LEON OWEN POWELL was recontacted at his residence 3841 Austin Drive and advised that he would "stick by his story". He stated he would be willing to take a polygraph test at any time to show that he was telling the truth.

POWELL was then shown the facial identification manual and picked out from this manual various characteristics that an artist would be able to draw a composite drawing of RALPH (last name unknown).

At the outset, POWELL was advised anything he furnished could be used in court.

DOROTHY DAVIS, telephone number 957-2626, was contacted and advised that her husband, PETE DAVIS, did own and operate a bar on Moreland Avenue. This bar was at one time known as Pete's Place.

Her husband died from cancer in May, 1975.

She is not familiar with the name RALPH (last name unknown), LEON or CLAUDE POWELL. She remembers her husband talked about RAY GODFREY, however, she has no idea how he could be located.

She has no idea what became of the records concerning the operation of Pete's Place.

At the outset, Mrs. DAVIS was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent, the nature of the inquiry, and that any information she furnished could be used in a court of law. She voluntarily furnished the above information:

On January 7, 1976, Mrs. L. S. PENNINGTON, Director of Personnel, City of Atlanta, was contacted and advised she had caused the city personnel records to be reviewed and could find no record of RAY GODFREY or RAYMOND GODFREY being employed or having ever been employed by the City of Atlanta.

C. L. SNEED, secretary, Musicians Union Number 148, Atlanta, Georgia, advised he reviewed the union's records and could find no reference to a RAY or RAYMOND GODFREY. SNEED suggested that BOBBY JOHNSON, radio station WPLO be contacted regarding the names of any old time country and western singers.

The following investigation was conducted by
Special Agent THOMAS J. WILSON at Atlanta, Georgia:

On January 7, 1976, the Atlanta City Directory
Haines City Directory, and Greater Atlanta Southern Bell Telephone Directory for the years 1967 and 1968 were reviewed with negative results regarding and establishment on Moreland Avenue named Pete's Place or any similar name.

SHIRLEY LANE, bartender, Driftwood Lounge, 1575 Moreland Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, advised that approximately seven or eight years ago an individual named PETE DAVIS did in fact own and operate a bar in the last block of Moreland Avenue. She has heard that PETE DAVIS has since passed away. Ms. LANE advised PETE's wife, DOROTHY DAVIS, could possibly be located at telephone number 957-2626. She stated she has been a frequent visitor to the lounge known as Pete's Place and that is the reason why she is so familiar with PETE and DOROTHY DAVIS.

The following investigation was conducted by
Special Agent THOMAS J. WILSON at Atlanta, Georgia:

On January 8, 1976, BOBBY JOHNSON, Country Music Section, radio station WPLO, Atlanta, Georgia, advised there had been a country and western singer by the name of RAY GODFREY in 1967 or 1968. This singer was handled locally by Lowery Music Company, Atlanta, Georgia. BILL LOWERY at Lowery Music would probably have more information about the whereabouts of RAY GODFREY.

On January 8, 1975, MARY TALLENT, secretary to the president, Lowery Music Company, advised that back in 1967, Lowery Music had handled a country and western singer by the name of RAY GODFREY. GODFREY would at this time be a white male approximately 45 to 50 years of age. In 1967 GODFREY worked for the Atlanta Water Company, telephone 422-1481.

She had numerous dealings with RAY GODFREY and described him as a "very country fellow" and refused to believe that he could be in any sort of trouble.

COTTON CARRIER, song writer, Lowery Music Company, Atlanta, Georgia, was also contacted and advised that the last time he had talked to RAY GODFREY that RAY GODFREY was employed with the Atlanta Water or either the Atlanta Sewer Department at telephone number 622-1481. He stated that GODFREY was a very likeable fellow and could not possibly be in any trouble.

The Haines City Directory revealed that telephone number 622-1481 is listed to the City of Atlanta Sewer Department.

