LBJ's Health Is Discounted As Factor In Withdrawing

President Johnson's health would have permitted him to become a candidate for another term of office, two of his physicians said yesterday.

Dr. James C. Cain of the Mayo Clinic of Rochester, Minn., said the President, who is 69, is in excellent condition.

His cardiologist, Dr. J. Willis Hurst of Emory University at Atlanta, said Mr. Johnson has "had no trouble at all" since his heart attack in 1955 and there is no reason to believe he would be in any danger during the next four years.

While health presumably was not involved in the shaping of the President's decision, the physicians indicated that had they been asked for a medical opinion, neither would have hesitated to give his approval.

Some speculation on reasons for the decision, other than those Mr. Johnson gave, has involved concern over whether he could withstand four years more of burden.

Union Station Complex Tied Up In Dispute

Plans to reconstruct a nine-million-dollar Post Office complex on the Union Station grounds in Washington have been blocked by a House subcommittee.

A jurisdictional battle between the White House and House Public Works subcommittee, on public buildings and grounds has tied up plans for 23 Post Office facilities across the nation.

The Union facility would replace DeLoe and Davis stations, Butler Annex and Post Office garage. Most offices now in the main Street Post Office would be shifted to Calhoun when the new building is completed.

Without the approval of the subcommittee, headed by Representative J. P. Gray (D-Md.), Congress cannot get up funds for the project. It is anticipated that the Johnson administration will back away from the battle and the projects will be cleared.

TORNADO ALLEY—High winds and tornadoes struck several South areas last night, with widespread damage near Paragould, between Monticello and Star City, and north of Cordova. Another hit north of Memphis near Millington. Areas near Cordova also were hit.

Tornado Strikes Near Millington; At Least 30 Hurt

An estimated 20 to 40 persons were injured when a tornado slammed through the Shady Lane Trailer Court at 7800 Raleigh-Millington Road, near the climax of a night in which violent weather left persons dead in Arkansas and Tennessee.

Two persons were reported dead at Atlanta, Tenn., 35 miles northeast of Memphis, late last night and seven were known dead after an earlier tornado which ripped from the Star City, Ark., area before disappearing around Hughes.

Eleven persons went to Crittenden Memorial Hospital in West Memphis, Ark., after deputies and Arkansas State Police freed them from the rubble of houses which were wrecked in Vincent, Ark., and four others were taken there after a house trailer was overturned at James Hill.

Shelby County Sheriff William N. Morris Jr. said a father and his child were believed to be the only persons seriously injured when the tornado hit the southwest corner of the trailer park south of Millington where 200 to 300 trailers are usually parked.

He said the man was injured when hit by a flying television. Most of the injured were being taken to Mary Hospital in Millington.

Residents in the trailer court said they had almost no warning of the storm which hit his home.

"We were both in our back bedroom and we had just went to bed," said Mrs. Michael Deaton. "I was trying to do something. I told him to go grab the baby. Just as we got to be near the trailer turnover, we had just a few minutes, thank the good Lord."

Robert Mueller of the Millington Fire Department, who lives at the trailer park, stood beside his demolished trailer with a double-barreled shotgun and said he, his wife, three sons and a granddaughter were in the trailer when a television crashed under asphalt the trailer picked up from the highway and landed in bed with one of his sons. He was injured.

Refugees from the park and the same time, a twister did about 40 persons who were separated from their families good where damage to a manufacturing plant was estimated at $1.5 million dollars.

Officials in Crittenden County, Ark., and several West Tennessee counties said last night that searches were under way for survivors or persons left homeless by the storm.

In Memphis, when Civil Defense sirens were sounded, many persons reported they tried to get into buildings marked as shelters and found Tennessee Highway Patrol men locked.

King Challenges LBJ Going To Hawaii Today To Consult On Peace Moves, Set Stage For Red Meeting

But US Attorney Says Ban To Be Enforced, Even If Troops Needed

Attorneys representing Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. go before United States Dist. Judge Bailey Brown at 9:30 this morning to challenge a temporary restraining order against any march here.

Dr. King and others planning a Monday march in support of striking sanitation workers yesterday appeared headed to ward a possible clash with the order—if it remains in force.

