On 4/18/68 Gerald Spaulding was contacted at his place of employment, 1809 24th St S, Clearwater, Fla. He advised that on approx. 4/9/68 an individual appeared at his barbershop and stated "Give me the fastest haircut you ever gave." This individual made no other comments while in the barbershop.

He described the individual that came into the barbershop as being a W/M 28-29 years old, 5'10", 165 lbs, very dark brown hair cut short and combed straight back, long straight nose and a receding forehead. He stated that this individual was very nervous and fingered a cigarette holder. He was driving a 1960 white Rambler with a Florida twenty license.

SA JOHN R. M. WHELAN

H. S. RUTHERFORD
ITSP

On 4/15/68, Det. ALEX TAYLOR, Intelligence Unit, Tampa PD, telephonically advised Supervisor BELANGER that captioned individual was presently residing at Room 558, Hillsboro Hotel, Tampa, Florida. He had a ragged appearance, was loud and boisterous, and appeared to look like the artist's concept photograph of the assassin of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. This individual checked into the hotel approximately four days ago and indicated he had just arrived from Texas and indicated employment with a firm in Texas. He had offered a check in the amount of $60.00, drawn on a bank in Birmingham, Ala., in payment of his hotel bill. On checking in, subject indicated that he was a resident of Birmingham, Ala.

Hotel officers determined that the account number, which had been handwritten on the face of the bank check, was a legitimate account number, being of the type and sequence presently in use by the bank; however, the particular account number written on the check had not, as yet, been issued for an account.

SAs JOHN R. M. WHELAN and JOHN R. BRETT were dispatched to the hotel to interview subject to determine his resemblance, if any, to the assassin of KING, and SA WILLIAM F. DOYLE was dispatched to contact Detective TAYLOR and one of Detective TAYLOR's informants, who had additional information concerning this matter.

At the hotel it was determined that RUTHERFORD was not in his room.

Mrs. SOPHIA FRYER, Resident Manager, examined Room 558 and after consulting with the maid on the floor, advised that the subject had apparently left the room. There was no clothing in the room and there was one piece of Samsonite luggage, which contained three suits of men's underwear. The occupant's razor and tooth brush were missing and there was an empty whisky bottle in the waste basket. There was a receipt from Town Optical Company, located 705 Florida, Avenue, Tampa, Florida, showing payment of $38.00, on 4/12/68. There was also a salesman's business card from Wolf Brothers, 700 Florida Avenue.

On interview, Detective TAYLOR advised there was, in fact, no indication that the subject resembled the widely publicized artist's concept photograph of the assassin and that the Tampa PD had no immediate interest in the subject.

ED DYSON, Night Auditor, Hillsboro Hotel, advised that subject is a white male; 5'9" tall; approximately 150 lbs.; he appears to be in his early 50s; has a medium complexion and a medium build. His eyes appear to be small and close together and he wears dark rimmed glasses. He has bushy eyebrows and his forehead recedes slightly. DYSON stated that he, himself, is 5'10" tall and the man was considerably shorter than he is.

Mrs. SOPHIA FRYER, Resident Manager, Hillsboro Hotel, advised that the subject is white male; approximately 52 years of age; 5'9" tall; 155 - 160 lbs. He has dark brown hair, noticeably grey at the temples and sides. He wears dark rimmed eyeglasses. Mrs. FRYER stated that possibly MARGARET KEYS, a dining room hostess, and a waitress named ETHEL, in the hotel dining room, might have some knowledge of the subject.

Detective TAYLOR telephonically advised SA WHELAN that subject had attempted to cash a check at Wolf Brothers in Tampa, Florida. He purchased clothing and offered the check in payment and was loud and abusive when the management refused to deliver the purchase items pending approval of the check. The subject was to have returned on Saturday to pick up the clothes, but he did not. Because of the furor created by him, at Wolf's, many employees there could possibly furnish a description. TAYLOR determined at Wolf's that subject possibly purchased some luggage at Falks, offering a check in payment and that possibly he might have passed other checks at other business establishments in downtown Tampa.

In order to assist in the handling of complaints received from the public as a result of the filing of a complaint and obtaining process for ERIC STARVO GALT in this case, two photographs of GALT are attached hereto. It will be noted that the photo of GALT appearing on the left side is an unretouched photograph taken in March, 1968, while the photo appearing to the right is a retouched photograph of GALT wherein an FBI artist has drawn in eyes on the photo.

The Bureau has furnished the following descriptive data concerning ERIC STARVO GALT: White male, approximately 5'8-5'11" tall, weighs 160-175 lbs., neat dresser and has medium build. His hair is brown which he wears in a brush cut, reportedly has blue eyes, his nose is straight and narrow, teeth straight and clean, has given DOB as [REDACTED]. GALT is said to have a nervous habit of occasionally pulling at his ear lobe with his hand. His left ear protrudes further from his head than his right ear. Individuals who have met GALT describe him as a loner and state his language and diction have a rural quality and suggest that he possibly does not have a high degree of education. He is said to drink alcoholic beverages and has a preference for vodka and beer. He is a fan of western and country music. GALT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

RE: SUSPECT HARRY KNIERIEM

At 9:35 a.m., 4/19/68, Mr. BRUCE MC CAY, 207 So. Hoover, Tampa, Fla., telephone 876-7303, appeared at the Tampa Office and advised as follows:

He stated that the MC CAY family owns McCay Criss Craft Sales at the Tampa Bay Marina. On 4/15/68, one HARRY KNIERIEM, who gave his address as 4120 Lambert Rd., Louisville, Kentucky, appeared at the Tampa Bay Marina, MC CAY's store and inquired concerning the purchase of a Raytheon depth indicator, model #DE730. Mr. MC CAY negotiated with KNIERIEM and finally settled on a price of $100 cash. This item was not maintained in stock, but MC CAY directed KNIERIEM to the Raytheon Company in Tampa to pick it up.

