The record contained a letter, marked CONFIDENTIAL, dated September 27, 1948, from the Civil Service Commission, to the Deputy Administration, Veterans Administration Branch Office #9, 420 Locust Street, St. Louis, Missouri, which is quoted as follows:

"Dear Sir:

"Reference is made to the case of ERNEST SUMPTER GAULT born [redacted] at Danville, Arkansas, who was probationally appointed subject to investigation, to the position of Hospital Attendant (Mental), at the Veterans Administration Hospital, North Little Rock, Arkansas, effective 12/5/47.

"Mr. Gault's case has been processed under Executive order No. 9835, Part 1, Section 3, and the information developed was favorable with the following exception: In his application dated December 5, 1947, Mr. Gault denied ever having been convicted, fined, imprisoned, placed on probation, or ordered to deposit bail, for the violation of any law, police regulation or ordinance (exclusive of minor traffic violations for which a fine of $25.00 or less was imposed) since his sixteenth birthday. Information has been received by the Commission indicating that Mr. Gault has been arrested, since his sixteenth birthday as follows:

January 15, 1938, by the Police Department, Little Rock, Arkansas, for burglary and two (2) counts of Grand larceny. Turned over to Juvenile Court. No disposition shown.

July 20, 1939, by the State Police, Little Rock, Arkansas, for investigation. No disposition shown.

SL 44-775

" January 24, 1947, by the Police Department, Saginaw, Michigan, for desertion. Placed on probation for ninety (90) days and required to pay $3.75 costs.

"On August 18, 1948, this office called Mr. Gault's attention to the discrepancies in his application and requested an explanation. On August 26, 1948, he replied to our letter and admitted that he had intentionally falsified his application with respect to his arrest record. He stated he deliberately concealed the information to avoid having 'it all come out again.'

"In 1942, in connection with a prior period of employment at the Veterans Administration Hospital, North Little Rock Arkansas, this employee failed to admit his entire arrest record. The matter was called to the attention of the hospital authorities who decided no action should be taken against him and he was retained in the service. He subsequently voluntarily resigned.

"Inasmuch as this is the second occasion that this matter has been called to the attention of this employee, you are instructed to suspend him from duty and pay for a period of five (5) consecutive working days...."

JAMES EARL RAY - BACKGROUND

On April 22, 1968, BOB CRABILL, employee, McDonnell-Douglas Corporation, telephonically advised this Office his sister, Mrs. ORVILLE ROBBINS, 1680 Crowder, Florissant, Missouri, attended grade school with subject RAY. Mrs. ROBBINS has background information on the subject during his early years at Ewing, Missouri.

On April 22, 1968, Mrs. ORVILLE ROBBINS, 1680 Crowder, Florissant, Missouri, residence telephone - TEmple 7-0697, advised Special Agent WALTER C. JOHNSON between 1936 and 1943 she attended grade school with one JIMMY RAINES at Ewing, Missouri. She did not connect him with JAMES EARL RAY until her brother, MARTIN CRABILL, Ewing, Missouri, telephoned her on the night of April 21, 1968, that JIMMY RAINES was RAY.

Mrs. ROBBINS recalled that there were several children in the RAINES family but the only two members she was acquainted with was JIMMY and his younger brother, JACK. She said there were some smaller sisters but she did not know them. She had never met the mother but recalled the father, JERRY RAINES, and remembered him as being trifle and an individual who would not work and drew welfare all the time his family was residing in Ewing, Missouri. She recalled the boys, JACK and JIMMY, as well as the girls, all went by the last name of RAINES and never knew of the name RAY.

In 1943 after JIMMY finished the eighth grade he moved with his family to Hannibal, Missouri, where she understood the father had a job with a shoe company. This was the last time she had heard from the family except some time ago her brother, MARTIN, indicated that one of JIMMY's brothers had driven off the Mississippi River Bridge at Quincy, Illinois, and had drowned.

She knew nothing further concerning the family's whereabouts and her last contact was in 1943.