"We are not going to be stopped by Mace or injunction," said Dr. King.

But United States Atty. Thomas Robinson said the temporary order will be enforced even if it means calling in federal troops.

Dr. King's attorneys, Louis Lucas, Walter Bailey and Lucius Burch, talked behind closed doors with Judge Brown for about an hour yesterday.

They are expected this morning to challenge the jurisdiction of the federal courts to stop the march.

Dr. King said granting of an injunction against the march would be "a basic denial of First Amendment privileges."

We stand on the First Amendment. In the past on the basis of conscience we have had to break injunctions and it is easy to say we may do it (in Memphis). We'll cross that bridge when we come to it."

Mr. Robinson reacted quickly when asked about indications that any injunction may be ignored.

"We are going to see that the court's order is enforced. It is either enforced or it is disobeyed," the United States attorney said. "Such action as is necessary to enforce and protect the order will be taken."

He pointed out that federal troops had been used to enforce the order in the case of the recent march against the city and state's quick but limited response to the President's Sunday night appeal for peace.

It is also important to define with the greatest precision the instructions to be given to the envoys who will contact Hanoi's officials, and if possible to get agreement to the negotiating instructions from the South Vietnamese government, which has been increasingly vocal about the trend of United States policy in Vietnam ever since the reassignment of Westmore-

US Wary Of Bid To Talk Of Peace On Enemy Terms

By JAMES RESTON
The New York Times News Service

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The administration is eager to talk to North Vietnam about Hanoi's latest peace proposals, but it is frankly suspicious that it is merely being invited to talk about ending the war on the enemy's terms.

The fear in official quarters here is that the Hanoi government has misjudged the recent political convulsion in the United States, and may be acting on the illusion that the administration of President Johnson is the administration of peace.

The fear in official quarters here is that the Hanoi government has misjudged the recent political convulsion in the United States, and may be acting on the illusion that the administration of President Johnson is the administration of peace.

That, of course, the Johnson administration is not prepared to do it still remains the war.

Dr. King said granting of an injunction against the march would be "a basic denial of First Amendment privileges."

NEWS ANALYSIS

land and the announcement of Johnson's retirement and a new de-escalation policy.

What Hanoi is asking is that the United States agree to "the unconditional cessation of the United States bombing raids and all other acts of war against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam so that talks may start."

If this were accepted by the United States, could American planes make reconnaissance flights over North Vietnam to watch for the movement of supplies toward the Demilitarized Zone and South Vietnam?

Or would Hanoi be free to resupply its troops at the Demilitarized Zone and keep the answers to these questions could obviously affect the balance of power in the war.

There is no disposition here to prejudge Hanoi's reasons for agreeing to limited talks while the bombing continues. Officials are skeptical, but they are also leaving room for the possibility that the enemy has badly hurt in the recent battle for the cities and feels that he did well enough to claim a victory and agree to a compromise.

In any event, the United States government wants to be sure about the precise terms under which protracted negotiations would continue. The talks that ended the Korean War with the Communists went on from July 19, 1951, until July 27, 1953, and in the armistice period, United States casualties are higher than in any other phase of the war.

Also it is recognized here that once serious negotiations—as distinguished from brief preliminary talks—begin and the attention of the world is focused on them, it will be extremely difficult to break them off without an outcry all over the world, even if the North Vietnamese continued sending men and supplies into the South.

So much has been said about the importance of starting talks, any kind of talks, that this has come to be regarded as a sign of impending peace.

Officials here do not rule this out, but they think serious negotiations—if it comes to be started after the preliminary phase—will be carried on for a long time while the fighting continues in the South.

HANOI OFFER OF TALKS ACCEPTED BY JOHNSON

By MERRIAM SMITH
WASHINGTON, April 3.—(UPI)—The United States and North Vietnam took a small but enormously significant step Wednesday toward preliminary diplomatic discussions that could lead to an end of the Vietnam War.

First, the Hanoi government declared in a radio broadcast its willingness to meet with American representatives to discuss "the unconditional cessation of the United States bombing raids and all other acts of war against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam so that talks may start."

Then President Johnson told newsmen he was accepting Hanoi's offer.

