood sources who reside in the close proximity to the residence of SIDNEY CROCKETT BARNES at 1379 E. Riviera Dr., Mobile, Ala., and who are in a position to furnish information concerning his whereabouts. The residence of this subject is in a secluded area and close visual observation of visitors is extremely difficult due to the heavy shrubbery on the property. These sources have reported continuously BARNES' presence at his residence, and on 8/20/68, Mrs. MARY LONGCRIER, 1382 E. Riviera Dr., reported BARNES' presence at his residence and also reported that a second individual was conversing with BARNES and was evidently intending to stay the night at the BARNES' residence. It is to be noted that the Miami Office had previously advised Mobile that WILLIAM SOMERSETT, former MM 607-R, contemplated a visit to BARNES in Mobile on this date. It is further to be noted that SOMERSETT advised that he had received a letter from BARNES in which BARNES stated that he was contemplating moving in the near future to 5605 Plemon Dr., Jackson, Miss. The neighborhood sources have reported during the past weeks that BARNES has been loading boxes and clothing in the rear of his personally owned station wagon and has been taking them with him each morning as he drives to work, returning to his home in the evening with an empty car.

A review of the files of the Mobile Office fails to reflect current information concerning NOAH JEFFERSON CARDEN, but reflects that on 12/15/67 he operated a night club in Mobile called Jeff's Smokehouse, and resided at the time at 2359 W. Hollwood Rd., Mobile. CARDEN was observed in the Mobile area on 8/19/68 by members of the Mobile PD Intelligence Unit.

The current residence and employment of NOAH JEFFERSON CARDEN will be ascertained.

A review of the files of the Mobile Office fails to reflect any information concerning HORACE BYRON GAAR, JR., and there is no record of his having been in the Mobile area. As of late 1965 the whereabouts of GAAR were unknown at the Mobile Office, and no information has come to their attention indicating his present whereabouts.

I

I interviewed Bill Sartor in connection with the captioned matter for about four hours on August 22, 1968. He had been identified to me in June by Jesse Epps as a reporter who had been inquiring into the possible existence of a conspiracy to assassinate Dr. King. At Mr. Epps' request I met Sartor then briefly, and he gave me bits and pieces of information and rumors about the killing that he had accumulated to that point. His interest had been aroused, he said, by the firm conviction among many Negroes in Memphis that there was a conspiracy possibly involving some members of the Memphis Police Department. My conversation with him in June is set out in part II, below.

Sartor lives at 1242 Kirk Circle in Greenville, Mississippi (phone 335-3272), with his wife and one or two children. He is a contract writer for Time, Inc., and he has covered Memphis, particularly racial matters, since before the Sanitation Workers strike. He appears to be known and trusted by those Negro leaders in Memphis with whom I have talked (Epps, Trotter, Rev. Jackson, Rev. Bell, etc.), and he says that he is close to the (former) Mayor Ingram faction of the white community. I attach a copy of his latest piece on Memphis which appeared in the August 16, 1968, issue of Time.

I can not evaluate Sartor's reliability or that of his sources, but he is a "low key" fellow who is not apparently irrational or fanciful. He says he approached the allegations of a conspiracy with skepticism (which I doubt), but that he is now largely persuaded there was one. He declines (for the moment) to identify his sources, with three unimportant exceptions, beyond saying that they include four or five petty racketeers in Memphis, New Orleans, and elsewhere and one well placed protege of Carlos Marcellos in New Orleans.

He comes to us, he says, primarily to assist in ascertaining the truth, but also with the expectation or hope that we will feed investigative results back to him. If that is not possible, he would like to be given the story first or, failing that, no later than anyone else. He has been spending most of his time on this since the assassination, but can not go much farther because some of his sources have begun to ask for the kind of money or protection that he is unable to provide.

Charlie Stein, a petty racketeer connected with organized crime, contacted James Earl Ray in Los Angeles and told him that there were people in New Orleans whom he ought to talk to. Whether Stein happened upon Ray or sought him out knowing that he needed money and was an escaped prisoner is not known, but Ray was told that the people he ought to talk to would help him with money and his fugitive status.

Ray's contacts in New Orleans were with Mafia-Cosa Nostra representatives who referred him to Frank Lebarto (or Liberto), a Memphis racketeer and lieutenant of Carlos Marcellos, the Southern Mafia chieftan in New Orleans. Lebarto owns or works at the Scott Street Produce Market where John McFerren of Somerville allegedly overheard a man speaking on the telephone say, on or about the day of the assassination: "Shoot him on the balcony, shoot him anywhere; and go to New Orleans for your money, don't come back here."

According to Sartor's informants, the Cosa Nostra agreed to "broker" or to arrange the assassination, for an amount somewhat in excess of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000), after they were contacted in the Northeast (New Jersey or Pennsylvania), by representatives of "Forever White", an elite organization of wealthy segregationists with officers or subgroups in seven Southern states. The Mafia's (which Sartor used interchangeably with Cosa Nostra throughout the interview) interest was less the money than the investment-type opportunity presented, i.e., to get in a position to extract (or extort) governmental or other favors from some well placed Southern white persons, including the KKK and White Citizens Councils. Quitman, Mississippi, was said by Sartor to be a possible base of "Forever White's" operations.