Re: ROY WILLIS

AT HANNIBAL, MISSOURI

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent JAMES A. DUFFEY:

WILLIS, an ex-Hannibal, Missouri, policeman, purchased a Lincoln car from JAMES EARL RAY after he was arrested at Hannibal, Missouri, March 23, 1955. It is recalled that RAY, after his arrest, learned that he would be removed to Kansas City by postal inspectors and wanted to sell the car in which he was arrested. Officer ROY WILLIS bought it. The then Chief of Police raised a question as to the propriety of WILLIS' actions in buying the car from a prisoner.

Chief ARLO BALDWIN, Police Department, Hannibal, Missouri, on April 22, 1968, advised that Officer ROY WILLIS resigned from this department August 1, 1957, and moved from town. Police records show that an inquiry by a prospective employer, B. F. Goodrich Company Store, 1300 North Collet Avenue, Minneapolis, Minnesota, was received December 3, 1957. No other inquiry since and it was Chief BALDWIN's recollection that he had heard WILLIS had been employed by this firm and was last known to be in Minneapolis.

REVIEW OF UNITED STATES PROBATION OFFICE RECORDS
CONCERNING JAMES EARL RAY

AT ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

The following investigation was conducted on April 24, 1968, by SA LAWRENCE B. CURTIN:

The file regarding JAMES EARL RAY was made available by JOHN L. BRENNAN, Chief, United States Probation Officer, St. Louis, Missouri.

A review of that file reflected the following information:

JAMES EARL RAY, Federal Records Center (Kansas City, Missouri) number 811041. Date of Birth was at Alton, Illinois.

A classification study by officials of the United States Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas, on August 10, 1955, reflected that RAY listed his mother and father as deceased and the only other relative listed is an aunt, LUCILLE RYAN, 801 North 12th Street, Quincy, Illinois. This study further reflects that the co-defendant in the case involving Post Office money orders was WALTER TERRY RIFE. In the section of the study under the heading "Previous Employment" RAY provided the name WILLIAM MAHER, 1118 East 7th Street, Alton, Illinois, although no explanation was given regarding this name. The study also reflects that when RAY had previously been in custody at the Illinois State Prison, he had been transferred to the Honor Farm where he worked in the kitchen.

An annual review of RAY by officials at the United States Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas, in October, 1956, reflected that during the previous year RAY had worked at the fire department, paint shop, and bakery where he was considered an outstanding "bench hand." This review further reflects that the only family contact with RAY was through letters from his aunt, Mrs. LUCILLE RYAN, 701 $\frac{1}{2}$ Washington Street, Quincy, Illinois. At that time RAY indicated that when he was released he planned to go to Denver, Colorado, as he felt the climate would be "better for his health."

On April 5, 1958, RAY was conditionally released from the United States Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas, and at that time lived at the Blackstone Hotel, 817 Cherry Street, Kansas City, Missouri. It is noted that a handwritten letter attached to RAY's conditional release statement, from LUCILLE RYAN, 1135 South 10th Street, St. Louis, Missouri, and addressed to RAY at the Blackstone Hotel was signed "Your Aunt Lucille."

A handwritten notation by J. LEE SIMPKINS, United States Probation Officer, St. Louis, Missouri, indicates that on January 29, 1958, he visited LUCILLE RYAN at 1135 South 10th Street, and at that time found her living with a younger woman, who she introduced as her daughter, MELBA and an older woman whom she introduced as her mother.

Correspondence between the United States Probation Office at Kansas City, Missouri, and St. Louis, Missouri, reflects that after his release on April 5, 1958, RAY was dis-satisfied with life in Kansas City and repeatedly expressed an interest in coming to St. Louis, Missouri, so as to live with his aunt.

The following information was taken from the type-written work sheet of the Chief United States Probation Officer, JOHN L. BRENNAN, which is set up in chronological order:

On May 7, 1958, investigation by the United States Probation Officer reflects that LUCILLE RYAN presently resides at 1913 Hickory Street, St. Louis, Missouri, in a rooming house which she recently purchased. Lived at that address with her are three individuals as follows:

One mentally sub-normal and unemployable daughter, age 19, name unknown;

One employed daughter, age 17, name unknown.

