Re Memo of SA COLEMAN D. GEARY, III, dated 4/11/68.

CHRIS MITCHELL, President, Sterling Distributors, 1318 First Ave., North, Birmingham, advised on 4/12/68 that JIMMY LOWERY works as a route salesman for him and that he vaguely resembles the FBI artist's conception of Unsub in this case. He stated LOWERY, however, was working on his route from 6:00 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. on 4/4/68. He stated LOWERY has never owned a white Mustang and he is a long-time resident of Birmingham, Alabama.

JIMMY GLENN LOWERY, telephone 853-1449, 2735 - 6th Street, N.E., Center Point, Birmingham, Alabama, advised he has been employed for Sterling Distributors as a route salesman for the past five years and on 4/4/68 he was delivering beer on his route from approximately 6:00 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. He advised he does not possess any information of value to this investigation, nor is he acquainted with anyone by the name of LOWMEYER or LEHMEYER, nor has he ever met anyone by the name of GALT.

After viewing the FBI artist's conception, he advised he had never met or seen anyone resembling these sketches at any time either at the Five Points South area, where he formerly resided, or along his route. He stated he lived in Apt. F of the Aristocrat Apartments located at 1517 - 16th Avenue, South, from approximately February, 1967, until he moved to his current address in Center Point about three weeks ago. However, as mentioned above, he does not recall ever seeing anyone resembling the above-mentioned sketches. He owns and drives a 1965 green Ford Galaxie 500 and states he has never owned a white Mustang.