He announced the United States "will establish contact with the representative of North Vietnam. Consultations with the government of South Vietnam and other allies are now taking place."

The President also said he would fly to Honolulu, Hawaii, late Thursday evening for a long weekend of conferences with American officials from South Vietnam.

Johnson did not say how much contact would be made with North Vietnam, or when or where.

Geneva, Switzerland, was considered a likely site. The President already has said his prime negotiators in the event North Vietnam chose to respond to his curtailing of the bombing raids would be Ambassador-at-Large W. Averell Harriman and Lewisohn F. Thompson, ambassador to the Soviet Union.

There was no word from Moscow or any other world capital Wednesday to shed light on the President's specific plans. But it was obvious that Johnson's full and hectic day of urgent assessments, considered the Hanoi statement to be genuine enough to warrant a serious response.

The President had a lengthy afternoon meeting with his namesake-language broadcast of leading advisers and then convened the same statement.

The President said: "Today the government of North Vietnam made a statement which included the following paragraph: 'However for its part, the government of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam declares its readiness to appoint its representative to contact the United States representative with a view to determining with the American side the unconditional cessation of the United States bombing raids and all other acts of war against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam so that talks may start.'"

In that statement, said Now, at this point, the United States is ready to send its representatives to any forum, at any time, to discuss the means of bringing this war to an end."

"Accordingly, we should establish contact with the representative of North Vietnam. Consultations with the government of South Vietnam and other allies are now taking place."

After reading the brief statement, Johnson said: "So you may have as much advice as I am able to give you on another matter, I will be leaving tomorrow evening for Honolulu and will meet with certain of the American"

TORNADO ALLEY—High winds and tornadoes struck several Mid-South areas last night, with widespread damage near Paducah, between Memphis and Star City, and north of Cleveland near the Vincent community in Arkansas. Another hit north of Memphis near Millington. Areas near Covington also were hit.

Tornado Strikes Near Millington; At Least 30 Hurt

An estimated 30 to 40 persons were injured when a tornado slammed through the Shady Lawn Trailer Court at 7800 Raleigh-Millington Road, near the climax of a night in which violent weather left persons dead in Arkansas and Tennessee.

Two persons were reported dead at Atkins, Tenn., 35 miles northeast of Memphis, late last night and seven were known dead after an earlier tornado which ripped from the Star City, Ark., area before disappearing around Hughes.

Eleven persons went to Crittenden Memorial Hospital in West Memphis, Ark., after deputies and Arkansas State Police freed them from the rubble of houses which were wrecked in Vincent, Ark., and four others were taken there after a house trailer was overturned at James Mill.

Shelby County Sheriff William N. Morris Jr. said a father and his child were believed to be the only persons seriously injured when the storm hit her house on Madison Road, just east of the trailer park, south end of Millington where 250 to 300 trailers are usually parked. He said the man was injured when hit by a flying television. Most of the injured were being taken to Navy Hospital in Millington.

Residents in the trailer court said they had almost no warning of the storm which hit around 10 p.m.

"We were both in our back bedroom and we had just went to bed," said Mrs. Michael D. Mon. "I told my husband that it was going to do something. I told him to go grab the baby. Just as we got to her room, the trailer turned over. We had just a few minutes, thank the good Lord."

Robert Mueller of the Millington Fire Department, who lives at the trailer park, stood beside the demolished trailer with a double-barreled shotgun and said he, his wife, and a grand-daughter were in the trailer when a television crashed buried under asphalt the tornado picked up from the highway and landed in bed with his wife. His son was injured, he said. A witness said 40 persons who were separated from their families found where damage to a main building was estimated at $1.5 million dollars.

Officials in Crittenden County, Ark., and several West Tennessee counties said last night that searches were under way for survivors or persons left homeless by the storm.

In Memphis, when Civil Defense sirens were sounded, many persons reported they tried to get into buildings marked as shelters and found them locked.

King Challenges LBJ Going To Hawaii Today To Consult On Peace Moves, Set Stage For Rec Meeting

But US Attorney Says Ban To Be Enforced, Even If Troops Needed

Attorneys representing Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. go before United States District Judge Bailey Brown at 9:30 this morning to challenge a temporary restraining order against any mass march here.

