"On 3/30/68 I left the Motor Vessel Ray A at Memphis, Tenn. I again saw Cecil Jones at a tavern known as 'Jim's Place'. Jones told me he had a 1968 Ford Torino. This meeting would have been on 4/3/68.

"On 4/4/68 I passed by this car lot and saw that the above car had not been moved. I then believed that the ignition key would still be in it.

"At approximately 10:30 a.m. on 4/5/68, I returned to the above car lot and stole the 1968 dark blue Ford Torino. I drove the car to the binden badge and parked it there.

"On 4/6/68 I left Memphis enroute to East St. Louis, Ill. When I left Memphis I had no license plate on the above car. I drove to a truck stop near the Arkansas-Missouri line and stopped to eat. While ther I saw an old model Pontiac with 1968 Missouri license JC2-468 barely attached. I took this license plate and placed it on the stolen 1968 Ford Torino.

"On 4/18/68 I was interviewed by Special Agents M. Robert McFarland and Royal A. McGraw, Federal Bureau of Investigation, at Boston, Ga., concerning another matter. Subsequent to this interview I removed the serial number plates from the above car. I have since destroyed both of these serial number plates.

'Single Man' Theory Holds In King Death

Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark said Saturday there is no significant evidence that the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. "goes beyond the single actor" who fired the fatal shot.

Clark made the statement during a news conference here in reply to a question concerning the reports of a possible conspiracy of Southern businessmen who might have been involved in the King slaying.

"We could make a long, long list—as long as the imagination of man runneth—of people who could possibly be involved in this," Clark said, "but there's no significant evidence that it goes beyond the single actor."

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL did not mention the man sought in connection with the slaying, James Earl Ray, by name and did not elaborate on the investigation except to say that he still feels confident an arrest will be made soon.

"I was hopeful an arrest would be obtained before now," he said. "The individual being sought is in a very difficult situation and it will be difficult for him to avoid arrest."

Clark was in Atlanta to speak at an Emory University Law Day luncheon.

Asked if he thought the slaying of King would result in effective gun legislation, Clark said it is "incredible that it has taken this long" to obtain such legislation. However, he said he would not "describe a direct casual relationship" between the slaying and the legislation.

"I hope to see action on this legislation in the Senate next week," he said.

CLARK was asked if he would prefer that the upcoming March by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference on Washington in connection with its Poor People's Campaign not be held.

He replied, "This depends on what you mean by a march. These are anxious times. There will be tension in our cities for some time. It is important that self-discipline be displayed in order to avoid the risk of violence. And violence will impede the progress of this country."

Specimens received 4/25/68

Q290 White envelope postmarked "ATLANTA, GA. 1A 18 APR 1968" bearing address "W S B. Radio Station Atlanta Ga. 303013" (portions of this address handwritten, hand printed and typewritten)

Q291 Sheet of white paper bearing typewritten message beginning "dear news man i am sorry..." and ending "...to do so"

Result of examination:

It was concluded that the typewriting on Q290 and Q291 is not identical with typewriting appearing on questioned items previously received in this case in the Galt name. Due to the presence of distortion in the questioned writing on Q290, and because of the lack of comparable material, a definite conclusion could not be reached whether JAMES EARL RAY, FBI# 405942G, prepared the questioned handwriting and hand printing on Q290. Significant handwriting differences were noted in the handwriting and hand printing on Q290 when compared with material submitted in this case attributable to RAY.

Q290 and Q291 were searched in the Anonymous Letter File without effecting an identification. Copies have been added to this file for future reference. The typewriting on these specimens most closely corresponds to a standard for Royal pica style of type, spaced ten letters to the inch. Q290 and Q291 were examined for watermarks and indented writing with negative results. Q290 and Q291 have been photographed and are being returned to Atlanta separately.

SUBJECT: MURKIN

It is noted that MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. was in Los Angeles, Calif., and left there 3/16/68, for Atlanta. It is further noted that JAMES EARL RAY is believed to have left Los Angeles on or about 3/17/68 and arrived in Atlanta on or before 3/24/68. It is possible RAY has followed KING around for a period of time. In this connection, Miss DORA MC DONALD, Secretary to Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., should be reinterviewed to determine if she has a record of KING's travels for the past year.