CLAUDE POWELL, JR., was located at the Scottish Inn Motel, Interstate Highway 20 at Holiday Hill Road, Room 211. POWELL was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and at the outset of the interview, was asked if he had been in contact with any member of his family or in particular, his brother, LEON POWELL. POWELL denied being in contact with any member of his family, including LEON POWELL, since his departure from Atlanta, Georgia, on December 31, 1975. He was then interviewed as follows:

POWELL was asked if he had ever been offered a large sum of money to commit a murder, and he immediately volunteered that he had been offered $25,000 shortly before the actual assassination of MARTIN LUTHER KING to murder MARTIN LUTHER KING. He recalled the circumstances of that offer as follows:

Approximately three to four weeks prior to the murder of MARTIN LUTHER KING, he and his brother, LEON POWELL, were seated in a booth in Pete's Bar on Moreland Avenue in Atlanta, Georgia. A friend of his brother, RAY GODFREY, a musician and Atlanta City employee, joined them at their booth and engaged in conversation with LEON. He paid no particular attention to what LEON and RAY were talking about. GODFREY left the booth, and, in approximately 10 to 15 minutes, an individual previously unknown to him, came to their booth and seated himself opposite from LEON and him.

As this unknown person sat down, he placed an expensive-looking black brief case on the table. He described the unknown person as being a white male, approximately 5'8" in height, medium build, approximately 150 pounds, approximately 30 years of age. POWELL explained that the unknown person appeared to him to be out of place in such an establishment as Pete's Bar, in view of his dress, which did not fit into the crowd that frequented Pete's Bar.

SA FRANZ W. NENZEL FWN:pm Date dictated 1/14/76

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

The unknown person impressed him as being a well educated person, who appeared to be a professional type such as a lawyer. He said the unknown person was clean cut, and very calm and cool in his manner. He stated the unknown person may have introduced himself, but he does not recall any names. The unknown person asked LEON and him if they wanted to pull a job. He does not know the exact wording, but he questioned the unknown person concerning the nature of the job, and how much money it paid. The unknown person told him and LEON that he wanted them to do away with someone and when POWELL questioned the unknown person further, he was told that it was someone important. The unknown person then told him and LEON that he wanted them to kill MARTIN LUTHER KING, and would pay them $25,000 now and $25,000 when the job was done. The unknown person then opened his brief case which was full of wrapped currency; some of the bills he noticed were in $100 denominations. He stated that he was shocked by the statements of the unknown person, and initially assumed that it was some sort of prank or possibly a law enforcement officer trying to trick him. After the unknown person made the offer, he ignored any further conversation, whereupon the unknown person closed his brief case and departed.

He has never had any further contact, nor did he ever ascertain the identity of the unknown person, or means or reason for the offered payment to kill MARTIN LUTHER KING. He related that he had gained the bad reputation of being a hoodlum because of his past prison record, participation in several fights, and habit of carrying a shotgun in his vehicle, which he frequently loaned to the bartender at Pete's Bar whenever trouble occurred. He denied ever receiving such an offer prior to this incident, and further denied affiliation with any group which advocated racial hatred. He admitted that he had made statements while drunk to the effect that he had no aversion to killing blacks, although he had never seriously considered doing so.

POWELL stated he was shocked and dismayed to learn, approximately three to four weeks later, that MARTIN LUTHER KING had been murdered. He advised that he did not go to any law enforcement officers, and tell them of the above contact with the unknown person, because he felt he might become a suspect in the murder of MARTIN LUTHER KING.

POWELL was then requested to assist the FBI by providing an artist conception of the unknown person who contacted him at Pete's Bar by the use of a facial identification catalogue. It was explained to POWELL that a sketch would be made from a combination of features that he selected from photographs displayed in the catalogue. Each category in the catalogue was thoroughly explained and photographs in these categories were shown to POWELL. POWELL then stated that he would be unable to assist in this regard because he had only talked with the unknown person for approximately five minutes, and that he would not recognize him even if he was brought into his motel room at that moment.