Dr. King and others planning a Monday march in support of striking sanitation workers ward a possible clash with the order—if it remains in force, it is not going to be stopped by Mace or injunction.

But United States Atty. Thomas Robinson said the temporary order will be enforced even if it means calling in federal troops.

Dr. King's attorneys, Louis Lucas, Walter Bailey and Laicus Burch, told Judge Brown that Judge Brown had closed down with Talleb Brown for about an hour yesterday. They are expected this morning to challenge the jurisdiction of the federal courts to stop the march.

Dr. King said granting of an injunction against the march would be "a basic denial of First Amendment privileges."

He stood on the First Amendment. In the past on the basis of conscience we have had to break injunctions and it is necessary we do it in Memphis. We'll cross that bridge when we come to it.

Mr. Robinson reacted quickly when asked about indications that any injunction may be going to be enforced until it is amended. The United States attorney said, "Such action as is necessary to enforce the order will be taken."

He pointed out that federal troops had been used to enforce the order when James Meredith entered the Memphis federal court. The Memphis Central High School was desegregated in Little Rock.

"We are making sure that the court's order is enforced until it is amended," he said. "Such action as is necessary to enforce the order will be taken."

Within minutes after Judge Brown signed the restraining order, yesterday two United States marshals accompanied by a state trooper led a group of about 20 persons to the site of the march.

Dr. King and four other defendants named in the injunction, James Williams, Rev. James Orange, Ralph D. Abernathy and Bernard Lee, were taken to the Lorraine Motel. Dr. King greeted the federal officers, Marshall Cato and Deputy Marshal Will D. Durham, in the driveway of the motel and the defendants accepted service of the order. Dr. King said a sixth defendant, who was out of town but promised to notify marshals when the minister returns.

The city's petition for the injunction against the march is based generally on the idea that the mass march led by Dr. King last Thursday turned into a riot and, therefore, the city has good reason to fear that another civil disorder if another mass march is held. The city justified its plea to the court on grounds of diversity of citizenship—in other words, the named defendants are not residents of Tennessee—and by raising certain federal questions spelled out in various civil rights acts.

The city said it also was seeking the injunction as a means of protecting Dr. King and others working with him. "We are fearful that in the turmoil of the moment someone may harm Dr. King's life," said City Atty. Frank Glavin, "and with all the force of language we can use we want to emphasize that we don't want that to happen."

The city's petition said "unless in the city's area and a reputation of civil activities of March 25 (the day of the riot), that it through its duly elected officials and representatives will have by its action, permitted the rights guaranteed to citizens to be violated and Negroes to be violated."

Mr. Glavin suggested that the court may want to allow the march to proceed but set certain guidelines such as the number that may participate.

US Wary Of Bid To Talk Of Peace On Enemy Terms

By JAMES RESTON

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The administration is eager to talk to North Vietnam about Hanoi's latest peace proposals, but it is frankly suspicious that it is merely being invited to talk about ending the war on the enemy's terms.

The fear of official quarters here is that the Hanoi government has misjudged the recent political revolution in the United States, and may be acting on the illusion that the United States will accept a false solution to this long and arduous struggle and call it peace.

This, of course, the Johnson administration is not prepared to do. It still regards the Hanoi proposals as an invitation to surrender, and is standing on Johnson's statement of last Sunday that "the United States will never accept a false solution to this long and arduous struggle and call it peace."

The main difference between Hanoi's latest proposals and its previous suggestions is that the North Vietnamese government has dropped its demand that all bombing and other acts of war against North Vietnam be stopped before it would talk. Now it has offered to talk first but only after acceptance of precisely the same terms.

Nevertheless, the administration is following up the latest proposals with the hope that the preliminary talks will lead to a wider agreement. It is, in fact, a new kind of arrangement to limit military activity on both sides while the talks proceed.

It is also important to define with the greatest precision the instructions to be given to the envoys who will contact Hanoi's officials, and if possible to get agreement to the negotiating instructions from the South Vietnamese government, which has been increasingly uneasy about the trend of U.S. policy in Vietnam ever since the reassignment of Westmoreland.