Mr. MC CAY stated that in payment of the depth indicator, KNIERIEM did not pay in cash but utilized a blank counter check in the account of Harry's Auto Parts, 4120 Lambert, Louisville, Kentucky. The check was signed HARRY KNIERIEM. MC CAY could not recall the bank on which the check was drawn but stated that the check was deposited in the MC CAY account at the Peninsula Bank, Tampa, Fla., and has not been returned as yet. He recalled that KNIERIEM had a young child with him, age about 7 or 8 years. He recalled further that KNIERIEM aroused his suspicion because he did not park his automobile in the marina lot, but parked it outside of the marina and when MC CAY went out to observe KNIERIEM get into his car, MC CAY noted it was a 1964 station wagon, possibly a Ford with a license plate which had a white background with dark numerals. The number on it was K80725.

MC CAY described this individual as a white male, about 5'6" or 5'8", 160 lbs., medium build and dark brown hair, crew cut, and rather dry looking.

MC CAY stated that during conversation with him KNIERIEM claimed that he was merely visiting in Tampa as he had a sister here. He said he wanted the Raytheon depth indicator to place on an outboard motor boat that he had. MC CAY noted that when he looked at the station wagon that KNIERIEM had, he noted that there was a rather rusty looking boat hitch on the car. MC CAY said that KNIERIEM was rather emphatic in knowing exactly what he wanted and when he left in about twenty minutes, he was supposed to go to the Raytheon Co. to pick up the item. MC CAY said he knows that KNIERIEM went to the Raytheon Co. as one of the girls there called and questioned MC CAY about the price he had quoted as apparently he had an old price book.. He could hear her talk to KNIERIEM in the background.

MC CAY said he was furnishing all of this information to the FBI because he had seen a photo of ERIC STARVO GALT on a television program and he was fairly certain that KNIERIEM bore a marked resemblance to GALT. He stated that KNIERIEM actually has a closer crewcut than on the photo and his eye-brows are slightly bushier than the picture. He also stated KNIERIEM has prominent cheek bones and his eyes are dark, either brown or hazel, but they definitely impress you as being dark eyes rather than blue. He mentioned also that the picture of GALT shows him wearing a bow tie and this is somewhat misleading as KNIERIEM was wearing a sweater with an open neck shirt. He definitely sounded like a country boy although he did not give an appearance as being stupid. He noted that KNIERIEM was fairly well tanned and his whole face appeared to be squared off. He noted also that this individual smiled faintly and had a rather pleasant countenance.

MC CAY was questioned concerning the presence of a youngster with KNIERIEM and appeared to be rather confused as to whether the youngster was a boy or a girl. He could not remember whether KNIERIEM referred to the child as son or girl.

It is to be noted that BRUCE MC CAY said he was absolutely certain that all we had to do was check this out and we would find that KNIERIEM was GALT, and as an after-thought he recalled during the conversation with KNIERIEM, he mentioned that he had been by the Boat Mart and from his conversation, he felt that he had been talking about prices on Raytheon depth indicators at the Boat Mart.

Will display photographs of GALT to individuals at the Boat Mart and also at the Raytheon Co. to determine their reaction to the pictures and whether possibly KNIERIEM could be GALT. If it appears that there is some possibility of this, will set out appropriate leads to Louisville to check out KNIERIEM.

POSSIBLE RACIAL VIOLENCE,
ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA,
APRIL 12, 1968

Officials at the St. Petersburg, Florida Police Department, advised on April 11, 1968, concerning unconfirmed rumors which had been received from unidentified sources of said Department relative to the possibility of demonstrations being conducted in the City by Negroes at local stores, not further identified, but apparently being stores that had failed to appropriately observe the funeral of MARTIN LUTHER KING. The police officials said that, since the arrest of local Negro militant, JOSEPH WALLER, in connection with racial disturbances in Gainesville, Florida, there appeared that unidentified Negroes from out of State had been arriving in St. Petersburg to organize Negroes there. It was indicated that a 1959 Cadillac Limousine, bearing current Louisiana license 167A030, containing seven Negro males, and a new Pontiac or other General Motors car, blue with black vinyl top, bearing current Louisiana license 94F462, containing five Negro males, had been observed on the streets of St. Petersburg,

The New Orleans Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation advised on April 12, 1968, that the Motor Vehicle Bureau records at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, show that current Louisiana license 94F462, is registered in the name of one JIMMIE JACKSON, 110 Charles Drive, Ruston, Louisiana, for a 1968 Buick, two-door sedan, Vehicle Identification Number 446378H213280.

The New Orleans Office indicated that Grambling College, a predominantly Negro school, is located at Ruston, Louisiana, and the students at said school are currently on Easter holiday.

The above-mentioned Motor Vehicle records contained no information concerning license number 167A030, it being indicated that this number has not been issued by said Bureau as yet.

Frank Phillip, Jr., Chief, Campus Security, Grambling College, Ruston, Louisiana, advised on April 12, 1968, that Jim Jackson, 110 Charles Drive, Ruston, was a former student at Grambling who had graduated at the end of the 1966-1967 school year. Mr. Phillip said Jackson had signed with a professional baseball farm club after graduation and had gone to St. Petersburg, Florida, for spring training.

Mr. Phillip said he thought Jackson had signed with a farm club belonging to the Chicago White Sox.

St. Petersburg police have reported no incidents in connection with the situation involving the two automobiles described by them on April 11, 1968.
