Next day drove to Panama City, Fla., and rented Kitchette of Treasure Island Motel. Rev. A.D. Williams King flew to Panama City, Fla. and stayed in adjoining kitchette. They went together and Memphis, Tenn., to Lorraine Motel. Mrs. Davis had room 201; Mrs. Ward, room 207, They looked for Martin Luther King, but could not find him.

Martin Luther King arrived at about 3 a.m. by taxi with Rev. Ralph Abernathy and Rev. Bernard Lee; all were invited by Mrs. Ward to join them in room 207. Abernathy;

Lee left shortly. Dr. King stayed until about 5 am; then left and said he was going to room 306. Mrs. Davis left and went to room 201.

About one-half hour later, Dr. King came to room 201 and visited with Mrs. Davis. Miss Katherin Pedin mentioned Mrs. Davis told Dr. King that she probably would not remain in Memphis since march had been rescheduled from 4/5 to 4/8/68. Dr. King said to talk to him before deciding finally and that he planned a strategy meeting 8 am, 4/4/68, Dr. King left Mrs. Ward joined Mrs. Davis in room 201; they talked until about noon.

At about 1 or 1:30 pm Dr. King returned to room 201 and told Mrs. Davis he was going to rest in room 306. Dr. King made several phone calls from room 201. A.D. Williams King came in. Abernathy and Lee came in.

Mrs. Davis phoned Mrs. Ward and invited her to come in. Mrs. Ward came, then left to get some laundry for Mrs. Davis - Channcey Eskridge and Andrew Young came in. Mrs. Ward returned.

At 5:45 pm Dr. King said he was going to dinner at home of Rev. Billy Kyles and invited Mrs. Davis. She said she would need about 15 minutes to freshen up. Dr. King said he would go to his room to freshen up and wait for her.

Just after putting on her raincoat, Mrs. Davis heard a shot. Went outside and heard someone say that Dr. King had been shot. Saw Dr. King's feet protruding over balcony near room 306. Mrs. Davis went near Dr. Kings body and stayed there until ambulance arrived approximately 10 minutes after shot.

Rev. Jackson made a press statement. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Ward made plans for staying elsewhere several time but finally returned to Lorraine Motel and stayed there for night. They left Memphis about 9 am, April 5 and drove to Atlanta, Ga.

April 11, 1968 approx. 2 p.m. Davis (Auto Theft Squad, Atlanta) received a radio message to meet someone at Connally St and Memorial Drive. These met Kenneth Jones and Iloe Powell, local ministers, who stated that a female named Lorence reported white mustang with Alabama license was parked in Capitol Home Parking lot since previous Friday.

Proceeded to lot found 1966 Ford Mustang, tow-door, white, with 1968 Alabama license 1-38993, backed into parking square. Observed 1967 Alabama license 1A-88354 lying on deck above rear seat. Car was locked. Davis unlocked left front door and determined vehicle Identification

No. 6T07C190647. Davis found a small metal key between two front seats on floor; took key and marked date and initials. Key was about 13/4" long, thin, flat, silver-colored metal.

Davis sent license-plate numbers and vehicle Identification No. to National Crime Information Center and State Police in Montgomery, Alabama. (Later discovered that one digit in a number sent to NCIC was deleted or wrong.) He received reply from Alabama State Police that NCIC had sent to them information connecting car to Eric Starvo Galt; no stolen information received.