NEWS ANALYSIS

By JAMES RESTON

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The United States and North Vietnam took a small but enormously significant step yesterday toward preliminary diplomatic discussions that could lead to an end of the Vietnam War.

First, the Hanoi government declared in a radio broadcast its willingness to meet with American representatives to discuss "the unconditional cessation of the United States bombing raids and all other acts of war against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam so that talks may start."

Then President Johnson told newsmen he was accepting Hanoi's offer.

He announced the United States "will establish contact with the representatives of North Vietnam. Consultations with the government of South Vietnam and other allies are now taking place."

The President also said he would fly to Honolulu, Hawaii, late Thursday evening for a long weekend of conferences with American officials from South Vietnam. The contact would be made with North Vietnam, or when or where.

Geneva, Switzerland, was considered a likely site. The President already has said his prime negotiators in the event North Vietnam chose to respond to his curtailment of the bombing raids would be Ambassador-at-Large W. Averell Harriman and Lewisville E. Thompson, ambassador to the Soviet Union.

There was no word from Moscow or any other world capital Wednesday to shed light on the President's specific plans of the war, obvious that Johnson's full and honest assessment, considered the Hanoi statement to be genuine enough to warrant a serious response.

The President had a lengthy afternoon meeting with his leading advisers and then went out to a White House driveway to have a press conference with microphones and newsmen.

He read a statement quoted from an official United States government transcript of an English-language broadcast of the North Vietnamese government's statement. The English version followed a Vietnamese-language broadcast of the same statement.

The President said: "Today the government of North Vietnam made a statement which included the following paragraph: 'We are ready to meet with the representatives of the United States to discuss the cessation of the United States bombing raids and all other acts of war against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam so that talks may start.'"

"Last Sunday I expressed the position of the United States with respect to the Vietnam situation. The English version followed a Vietnamese-language broadcast of the same statement."

"I am now talking about comparative values, but decided by elected representatives of the people who will have to live with the results. Mr. Brudwell told members of the City Council and representatives of the Memphis Police Department at the beginning of the three-hour meeting last night."

The highway administrator told the council it had three alternatives. No. 1, you don't build the road at all. No. 2, you build it outside the park and there, you build it through the park.

He said the first choice would deny the city a limited access highway, direct routes through the city and superior traffic service to residents who want to travel east and west. Building it outside the park would be heavily offset by the fact that the park would be lost.

Council Chairman Douglas Pryor said he thought he spoke for the council when he said he believed the expressway would have to go through the park.

Mr. Brudwell said a nursery route could be planned but the consequences would be the removal of a large number of acres and trees, the probable elimination of an opportunity for the intercity expressway and removal of a substantial number of houses and apartment buildings.

It was agreed that several buildings of the zoo would have to be removed and relocated or reconstructed with a nursery route.

Charles Speight, state highway commissioner, said of the original proposed route, "We think we've got the best, the most feasible and the least expensive route."

The council adjourned until 1 p.m. today for another session on the question.

When asked if he thought final decision would be reached today, Mr. Pryor said, "I don't know."

Mrs. Owen Aumwand said, "I don't know."

Smoke Rises From 16th Century Antwerp Church

Masaryk's Death Back In Spotlight

Czech Officials To Reinvestigate 20-Year-Old Disputed Mystery

PRAGUE, April 3. — The Czechoslovak state prosecutor's office announced Wednesday it will reinvestigate the controversial death of former Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk, a disputed mystery for 20 years.

The body of Dr. Masaryk, son of the founder of Czechoslovakia, Thomas G. Masaryk, was found in the courtyard of the Foreign Ministry March 16, 1948. The Communist regime which had just seized power said he committed suicide by jumping from a bathroom window. For two decades belief has circulated both here and abroad that he was murdered. His death symbolizes the brutality of Stalin era rule for millions of his countrymen.

An announcement by deputy general prosecutor Frantisek Zabransky that the case would be reopened was viewed as part of the liberal trend in the new Communist regime which took control last January. The senior Masaryk, for years a "non person," has been rehabilitated.

Meanwhile, the Czech government continued. Deputy Premier Otakar Simunek and Defense Minister Bohumir Lomsky resigned Wednesday as the new reformist leadership pushed a sweeping reshuffle of the Communist government and party hierarchy. The two formerly were supporters of the ousted president and party chief, Antonin Novotny.

