STREETS BECOME CREEKS

It was a rainy day in Birmingham town

Loaded with boats, a big truck appears to be arriving in the nick of time on Birmingham's southside Saturday as heavy rains continued to fall on an already water-logged city.

The motorist at right ignored the odds and got through the block on Eighth Street between Seventh and Eighth Avenues South without drowning his motor.

Others in the same block were not so lucky, however, and towtrucks were busy here and elsewhere either hauling away drowned autos or coaxing engines back to life.

FOR OTHER thousands in Birmingham and Jefferson County, the weekend was a literal washout as rain was reported all across most of the state and more of the stuff was forecast for today.

Switchboards at The Birmingham News and the Weather Bureau's own busy phones were flooded — no pun intended — with calls inquiring about the prospects of more rain.

The Weather Bureau, offering only meager reassurance to a city about to mellow, said only that today might bring a little more sunshine than Saturday but that rain — mostly afternoon thundershowers — will come again.

ED NELSON

'Peyton' star Ed Nelson on Telethon

Ed Nelson, known to millions as Dr. Michael Rossi of TV's "Peyton Place," will star on the 14th Annual Cerebral Palsy Telethon in Birmingham.

"We told him Birmingham needed him, and he accepted our invitation immediately," Frank Mason, telethon chairman, said.

Now in his fourth year as the high-principled, young physician of "Peyton Place," Nelson has been a Hollywood star since 1956.

Major film roles in "Elmer Gantry" and "Judgment at Nuremberg" led to guest starring appearances on such TV series as "The Untouchables," "Maverick," "Thriller" and "Gunsmoke."

JOINING NELSON for the 19-hour marathon program will be recording star Johnny Tillotson, Yvonne "Batgirl" Craig of the "Batman" TV series, and singing co-hosts Jack and Eileen Smith.

The telethon will be staged live at Birmingham Municipal Auditorium and broadcast over WBRC-TV, Channel 6, and WBRC-Radio.

Proceeds from the telethon hopefully will enable Spastic Aid of Alabama to operate for one full year its training school and treatment center here for white and Negro children.

GRANT IS APPROVED

Approval of a $448,560 grant to Jefferson County Board of Education for a Neighborhood Youth Corps project was announced Saturday in Washington by Sens. Lister Hill and John Sparkman.

The school system's NYC will operate in addition to one sponsored here for the past year and a half by Jefferson County Committee for Economic Opportunity.

The new project will provide work experience opportunities for 500 in-school and 300 summer students.

THE EXISTING NYC project involves 600 young people who dropped out of school, and 400 summer workers who are still in school, according to Mrs. Ethel Hal, director.

Youths 16-21 are given part-time or nearly full-time jobs to permit them to return to school, to remain in school, or get work experience under the program announced Saturday. Jefferson County School Superintendent Kermit A. Johnson will coordinate the project, according to the announcement.
