Charges In King Slaying Stand

MEMPHIS, Sept. 7 (UPI) — Criminal Court Judge W. Preston Battle today refused to dismiss two indictments against James Earl Ray, accused in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Battle overruled a motion to quash the murder indictment against Ray and found a motion to dismiss an indictment accusing him of carrying a dangerous weapon premature.

The judge called a brief recess before hearing arguments on a motion which would allow defense attorney Arthur J. Hanes Sr. to interview prosecution witnesses and examine physical evidence collected since King was struck down by a single rifle bullet here April 4. Hanes was assisted in his arguments by his son, Arthur Hanes Jr.

Although Ray was not in the courtroom when the hearing began, security at the jail was stringent. All persons entering the building were searched and had to register their name and affiliation before they were allowed in the courtroom.

District Atty. Gen. Phil M. Canale Jr. argued for the state.

Hanes asked for dismissal of the murder charge on grounds publicity in the case has been so "widespread and pervasive" as to make a fair trial impossible in the U. S.

Ray Motion In King Case Turned Down

MEMPHIS (AP)—Judge W. Preston Battle rejected Friday a defense contention that James Earl Ray could not get a fair trial here because of widespread publicity given the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. slaying case.

The judge overruled a motion to quash an indictment charging Ray with the civil rights leader's murder and said it was his considered opinion that Ray would receive a fair and impartial trial. The trial is scheduled to start Nov. 12.

Ray was not present in the courtroom when the motion, one of three by the defense, was heard and rejected. His attorney, Arthur J. Hanes, former mayor of Birmingham, Ala., waived his client's presence for the arguments and Judge Battle permitted the hearing to proceed without him.

Even so there was little relaxing of the tight security measures prevalent when Ray was arraigned last July. Newsmen were frisked before being admitted to the courtroom and none was permitted to leave while the proceedings were in progress.

BAR ASSOCIATION ACCUSES FBI MAN

Legal Group in Memphis Says Agent Violated Pre-Trial Order

MEMPHIS (AP) — A bar association committee advised Judge Preston Battle Wednesday that statements attributed to an FBI fingerprint expert violated Battle's order against pre-trial publicity in the James Earl Ray case.

The charge against the FBI man, George Bonebrake, was contained in a supplemental report filed in the criminal court clerk's office by the seven-man advisory group.

The committee said it planned to file a petition requiring Bonebrake to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court. However, since Bonebrake lives in Washington, D.C., outside the court's jurisdiction, the committee said it would send a copy of the petition to U.S. Attorney General Ramsey Clark along with a request that the FBI man submit himself for a voluntary court hearing.

The committee took exception to a story appearing Sept. 12 in the Wichita, Kan., Beacon in which Bonebrake commented on fingerprints connected with the Ray case.

Battle's order specifically prohibited out-of-court comments on the case by anyone connected with the case — attorneys, investigators and witnesses. Bonebrake is expected to be one of the state's chief witnesses.

Judge Battle recently held in contempt two newspaper reporters, Ray's attorney, Arthur J. Hanes, and Renfro T. Hays, an investigator hired by Hanes. He said newspaper stories written by the reporters quoting Hanes and Hays violated his anti-publicity order. He withheld sentencing.

Ray is scheduled to be tried here Nov. 10. He was charged of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The Muzzle Is Too Tight

Speaking at a recent law enforcement seminar in Kansas, FBI agent George Bonebrake reiterated the testimony he gave in London which linked James Earl Ray to the rifle allegedly used to assassinate the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

In Memphis, Judge Preston Battle, who will preside at Ray's trial, took note of wire service coverage of Bonebrake's comments and quickly asked a committee of lawyers to determine whether or not the FBI man's remarks violated his very strict prohibition of pre-trial publicity. The lawyers have now said agent Bonebrake was in violation of the court order, and a contempt citation is expected to be forwarded to the Attorney General with a request that Bonebrake be ordered to come to Memphis and show cause why he should not be held in contempt.