British Wage Battle Due

LONDON, April 3. — Battle lines were drawn Wednesday between the Labor government and labor unions as the government in a white paper announced details of tougher policies to hold increases in wages, salaries and dividends to 5 per cent a year.

The government proposes to take reserve powers to delay pay and price increases 12 months, to require price cuts where recommended by the prices and incomes board, to moderate and phase rent increases and to prevent excessive dividends by corporations.

Despite opposition from union officials in and out of Parliament on the wage cuts, and despite the loss of popular support in recent by-elections, cabinet ministers believe they can enact the forthcoming legislation, although with a reduced majority.

However, observers believe the test will come when the government tries to enforce the 3.5 per cent ceiling in the case of house linen demands for wage increases of 5 per cent and more.

Nigerian Cease-Fire May Be Near

LONDON, April 3. — (UPI) — A Socialist peer, Lord Brockway announced Wednesday he had received a letter from Nigerian rebel leader Lt. Col. Oluksenu Ojukwu indicating breakthrough Biafra was prepared for a ceasefire.

Lord Brockway, chairman of an All-Party Committee for Peace in Nigeria, quoted Ojukwu as saying he was prepared for an immediate cease-fire and negotiations "without recriminations on either side."

Russia Charges Red Chinese Interference

MOSCOW, April 3. — (UPI) — The Soviet Union charged Wednesday that Red China destined a Russian tanker carrying supplies to North Vietnam and that Chinese soldiers broke down doors and used force against its captain and crew. It was the third case this year of official Soviet protests against detention and alleged mistreatment of Russian ships and sailors in Chinese ports.

Panama Court Studies Impeachment Data
PANAMA, April 3. — (AP) — The Panamanian Supreme Court went to the sheltered Legislative Palace Wednesday to study documents related to the impeachment and dismissal of President Mario A. Robles by the National Assembly March 31. An injunction before the court alleges that the impeachment proceedings against Robles were illegal and unconstitutional. The court will rule on this probably by week's end.

Gunfire Downs Patrol Plane, US Confirms

SAIGON, April 4. — (Thursday) — (AP) — The United States Command confirmed Thursday that a Navy patrol plane with 12 men aboard was shot down Monday while participating in an operation against gun-running in the Gulf of Tonkin off South Vietnam's west coast.

An official announcement said only that the plane reported being "hit by anti-aircraft fire." Other sources had reported earlier that the four-engine turboprop craft, a P-3 Orion, was fired on by a Cambodian ship.

The command said the bodies of two crewmen were recovered and search operations were continuing.

The plane had been patrolling between the island and the mainland as part of Operation Market Time, the command reported. The operation is an allied sea and air campaign to intercept enemy junks and trawlers bringing arms and supplies to the Viet Cong.

The Orion usually operates about 30 miles off the South Vietnamese coast.

Victory Is Seen As Allied Drive Nears Khe Sanh

Thousands Of Troops Knife Within Three Miles Of Besieged Fortress

By THOMAS CHEATHAM
SAIGON, April 4. — (Thursday) — (UPI) — A Marine general declared the battle for Khe Sanh won as thousands of allied troops Thursday knifed to within three miles of the besieged outpost in a juggernaut to "put the enemy out of business" in northern South Vietnam.

United States military spokesmen said American helicopter gunships supporting the troops trapped a North Vietnamese company of 120 men in an open field and killed 25.

Heavy fighting Wednesday was reported in two areas north of Tan Son Nhut Air Base near Saigon. Spokesmen said 20 Communists died in the clashes with allies.

Advancing eight miles behind columns of tanks rumbling over a boobytrapped, rutted road, 10,000 United States Marines and South Vietnamese infantrymen were out to crush the North Vietnamese armies that had laid siege to Khe Sanh since Jan. They sought to secure all of South Vietnam's northwest corner near the Laotian border, a key Communist infiltration corridor.

It was the first time last September that American forces ventured along the twisting Highway 9 that links Khe Sanh with vital coastal supply points.

