Memorandum

TO : SAC, ALBUQUERQUE (44-715)

DATE: 4-25-68

FROM : THOMAS J. BURCHFIELD

SUBJECT: MURKIN

At 7:30 P.M. this date a woman who refused to identify herself telephonically advised the following information:

On 4-23-68 this woman arrived at the Pink Elephant Bar located at Bowl-A-Drome and began drinking. She arrived at about 1:00 PM that afternoon and struck up a conversation with a man that was already there. She said that he was very quiet and when she asked him what he ~~did~~ made for a living, he replied that he does not do anything right now. She described the man as about 5'10" or 5'11", was thin and had light brown hair. She advised that he would drink nothing but beer and played western music all afternoon. She did get him to bowl a couple of games and said his handwriting is on the bowling sheet. She described him as a average bowler.

She further advised that she then became very drunk and belligerent and the bartender called the police to pick her up around 6:00 PM that evening. She advised that the man was still at the bar when she was removed.

She said that his eyes looked alot like the picture she had seen of Galt in the paper but she could not remember the color. She said that he was staying in a motel located on Central Ave. but she advised he never mentioned the name or exact location. She said that he advised that he had driven around town for awhile before choosing the Pink Elephant to stop in. He thought it looked like a quiet place.

CIVIL RIGHTS - CONSPIRACY
INTERSTATE FLIGHT - ROBBERY
"TEN MOST WANTED FUGITIVES" PROGRAM
RELEASE DATE: SATURDAY P.M., APRIL 20, 1968

THE CRIMES: Ray escaped from the Missouri State Penitentiary, Jefferson City, Missouri, on April 23, 1967, while serving a 20-year sentence for armed robbery and operating a motor vehicle without the owner's permission. He subsequently allegedly conspired, under the alias Eric Starvo Galt, to violate the civil rights of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., shot to death on the balcony of a Memphis, Tennessee, motel on April 4, 1968.

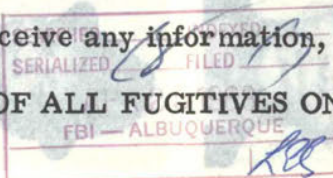

THE CRIMINAL: A 40-year-old white native of Illinois, who is known as a "loner" and "drifter" and has taken elaborate steps to establish a false identity, Ray has an extensive criminal record, including convictions for burglary, robbery and forging U. S. Postal Money Orders. Outstanding characteristics include a straight narrow nose, straight and even teeth, a noticeably protruding left ear and a nervous habit of tugging at an ear lobe. He has taken dancing lessons, attended bartending school, enrolled in a correspondence course in locksmithing and traveled widely in a 1966 Mustang recovered in Atlanta, Georgia, a week after Dr. King's murder. Ray likes western and country music, drinks vodka and beer and has worked as a baker, laborer and color matcher.

PROCESS: A Federal warrant issued at Jefferson City, Missouri, on July 20, 1967, charges Ray with unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement for robbery. Another Federal warrant, issued at Birmingham, Alabama, on April 17, 1968, charges Ray, as Eric Starvo Galt, with conspiring to interfere with a Constitutional Right of a citizen.

"TEN MOST WANTED FUGITIVES": Ray is a special addition to the list of "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives." The list as of Saturday p. m., April 20, 1968, was:

FUGITIVE

CIVIL RIGHTS - CONSPIRACY;
INTERSTATE FLIGHT - ARMED ROBBERY

"TEN MOST WANTED FUGITIVES" PROGRAM

James Earl Ray, a Missouri prison escapee who has been sought under the alias Eric Starvo Galt in connection with the gunshot slaying of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., has been added to the FBI's list of "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives."

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover ordered the special addition of Ray to the "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives" list, which already contains ten fugitives, to insure the widest possible dissemination of Ray's photograph and description to help effect his earliest possible location.

Ray has been the subject of a massive and intensive search since the brutal gunshot slaying of Dr. King on April 4, 1968, as he stood on the balcony of a Memphis, Tennessee, motel. One rifle bullet, believed fired from the window of a nearby rooming house, felled the victim.

An exhaustive FBI fingerprint search, comparing latent fingerprints uncovered in the Dr. King case against fingerprints of over 53,000 persons on whom wanted notices have been posted in the FBI's Identification Division, succeeded in determining that Galt and Ray are identical.