LUCILLE RYAN's mother, age 76.

On May 15, 1958, supervision of JAMES EARL RAY was officially transferred from the United States Probation Office at Kansas City, Missouri, to the office at St. Louis, Missouri.

SL 44-775

On May 15, 1958, JOHN L. BRENNAN advised RAY to go to the bakery union in St. Louis regarding employment.

In June, 1958, the record reflects that RAY had worked as a cook's helper for one day at the Glen Echo Country Club during the preceding month and was laid off. He was otherwise unemployed during this period.

On August 4, 1958, RAY indicated that when his supervision is terminated, he plans to get a job as a baker on a ship going to South America and he indicated that his occupation is a baker not a cook. The record further reflects during the time since his last contact, he was unemployed.

On September 4, 1958, RAY indicated that he had worked for four days in August at a bakery on North 18th Street, St. Louis, Missouri, but that he was otherwise unemployed during that month. He further indicated that when his conditional release expires in October, 1958, he planned to get a job as a baker on a boat and leave the United States.

On October 2, 1958, RAY's condition release expired and supervision by the United States Probation Office was terminated. The records reflect that there was no further contact with RAY since that date.

JAMES EARL RAY - ARREST - 1959

On May 6, 1968, a copy of St. Louis Police Department Summary Report of Complaint Number 222 015, was reviewed by Special Agent DEAN R. SHUMWAY. This report was originally prepared on October 10, 1959, by the St. Louis Police Department, Third District, regarding a hold-up which occurred on that same date at 8:45 a.m. The hold-up involved a Kroger Grocery and Baking Company at 3417 Ohio Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri. DONALD SCHAEFER of 723 Larkin Avenue, Ferguson, Missouri, is shown on this report as the co-manager of the store and as the complainant.

The details of this report reflect that two men appeared in the store and robbed the store of an undetermined amount of currency. The two men then fled from the store, making their escape in an old model Ford automobile, dark in color.

Later, at about 9:30 a.m. on the same date, St. Louis Patrolmen RALPH KING and EDWARD MC GRATH and Detectives HARRY CONNERS and EMMETT RIMMER placed under arrest at 2019 Park Avenue JAMES LOAMA OWENS and JAMES EARL RAY. OWENS, St. Louis Police Department LB Number 42884, was described as a white male, date of birth - [redacted] at Elvins, Missouri, age - forty, 5 feet 3 inches, 152 pounds, brown hair, blue eyes, marital status - single, occupation - barber, address - 4023 Olive Street.

JAMES EARL RAY was described as a white male, age - thirty, born in Illinois, marital status - single, occupation - baker, address - Room # 5, 2023 Park Avenue, St. Louis.

The above arrests were effected after Patrolmen JOSEPH SHORMAN and HAROLD SIEFERT, of the Seventh District, who had been originally dispatched to the scene of the robbery, obtained information that the hold-up men, after fleeing from the scene of the crime, entered an old model Ford, bearing Missouri License A13-331. The description of this automobile was broadcast to all St. Louis Police Department Units.

2

Additional information was then obtained by store manager DONALD SCHAEFER which reflected that the two bandits had switched automobiles, abandoning the previously mentioned Ford at Indiana and Potomac Street, St. Louis, and then entered a 1958 Plymouth, Missouri License M83-671. The subjects were last seen in this automobile heading west on Wyoming Street in St. Louis.

This same auto was later observed by Patrolmen KING and MC GRATH parked in front of 2017 Park Avenue, St. Louis, headed in a westerly direction and unoccupied. Assistance was requested by these patrolmen and thereafter a white male, who entered this automobile and prepared to drive away, was placed under arrest. Upon arrest, he identified himself as JAMES LOAMA OWENS. The vehicle was then searched and no weapons were found.

