On 4/8/68, ROBERT H. HERRISON, 325 Hummingbird Lane, Lexington, Kentucky, advised that approximately 6 months ago he met a LYNN DEVELOS (PHONETIC), at the home of a neighbor, JOE QUILLAN, Lexington. DEVELOS had just been released from the Narcotics Hospital at Lexington, Kentucky, and was talking about going to Memphis, Tennessee. HERRISON described this individual as a white male, approximately 6'1", 175 - 180 pounds, average build, clear complexion, 25 - 28 years of age. This individual commented that he was from Texas, but seemed to be very interested in getting to Memphis, Tennessee.

HERRISON advised that Saturday night he and his wife were discussing the murder of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. and that the description of the killer as given in the local newspaper and also on television fit that of DEVELOS.

On 4/8/68, W. D. ABBOTT (PROJECT IDENTITY), Administrative Officer, General Services, National Institute of Mental Health - Clinical Research Center, Lexington, Kentucky, confidentially advised that the

On 4/9/68, BH 251-R, a former member of the now defunct Dixie Klan of Anniston, Ala., and who is a close associate of the leading racial agitators in Anniston, advised the composite prepared by the exhibit section of the FBI is not similar to any person he knows among the racial agitators at Anniston. He said that there is some similarity between this composite and a person he has seen in company with JACK BROWN (now deceased), former leader of the Dixie Klan from Chattanooga, Tenn. He said even though there is some similarity, he could not definitely state that they are the same individual. He said this person is unknown to him, but he would talk with one KENNETH LAMAR ADAMS, the former leader of the Dixie Klan at Anniston, and a former close associate of JACK BROWN, in an effort to determine if he could identify this person through conversation with ADAMS.

On 4/10/68, this source advised that he had talked with ADAMS during the previous night and he was unable to identify this person, due to the fact that ADAMS kept saying that BROWN had many friends whose names he did not know, or words to that effect.
