SUBJECT: MURKIN

ReButel 4-9-68 re. laundry tag.

Mr. LEE V. LEONARD, Owner of Home Laundry and Dry Cleaners, Bloomington, Indiana, advised on 4-10-68 that his company has 2 Thermal Marking Machines manufactured by the Textile Marking Machine Co., Syracuse, N.Y. He stated, however, that they use 2 letters and a number in sequence and that instant marking is not similar to their markings.

LEONARD explained that these machines are only used by laundries which have a very large volume of work. His company also handles wholesale laundry for smaller laundries in the area. Smaller laundries mark their laundry with hand tags. He stated that his company covers Bloomington, Bedford, Bloomfield, Spencer, Martinsville and Nashville. There are no other companies in this area which use this type of marking machine.

Mrs. D. HUMBAUGH, American Laundry of Washington, Indiana, advised on 4-10-68 that this company covers most of Daviess and Martin counties and uses a hand tag mark. She stated that there are no laundries in this area large enough to use this type of machine.

Mrs. AREBA REDNOUR, Benzol Laundry and Dry Cleaners, Columbus, Indiana, advised on 4-10-68 that this company also covers Seymour, Indiana and uses a hand tag mark. She stated that there are no laundries in this area large enough to use this type of machine.