Under questioning, OWENS readily acknowledge that he had committed the armed robbery, advising that his partner in crime was on the second floor of the rooming house at 2023 Park Avenue, as well as both of the guns used in the hold-up.

The investigating officers then proceeded to the second floor of this house and at the top of the stairs observed a white male coming from the bathroom at the end of a hallway. This individual was commanded to halt and to raise his hands, whereupon he turned, began cursing and ran back toward the bathroom from where he had come. RAY was overtaken by the investigating officers and placed under arrest, after a scuffle in which RAY was struck over the head with the service revolver of one of the officers.

The prisoner was then escorted to his room but broke away and began to run toward the end of the hallway where he was initially subdued. At this time Detective CONNERS fired one shot from a service revolver in the direction of the fleeing suspect, at which time the prisoner halted and submitted to arrest without further resistance.

A search of the subject's room, located a .765 caliber Belgium Browning Automatic, Serial Number 57195, which contained one live cartridge in the chamber and five live cartridges in the clip. A second .38 caliber revolver, "American Double Action," five shot revolver, Serial Number 249, was also located and found to contain three live cartridges in the cylinder.

Upon questioning, JAMES EARL RAY admitted that he was the owner of these weapons and made the statement to the officers, "I guess you want me for that Kroger Store stick-up." RAY was thereafter conveyed to City Hospital for examination and found to be suffering from a laceration of the scalp, which was not considered to be serious, and with no other apparent injuries. He was thereafter conveyed to the Police Station where he was charged.

The second individual involved in the burglary, JAMES OWENS, was conveyed directly from the place of apprehension to the St. Louis Police.

The 1958 Plymouth sedan used in the commission of the robbery was determined to be the property of JAMES L. OWENS and was towed away from in front of the Park Avenue address and held in custody by local police.

When questioned further at the District Station, OWENS stated he had first become acquainted with JAMES EARL RAY about three months prior to the offense, having met him at the St. Louis Rescue Mission located at 4023 Olive Street. Both eventually began speaking to each other of financial difficulty and eventually came to an agreement to pull a hold-up.

OWENS advised that in the early p.m. of October 9, 1959, he and RAY "cased" the store, which they eventually robbed on the following day. OWENS admitted that JAMES EARL RAY had given him the snub-nose revolver which he had used in the hold-up and that he had driven RAY to a place where he let RAY out of his 1958 Plymouth automobile for the purpose of stealing a second automobile to use in the hold-up.

Both automobiles were then driven to the intersection of Indiana and Potomac Streets in St. Louis. The stolen car, the previously mentioned Ford, was then driven to the scene of the crime, and the store was entered by both men.

RAY proceeded to a small office located in the front of the store, where he pointed the automatic pistol he was carrying at the man in the office, commanding him to open the safe. OWENS remained close to the front door where he acted as a look-out and, according to OWENS, left his revolver in his coat pocket. OWENS stated after RAY failed to get the man in the office to open the safe, he pointed the automatic pistol at a woman cashier, ordered her to step aside, and then reached into the open cash drawer, removing an unknown sum of currency. Both men then left the store and departed in the stolen Ford automobile.

A switch was thereafter made and both men then drove to RAY's home in OWENS' 1958 Plymouth.

Upon arrival, they proceeded to the bathroom of RAY's home where OWENS returned RAY's revolver and RAY gave OWENS $60.00 in six $10.00 bills, which constituted OWENS' share of the money taken in the robbery. OWENS then left RAY's residence and proceeded to his automobile where he was placed under arrest.

RAY, when interviewed, refused to make any statement, but OWENS later viewed RAY and positively identified him as the man who had accompanied him to the Kroger Store and assisted him in the commission of the hold-up.

Both individuals were thereafter charged with robbery with a deadly weapon and operating an automobile without the owner's consent. An additional charge of resisting arrest was placed against RAY.

The St. Louis Police Department, Bureau of Records, had no information on JAMES EARL RAY, but the report reflects