A Federal warrant, issued at Birmingham, Alabama, on April 17, 1968, charges Ray, under the alias Eric Starvo Galt, with conspiring to interfere with a Constitutional Right of a United States citizen. Ray is also sought for unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement after conviction for armed robbery, based on a Federal warrant issued on July 20, 1967, at Jefferson City, Missouri. He had been confined at the Missouri State Penitentiary, Jefferson City, Missouri, in March, 1960, with a 20-year sentence following conviction for armed robbery and operating a motor vehicle without permission of the owner. In September, 1966, while serving the sentence, he was confined for a time in the maximum security ward at the State Hospital, Fulton, Missouri. He was reported missing from the Missouri State Penitentiary since April 23, 1967.

Ray, who has an arrest record dating back to 1949 and has been convicted of burglary, armed robbery and forging United States Postal Money Orders, has also been confined in the Los Angeles County Jail, the Joliet and Pontiac, Illinois, State Prisons and the United States Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas.

He served in the Army between February, 1946, and December, 1948, received a three-month sentence at hard labor for being drunk and breaking arrest and was given a General Discharge due to ineptness and lack of adaptability for military service.

Ray is a 40-year-old white male, reportedly born in Illinois on [REDACTED]. He is approximately 5'10" inches tall, weighs from 163 to 174 pounds, has blue eyes and brown hair which he has worn cut short. He has a small scar on the center of his forehead and a scar on the palm of his right hand. He has been described as having a straight, narrow nose and straight and even teeth and to have a nervous habit of occasionally tugging at an ear lobe. His left ear protrudes noticeably.

Acquaintances describe him as a "loner" and "drifter" whose language and diction reflect a "rural" quality and indicate he has had limited education.

He is reportedly a fan of western and country music, drinks vodka and beer, dresses neatly and claims past employment as a merchant seaman and cook on Mississippi River vessels. He is known to have worked as a baker, laborer and color matcher.

He is known as an avid dancer who has taken dancing lessons. He also completed a course at a school of bartending in the Los Angeles area early in 1968.

Ray should be considered armed and extremely dangerous. Anyone with information concerning this fugitive is requested to immediately contact the nearest office of the FBI, the telephone number of which may be found on the first page of local telephone directories.

On 4/25/68 inquiries were made at the White Swan Laundry and the Santa Fe Electric, Santa Fe, New Mexico relative to a laundry mark identified as 2-OR-3. However, each uses a mark starting with a letter rather than a numeral.

No check is necessary at Raton as the only laundry does not have a Thermo-seal machine and the only laundry at Las Vegas does not use tape on laundry but marks on the item.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : SAC (44-715)

DATE: April 19, 1968

FROM : SA JOHN H. LEMMLER

SUBJECT: MURKIN

Mr. G.W. BAKER, 1301 Marquette Place, NE, Albuquerque telephone 242-3998, telephonically advised the office on Sunday, April 14, 1968 that he had observed a man who resembled the artists conception drawing of ERIC STARVO GALT in a Kentucky Fried Chicken establishment on Central earlier that evening. BAKER was interviewed by the writer on April 14, 1968 and furnished the following information:

Sometime between 6:30 and 7:00 PM on April 14, 1968, he observed a man in a Kentucky Fried Chicken establishment on Central Avenue in Albuquerque who very closely resembled an artist's drawing of ERIC STARVO GALT that had appeared in the Albuquerque Tribune earlier in the week. He said the place where he saw this person is just east of Carlisle on Central Ave., in Albuquerque. Mr BAKER said this man was just ahead of him in line, and when this man paid for his order, he gave the cashier a large bill, either a $50 or a $100 bill because he saw the cashier give him a large number of bills in change, including at least two $20s and one $10 bill. Mr BAKER said he did not see the exact denomination of the bill tendered by this person, but concludes that it had ~~to~~ to be a large bill because of the large amount of change given back to him.

Mr BAKER said this man went to a telephone booth just outside the building and made a call while waiting for his order to be filled. He was gone about five minutes, then returned and picked up his order and left. Mr BAKER ~~said~~ said he did not see the vehicle the man was driving, nor did he see in what direction he went after leaving the area.

Mr BAKER said that the most prominent feature about this man was his sharp pointed nose, which was the same as in the drawing in the Albuquerque newspaper. He further stated that had brown hair which was parted to one side, was a white male, age about 21 to 24 years, cheekbones which were just a little more prominent than ordinary, had a slight, thin moustache, otherwise clean shaven, grey eyes, slightly shadowed, about 5'9 or 10" in height, 130 to 140 lbs and having a slight build. He said he did not notice anything about this man's teeth, that the man did not smoke and gave no outward evidence of being nervous. Mr BAKER said that this man's dress was non descript, there being nothing about his dress ~~which~~ which would attract attention. He said this person wore grey trousers, like work trousers, a faded grey checked shirt, no hat and black, unpolished shoes.

