Below please find duly authorized signature, which you will recognize in the payment of funds or the transaction of other business on my account, including the execution of promissory notes; it being understood and agreed that this account shall be subject to the following conditions:

Items received for deposit or collection are accepted on the following terms and conditions. This Bank acts only as depositor's collecting agent and assumes no responsibility beyond its exercise of due care. All items are credited subject to final payment and to receipt of proceeds of final payment in cash or solvent credits by this Bank at its own office. This Bank may forward items to correspondents and shall not be liable for default or negligence of correspondents selected with due care nor for losses in transit, and each correspondent shall not be liable except for its own negligence. Items and their proceeds may be handled by any Federal Reserve Bank in accordance with applicable Federal Reserve rules, and by this Bank or any correspondent, in accordance with any common bank usage, with any practice or procedure that a Federal Reserve Bank may use or permit another bank to use, or with any other lawful means. This Bank may charge back, at any time prior to midnight on its business day next following the day of receipt, any item drawn on this Bank which is ascertained to be drawn against insufficient funds or otherwise not good or payable. An item received after this Bank's regular afternoon closing hour shall be deemed received the next business day. All the terms and provisions of the Combination Check Book and Deposit Record Book shall form a part hereof as though printed hereon.

Your Federal Income Tax

Internal Revenue Service Publication No. 17

This useful booklet, containing more detailed information than the instructions which accompany Form 1040, is issued each year to help taxpayers prepare their income tax returns. The new 1968 edition (for use in filing 1967 Tax Returns and Declarations of Estimated Income Tax for 1968) contains the latest and most comprehensive information. It is written in plain layman's language with the New Form 1040 completely filled in and keyed to explanations in the text.

1968 EDITIONS

160 pages of tax information in each pamphlet.

50¢ EACH

Tax Guide for Small Business

Internal Revenue Service Publication No. 334

The new 1968 edition of this tax guide (for use in filing 1967 income, excise, and other tax returns for 1968) has explanations and answers to most of the tax problems encountered by the small businessmen. Answers to Federal tax questions of Corporations, Partnerships, and Sole Proprietorships are found in this booklet. It contains a Tax Calendar for 1968 that indicates when and what actions the businessman should take regarding various Federal taxes. Also included in the booklet are the rules for business travel, entertainment, and gifts.

SPECIAL INFORMATION—QUANTITY DISCOUNTS. For those who are interested in purchasing quantities of this booklet, a 25-percent quantity discount is allowed on all purchases of 100 or more copies to be mailed to one address.
