Mr. H. J. NEWMAN, 5387 Rosser Road, Stone Mountain, Georgia, rented box Number 435 on April 4, 1968 and paid cash for the rental. A check of the central files of the bank revealed one H. J. NEWMAN, SR., Douglasville, Georgia, who had a loan at the main office of the Citizens and Southern National Bank in the past. There was no way to identify this NEWMAN with the above individual who rented a safety deposit box.

Mr. and Mrs. LOUIS H. HARRIS, 1368 Northview Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta, Georgia, rented box Number 384 on April 4, 1968. A check of the records of the bank revealed that these individuals are old customers of the bank and have had a checking account at the bank since 1948.

Memorandum

TO : SAC, ATLANTA (44-2386) DATE: 4/25/68

FROM : SA ROGER L. KAAS

SUBJECT: MURKIN

The following information was volunteered by Mr. DON MC KEE, Associated Press:

MC KEE advised he has been conducting interviews in the Capitol Homes Housing Project where the white Mustang was located. Directly across from the apartment occupied by Mrs. BRIDGES, he interviewed a Mrs. BRENDA CROOK. He does not have the apartment number. CROOK stated she had no information, but felt MC KEE should talk to her girl friend, Mrs. FLOYD EUGENE MEDLEY (possibly MEDLIN), whom CROOK stated was visiting her apartment 4/4 and 4/5/68.

At this point, CROOK telephonically contacted MEDLEY, who is alleged to live in the Dixie Homes or Dixie Housing Project, Jonesboro, Ga., and having an unlisted telephone number.

MC KEE stated MEDLEY told him she was sitting on the front porch of the CROOK apartment with the CROOK's eight-year-old daughter approximately 6:30 P.M., 4/5/68, when a white Mustang entered the area driving slowly as if looking for someone and drove slowly by her. Due to the slow speed of the vehicle and the occupant's obvious interest in his surroundings, she took note of it and stated it had an Alabama license plate. She described the driver as a white male, wearing a white banlon-type shirt.

MC KEE stated that as he attempted to question MEDLEY further to determine whether she had also noticed a white Mustang parked in the area at that time and to satisfy himself she was correct as to the dates, a male voice in the background identified by Mrs. CROOK as MEDLEY's husband, shouted to MEDLEY that she didn't "know a damn thing," was not to talk to anyone and to get off the phone.

JAMES EARL RAY

James Earl Ray, a Missouri prison escapee who has been sought under the alias Eric Starvo Galt in connection with the gunshot slaying of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., is one of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives."

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover ordered the special addition of Ray to the "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives" list, which already contains ten fugitives, to insure the widest possible dissemination of Ray's photograph and description to help effect his prompt location. Ray has been the subject of a massive search since the gunshot slaying of Dr. King on April 4, 1968, as he stood on the balcony of a Memphis, Tennessee, motel.

An exhaustive FBI fingerprint search, comparing latent fingerprints uncovered in the Dr. King case against fingerprints of over 53,000 persons on whom FBI wanted notices have been posted determined that Galt and Ray are identical.

A Federal warrant, issued at Birmingham, Alabama, on April 17, 1968, charges Ray, under the alias Eric Starvo Galt, with conspiring to interfere with a Constitutional Right of a United States citizen. Ray, who escaped on April 23, 1967, from the Missouri State Penitentiary, is also sought for unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement after conviction for armed robbery.

Possessing an arrest record dating back to 1949, Ray has been convicted of burglary, armed robbery and forging United States Postal Money Orders.

A 40-year-old white male, reportedly born in Illinois on Ray is approximately 5'10" tall, weighs from 163 to 174 pounds, has blue eyes and short brown hair. He has a nervous habit of tugging at an ear lobe and his left ear protrudes noticeably.

Described as a "loner and "drifter," with a "rural" quality in his speech, Ray has worked as a baker, laborer and color matcher. He has taken dancing lessons and completed a course at a school of bartending.

Consider Ray armed and extremely dangerous. Report any information concerning him to the nearest FBI office.

"TEN MOST WANTED FUGITIVES" PROGRAM

James Earl Ray, a Missouri prison escapee who has been sought under the alias Eric Starvo Galt in connection with the gunshot slaying of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., has been added to the FBI's list of "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives."

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover ordered the special addition of Ray to the "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives" list, which already contains ten fugitives, to insure the widest possible dissemination of Ray's photograph and description to help effect his earliest possible location.

Ray has been the subject of a massive and intensive search since the brutal gunshot slaying of Dr. King on April 4, 1968, as he stood on the balcony of a Memphis, Tennessee, motel. One rifle bullet, believed fired from the window of a nearby rooming house, felled the victim.

[Handwritten initials]

An exhaustive FBI fingerprint search, comparing latent fingerprints uncovered in the Dr. King case against fingerprints of over 53,000 persons on whom wanted notices have been posted in the FBI's Identification Division, succeeded in determining that Galt and Ray are identical.

A Federal warrant, issued at Birmingham, Alabama, on April 17, 1968, charges Ray, under the alias Eric Starvo Galt, with conspiring to interfere with a Constitutional Right of a United States citizen. Ray is also sought for unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement after conviction for armed robbery, based on a Federal warrant issued on July 20, 1967, at Jefferson City, Missouri. He had been confined at the Missouri State Penitentiary, Jefferson City, Missouri, in March, 1960, with a 20-year sentence following conviction for armed robbery and operating a motor vehicle without permission of the owner. In September, 1966, while serving the sentence, he was confined for a time in the maximum security ward at the State Hospital, Fulton, Missouri. He was reported missing from the Missouri State Penitentiary since April 23, 1967.

Ray, who has an arrest record dating back to 1949 and has been convicted of burglary, armed robbery and forging United States Postal Money Orders, has also been confined in the Los Angeles County Jail, the Joliet and Pontiac, Illinois, State Prisons and the United States Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas.

He served in the Army between February, 1946, and December, 1948, received a three-month sentence at hard labor for being drunk and breaking arrest and was given a General Discharge due to ineptness and lack of adaptability for military service.

Ray is a 40-year-old white male, reportedly born in Illinois on [redacted] He is approximately 5'10" inches tall, weighs from 163 to 174 pounds, has blue eyes and brown hair which he has worn cut short. He has a small scar on the center of his forehead and a scar on the palm of his right hand. He has been described as having a straight, narrow nose and straight and even teeth and to have a nervous habit of occasionally tugging at an ear lobe. His left ear protrudes noticeably.

Acquaintances describe him as a "loner" and "drifter" whose language and diction reflect a "rural" quality and indicate he has had limited education.

He is reportedly a fan of western and country music, drinks vodka and beer, dresses neatly and claims past employment as a merchant seaman and cook on Mississippi River vessels. He is known to have worked as a baker, laborer and color matcher.

He is known as an avid dancer who has taken dancing lessons. He also completed a course at a school of bartending in the Los Angeles area early in 1968.

Ray should be considered armed and extremely dangerous. Anyone with information concerning this fugitive is requested to immediately contact the nearest office of the FBI, the telephone number of which may be found on the first page of local telephone directories.
