In the following paragraph from a published story, we have left out certain words. Read the selection carefully. Think about the mood and then write in the word that you think belongs in each blank.

She CLUTCHED her faded chevron robe around her as she EDGED toward the door in her CHAND slippers. The little dark eyes STARLED suspiciously out of her PHALM, gray-covered face. She seemed to ignore the TASTERED rose-tinted wallpaper, the WENT-EASTERN rug rugs and the white iron bed."

Does one of these pictures suggest a way to you? It could be written or illustrated, fast or fiction. Write 100-150 words about one of them. In 50 words, approximately, tell us why you want to become a writer. Relax and be frank. We want to get to know you and your expectations.

Gentlemen:

I believe it to be of interest to you to know of a plan afoot to take Ray from the authorities upon his arrival in the U.S. The people involved have expressed themselves as being undaunted if he is surrounded by 100 Federal Marshals or F.B.I. personnel. They anticipate a large protective force but will not be stopped and expect to lose several in the attempt but there will be martyrs. They have anticipated his surprise return and have placed watchers at every conceivable airport including his force landing areas.

Because of possible reprisals I must abstain from signing this note to you. I am deeply concerned and hope that no one is hurt.