The going was slow. Mines and boobytraps were plentiful along the roadside, both unknown danger. Troops hacked through the grass, 11 feet high in spots, to protect engineers clearing the road.

There was little resistance from Communist troops, although they blew up 17 bridges along the line of march.

In the air, United States F-4 Phantom II fighters continued to hit North Vietnam well below the 20th Parallel border established by President Johnson's limited bombing halt.

Navy pilots hit rail sidings and bridges in the southern peninsula. Spokesmen said their northernmost strike was a rail siding 12 miles northwest of Thanh Hoa, 15 miles below the 20th Parallel.

United States air cavalrymen poured into Khe Sanh's surrounding hills in swarms of helicopters. They found empty bunkers and trenches and said some of the peaks, almost within sight of Khe Sanh, were still aflame from blistering artillery and air bombardments.

In Da Nang, Lt. Gen. Robert Cushman said American firepower coupled with the courage of the 10,000 defenders had won the battle of Khe Sanh.

Cushman, commander of I Corps, said the big push was the second stage of a counter-offensive to secure South Vietnam's entire northwest corner. (Picture and Map on Page 1; Editorial Story on Page 1B)

Hippies Brave Raging Flames For Art's Sake

ANTWERP, Belgium, April 3. — (UPI) — Hippies and flower children, faces and multi-colored caftans blackened and singed, raced repeatedly into a blazing 16th Century church early Wednesday to save 10 million dollars worth of Flemish art masterpieces.

The Gothic Church of St. Paul's, containing untold riches in historic wood carvings, was destroyed in the fire.

No one knew exactly how the blaze, spreading from a sporting goods store next door, got started.

More than 60 students and young persons, many of the hippies, poured out of nearby night dance halls and went into action long before police and fire fighters arrived.

An early police report said the paintings had been destroyed, but the youths already were painting in doorways and the dance halls.

The church, with its treasure of more than 40 paintings by Peter Paul Rubens, Van Dyck, Jordans and Teniers the Elder, is well known to tourists as well as Belgians.

"We had no choice," said a student, his black beard, whiskers, by acid and smoke. "We've been through up on Rubens and Van Dyck. Risking our lives was the least we could do."

"The never seen anything like it," said a police officer. He kids never even hesitated. They just jumped in and got to it."

Flaming timbers dropped around their heads as some used pickaxes to loosen the masterpieces from crumbling, partially carved wooden frames.

The salvaged masterpieces included Rubens' "Flagellation" and "Holy Sacrament" and the "Carrying of the Cross" by Van Dyck.

Experts said the paintings, even the most seriously damaged, could be restored.

Senators Say Offer By Hanoi Is Encouraging

By MORRIS CUNNINGHAM

WASHINGTON, April 3

Mid-South hawk and dove surprise offer to negotiate is encouraging, even though murky and unclear.

Senator John Stennis (D-there would be a cease-fire bea precondition for talks.

Fulbright conceded he was wrong when he predicted in the Senate Tuesday that the new bombing restrictions imposed by President Johnson would prove of little consequence and would offer no increase in the right direction.

Pitch For Unity
Made By King

2,000 Hear Rights Leader
Scott At Injunction,
Beitell Violence

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. last night told more than 2,000 persons at Miami Temple that Monday's mass march must be held in peaceful atmosphere on the eight-week-old sanitation workers strike.

"If the police dogs and fire hoses in Alabama couldn't stop us, an injunction in Memphis, Tenn., can't," he told the disappointed assembly.

Pleading for unity, Dr. King said, "We have got to stay together and maintain unity. We have to keep the issues where they are exposed to the same is the refusal of Memphis to be struck with its public servants who happen to be garbage men."

Dr. King said the violence that erupted during last Thursday's mass march could be a distraction to focus on the "broken promises."

"That's what happens when you have a little violence on the press concentrated on the broken promises and not on the issues," he said.

He said Southern Christian Leadership Conference leaders are going into court this morning to fight "these illegal unconstitutional injunctions."

Dr. King again called for economic boycotts against the Memphis business.

"We don't need hotels and day of selection set in and the lotteries and Molotov cocktails," he said, "are not the way to base and putting pressure where it hurts."

Agile, Dr. King urged persons to leave work and school to join Monday's march.