Mr BAKER was shown two artists conception drawings of GALT, and he stated that the person he had observed earlier bore a close resemblance to these drawings. He said the only difference was that the face of the person he observed might be slightly more slender than shown in the drawings.

Mrs LEONA PERRY, Kentucky Fried Chicken, Bucket Number Three, advised on April 15, 1968 that she had cashiered during the entire day on April 14, 1968. She said that she did not take in any currency in a denomination larger than a $20 bill the entire day. She said that she did accept a $50 Traveller's Check on April 14, 1968, she believes that this was around 4:30 or 5:00 PM, and that this was the largest item she took in during the day. She said that this Traveller's Check had been deposited in the Albuquerque National Bank. Mrs PERRY was shown two artists conception drawings of ERIC STARVE GALT. She said that the drawings looked vaguely familiar to her, but she was unable to place the individual. She said she could not relate the drawings to the above $50 traveller's check, and pointed out that she wrote about 600 orders on April 14, 1968 and had very brief contact with each customer.

Mr ED LAMBERT, Transit Department, Albuquerque National Bank was contacted on April 15, 1968 relative to identifying the $50 Traveller's Check deposited by Kentucky Fried Chicken, Bucket Number 3 on that date. Mr LAMBERT said it would be extremely difficult to identify an item of this amount, but that he would ~~idnt~~ immediately attempt to locate this item. On April 19, 1968, Mr LAMBERT furnished a copy of American Express Traveller's Check No. HA 82-350-002, which was the only $50 item deposited by Kentucky Fried Chicken, Bucket Number 3 on April 15, 1968.

The signature GLADYS DREYDAHL appeared on this check as both the purchaser and negotiator of this item.

Re Tel Cal from AQ 4-24-68 with instructions to recontact ALAMEDA LAUNDRY, Las Cruces concerning possible identification on Laundry Mark 2 OR 3 (yellow in color)

This is to advise that memo has been submitted previously outlining that Alameda Laundry in Las Cruces in marking their incoming laundry uses a letter system for the first number and therefore this cannot be their number.

Their system again explained is as follows:

First digit is letter for day of week, such as MM for Monday

Second number is a Batch number, and each batch each day uses different colored tape, to be repeated next day, with no system as to which color used. This laundry uses up to 8 colors of tape in one day.

Last number series is the bundle number in the batch. Each batch Normally has up to 20 bundles/. Each bundle for a particular person.

There is no set system for numbering say the clothes of JOHN DOE who comes in every week. He might have clothes with marks such as these:

Tuesday TT 10 3 (any one of 8 colors of tape
(Batch 10, bundle 3)

Friday FF 4 3 (any one of 8 colors of tape)
(Batch 4, bundle 3)

Following Tuesday TT 3 3

SUBJECT: MURKIN

DATE: 4/29/68

On 4/25/68 Clerk TONY OTERO received a telephone call from DAVE BOWMAN, a traveling salesman, staying at the Imperial 500 Hotel, in which he stated when he was out drinking last night he thought for sure he saw a person who looked like GALT drinking at the Holiday Inn.

On 4/25/68 DAVE BOWMAN, Imperial 500, Room 122, Albuquerque, advised he is a carpet salesman and lives at 1801 East Bethany Home Road, Phoenix, Arizona, telephone 274-9171. He said last night at 6:00 p.m. he and a friend, BILL COOPER, went to the Holiday Inn to drink. After they had been sitting down for a few minutes, he noticed a man sitting at the table in front of him with a woman who looked like the photograph of GALT. He said the reason he did not report this sooner was that he got to drinking too much and forgot all about it. He described the man as about 60 years old, with grey, thinning hair, and was smoking a pipe. He was wearing a suit and was approximately 6' tall, with a slender build. BOWMAN said the reason he thought he might be GALT was because this man had a long, sharp nose. He said the woman he was with was in her 50's and they left about 8:30 p.m.

On 4/25/68 BILL COOPER, owner of the House of Carpets, Albuquerque, advised he was out drinking with DAVE BOWMAN last night. COOPER said that BOWMAN pointed out to him the man he thought was GALT. He said there was no resemblance whatsoever to the man drinking and GALT's photograph. COOPER said that when BOWMAN starts drinking, he does crazy things like this.

On 4/25/68 Mrs. GRACE SONS, Bartender, Holiday Inn, advised that she recalls only one woman being in the bar last night and she was with a grey-headed man in his 60's and they left about 9:00 p.m. She said no one has come into the bar, while she has been working, that looked like the photograph of GALT.

SUBJECT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.