Claude Cockrell, allegedly a Memphis segregationist, extortionist, narcotics pusher, and petty racketeer, may have been a contact between the Mafia and "Forever White." In any event, he is thought to have gone to Miami, Florida, between April 14 and 24, 1968, where he may have picked up money to be delivered to Philadelphia or New Jersey. Cockrell also may have been instrumental in getting Ray out of Memphis after the assassination either by truck (according to Sartor's New Orleans informants) or in Cockrell's private plane, which is said to use a private landing strip at Millington and which is piloted by one Joe Shafer.

According to Sartor, Joe Cacameci (ph.) and Larry Mann (aka. Larry Manning and Larry Max), two professional killers, are also involved. Joe Cacameci allegedly met James Earl Ray at a Lion Service Station in Memphis the day of or the night before the shooting. Larry Mann has been saying that he works for Frank Lebarto and is responsible for "getting" James Earl Ray. According to one of Sartor's New Orleans informants, James Earl Ray was seen at, or stayed at, the Pontotoc Hotel in Memphis approximately three days before the shooting.

The original plan was that Ray would be arrested immediately after the shooting, tried, and acquitted. There was a change, however, perhaps as late as an hour before the shooting, due to a mix-up involving the money. Either the Mafia wanted him at large until the balance of the price was paid or, more likely, says Sartor, the money was still in the North and the shares of those in Memphis (Leberto and others) had not been paid, and it was they who wanted Ray at large as a lever on higher-ups in the rackets.

In any event, Sartor's informants claim that Ray's escape from Memphis was engineered with the connivance of several Memphis police officers who knew of the plot. After the money problem was resolved, Ray deliberately permitted himself to be arrested in London with the understanding that he will be acquitted in Memphis. However, another story has it that he will be killed in a holocaust which will endanger a large number of lives.

Two aspects of the foregoing information persuade Sartor of its accuracy. First, he has received identical fragments of information independently from different sources. Secondly, several of his sources in Memphis and New Orleans have told him that agents of Bureau and non-Bureau Justice Department representatives, including a man named (FNU) Voight, have interviewed them about the assassination.

Sartor took me to meet Pat Lyons who, according to Sartor, is a petty gambler with sources of information close to Frank Leberto. In my presence, Lyons repeated to Sartor that, according to "Ernie" (Lyons did not give a last name), Ray met Joe Cacameci at a Lion Service Station on the night before or the day of the shooting. Lyons expressed concern for the safety of his wife and children; I did not comment or ask him any questions. He also said that the "talk" was that Ray would be acquitted.

Sartor says that his informants will probably be willing to talk to us, but that they will ask for money, immunity, or protection or all three. Because Sartor wants us to contact his principal informants through him, he declined to identify any contacts except Lyons, Rev. Carl Basinger and Memphis policeman E. E. Redditt, below.

An additional, apparently unrelated, piece of information furnished by Sartor was that a little Negro boy allegedly heard a shot and saw a man jump up from the bushes behind the rooming house (below the window area from which the shot is thought to have been fired) and run off. According to Sartor, the little boy has been identified and interviewed by Bureau agents and the Memphis Police Department.

II

During our first conversation, on June 12, 1968, Sartor gave me the following fragments of allegations and information:

1. Shortly after the killing, a bartender overheard some Memphis policemen say that there had been a "slip-up," and that the assassination was originally scheduled to take place after the march for which Dr. King had returned to Memphis. When I asked Sartor about this in August, he said that one of his New Orleans informants had also referred to a similar change in plans.

2. A minister, identified by Sartor in August as Rev. Carl Basinger, 1617 E. Moreland, Memphis, was advised by a ranking officer in the Memphis Police Department (captain or above) not to go near Dr. King because something was going to happen to him.

3. According to former Mayor Ingram (although my notes are not clear as to whether Sartor got this directly from him), a civilian was seen lying in the back of a police car immediately after the shooting, and near Mulberry or Huling he got out of the police car, into another car, and was driven away. Sartor had nothing further on this in August.

4. John McFerren, the Negro civil rights activist from Somerville, Tennessee, overheard part of a telephone conversation at the Scott Street Produce Market in which the speaker allegedly made the comments noted above. Shortly thereafter, McFerren was visited, for no apparent reason, by a man named Powers from New Orleans. Sartor had nothing further on this in August.

5. An unidentified Negro policeman was moved from his assignment at the Fire Station (and Police Tactical Unit Station) at about 5:00 p.m. on the day of the assassination. According to Sartor, the Dispatcher told the policeman to move two or three times during the afternoon, but he did not do so until explicitly advised to that effect by a superior. In August, Sartor identified the policeman as E. E. Redditt and said that Redditt had broken off an interview with Sartor after starting to discuss his move from the station.

6. Two Negro firemen were moved from the station a day or two before the shooting. One of them has reportedly told friends that, two or three days before Dr. King was shot, a telescope or binoculars were set up on a tripod in the fire station and focused on the Lorraine Motel balcony. In August, Sartor said that one fireman left the Department or was suspended shortly after the shooting, and that he has been unable to locate either of them. He did not have their names.

7. Memphis Chief of Detectives, W. P. Houston, called the Lorraine Motel in the early afternoon of April 4 and spoke to a maid named Delores (LNU). He inquired about stationing detectives there, and the maid said that the manager would call back. He did not; nor did Houston. Sartor says that former Mayor Ingram provided this information.

Sartor was unable during either interview to relate the foregoing allegations to his conspiracy theory, but he says that some of it, and other information possessed by former Mayor Ingram concerning corruption in the Police Department, suggest that a number of officers may have known of or participated in the conspiracy--because they were bribed or feared exposure.

I told Sartor that I would report his information to my superiors.