He is expected to appear again tonight during another mass meeting at Miami Temple.

Dr. Ralph Abernathy, one of Dr. King's aides, said it was a tribute to Dr. King's leadership that only a few persons in the March 31 march became violent. He praised Dr. King's ability.

He said despite Dr. King's hours he has not yet decided to be president of the United States.

"He is the man who will be the President what to do," he said.

In New York yesterday, civil rights leader and a labor leader said the Rev. Dr. King had changed the mass march from Friday to Monday so that the demonstration could be swelled by those planning a nationwide "march on the White House."

The announcement of the massive convergence on Memphis was made by Bayard Rustin, president of the A. Philip Randolph Institute and organizer of the 1964 march on Washington, and Victor Gollman, executive director of the District Council 37 of the American Federation of State, Municipal and Education Employees (the union representing the Memphis strikers).

The two men said more than 6,000 persons are expected to converge on Memphis from throughout the country.

And John De Lacy, president of the Montgomery, Ala., Southern Workers Union, who led a strike there, said members of his union plan a mass march to Memphis by plane, train, bus and private car to join the march.

The number of strikes and riot-connected incidents continued to decline. The last battle of the Tennessee National Guard—the local unit—was released from active duty.

Others in the 3,800 who served here during the emergency had returned to their homes gradually over the last few days. Guard officials said they could be alerted again in a matter of hours.

The 300 Tennessee Highway Patrol troopers who had been here since Thursday also returned home yesterday.

In incidents yesterday, Gene Harold Allen 14, of 328 East view said police five Negro youth jumped from a drainage ditch on Walnut Grove Road at 8:30 a.m. and took his wallet, which contained no money.

In the same general area, E. C. Dowdle, owner of Dowdle Sporting Goods store at 2286 Walnut Grove, reported his store broken into. Three automatic rifles, several shotguns, some knives and a quantity of ammunition were taken.

Fire Chief E. A. Hamilton said the number of fire calls had dropped back to almost normal.

Home Crowds Out Horrors Of War

By LINDSEY BUCHERT
Sgt. John Dean had to hold the Purple Heart in his left hand as he showed it to friends gathered yesterday in welcome home home from Vietnam.

"I carried my right arm (shown off at the shoulder by a Cong hand grenade) to the helicopter all the way to the hospital. But after a couple of days selection set in and the saw-on arm had to be amputated," he said.

The 19-year-old soldier, now "Mr. and Mrs. Jesse A. Dean of 4328 Tinsler, talks with an amputee at Walter Reed Army Hospital, and plans to "go home to my children and stay in the Army another 18 years."

"I am a current one. I will have been in the service two years this Friday."

Sergeant Dean's narrative reads like fiction created in a super-hero's mind rather than a soldier's reality.

"I had been in Vietnam about seven months and was a sergeant in the First Air Cavalry Division near Hue. Our company of 120 men was part of the first assault front to serve into Hue in the Feb. 12 attempt to take the city."

"Our company and others nearby had been killed to the point where the city."

"By pursuing an enemy tank, 120 men were driven into an ambush. Viet Cong leaped from positions in the rice paddies and left all but 20 of us dead."

Sergeant Dean said he commanded his 10 men to seek the weakest point in the ambush and counterattack. "That is the only way out."

He was hit in the face and by rifle fire. Felled, he crawled toward a hole in the paddy.

"I guess that Viet Cong saw crawling because he lobbed a hand grenade at me. That's how I lost my arm. Three buddies in the hole were killed."

"As he approached I played dead. Must have played the part pretty well because Viet Cong just took my rifle."

Remembering his jungle training in Hawaii, he said he stuffed bandages into the wounds and treated himself for shock by elevating his feet into his hands.

He said he lay in the trench nearly eight hours before being drilled to the Da Nang Navy Hospital.

The Houston firm paid the Memphis Housing Authority $26,220 for the 102,883 square-foot tract or $2.26 per square foot.

The motel plan calls for 11 floors above ground, including parking garage, a restaurant, balance of the parking and 10 floors of motel rooms. The check-in desk, lounge and several recreation and meeting rooms will be occupied by a portion of the 200-space ground floor will contain the motel pool also is planned.
