Ray lawyer dismisses story of plot in Louisville to kill King

919 NW 1921

WASHINGTON — One of James Earl Ray's lawyers says that more than a year ago he looked into an allegation that Louisville police and FBI agents planned to kill Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. He said he concluded there was no truth to the story.

Ray's lawyer, James H. Lewis, said he was asked if the allegation was true. Lewis said he looked into the matter and found that the Louisville detachment of the FBI and the Louisville police were only interested in an attempt to kill the civil rights leader. He said he concluded there was no truth to the story.