All of this may come as a shock to Bonebrake, who didn't say anything that wasn't previously said in London (during the extradition proceedings), all of which was widely reported in the U.S. press. But agent Bonebrake should have been forewarned. Judge Battle has already ruled two Memphis reporters, Ray's attorney and a defense investigator in contempt of court. The reporters were held in contempt for reporting statements by the attorney and investigator, statements which did not go to the substance of the case but related primarily to complaints about access to their client and security measures taken to safeguard him — 24-hour surveillance by TV which the defendant doesn't like.

We are not urging further action by Judge Battle, but we do hope he notes some inconsistency here. If the Memphis reporters were in contempt for passing on the comments of principals in the case, what about the local reporter in Wichita who managed to get Bonebrake's comments and print them there, and the wire service reporter who picked that story up and sent it out by teletype, and the various editors around the country who then decided it was newsworthy enough even the second time around for inclusion in their papers? Agent Bonebrake is perhaps the most vulnerable of those cited to date for contempt, although it is likely he didn't realize what he said in Kansas would get back to the area where the jurors live. But the contempt order seems to us too broad when it completely silences the defense and jeopardizes newsmen who merely report the comments of others.

Ray Gets Off Easy

JAMES EARL RAY believed in capital punishment for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. but not for himself.

As the climax to the weird case in Memphis, Ray pleaded guilty to murdering Dr. King last April.

But the plea was part of a deal to save Ray from the electric chair.

In California there is no doubt about who murdered Sen. Robert F. Kennedy. Sirhan Sirhan admits it. His whole pitch at the trial is to escape the capital punishment he meted out to the senator.

Ray's deal in Memphis was made with the judge, the jury and the prosecution. It was not made with the public, or with those believed by the murder.

IN THE COURTROOM, the defense attorney and the prosecutor both insisted Ray acted alone in the murder, that there was no evidence of conspiracy.

But Ray, voluntarily, stood up in court and voiced his disagreement with the theory that there was no conspiracy.

Whether there was or not may never be known now, even though the Justice Department claims the investigation is still "open." Whatever Ray had on his mind, true or untrue, presumably will remain undisclosed. If he had had to stand a four-square trial, with the threat of execution confronting him, it might have been a different story. Who can say now?

"If there was a conspiracy," said the judge from the bench, "no member of such conspiracy can ever live in peace or lie down to pleasant dreams because there is no statute of limitations on capital cases in this state."

But a conspirator, or conspirators, if there were any, now can rest much easier. The trial is over. Ray will be under no more compulsion to talk—if, indeed, he had anything to say.

CONCEDING there are "practical" aspects to an engineered verdict, such deals nevertheless leave the impression that justice has not been clear-cut. And in this case, doubt about the possibility of a conspiracy is bound to flourish. The more so because, in the brevity of the compromise trial, no motive was even suggested. In most capital trials, motive is one of the major factors.

In short, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who had no opportunity to compromise with his killer, is dead. But James Earl Ray, while he presumably will spend the rest of his days in prison, is alive.

Is this justice?

Foreman on Ray

Was James Earl Ray capable as a person of the kind of animus that would drive him—alone—to kill Martin Luther King Jr.? The question is a haunting one because the available evidence is inconclusive on this score. Prosecutor Canale in Memphis says there are indications of race hatred on Ray's part.

Ray's lawyer, Percy Foreman, has now answered the above question in the affirmative. In an interview with the Columbia Broadcasting System, he expressed the belief Ray was such a person. One has to understand the criminal mind, Mr. Foreman says.

He agrees with the judge in the case that perspective may have been served by not bringing the murder to trial. There might have been a danger of Memphis burning, he says, but he reminds the public that his own objective was to see that James Earl Ray did not burn. Which doesn't relieve public frustration about the whole affair.

Stoner Stops in City; Believes Ray Is Innocent of Slaying King

Attorney J. B. Stoner said Friday night in a television interview here he had "independent information" that makes it impossible to believe James Earl Ray is the assassin of Dr. Martin Luther King, who was murdered in Memphis April 4, 1968.

Ray was convicted of the murder of Dr. King last week and is now in the Tennessee penitentiary at Nashville serving a 99-year term.

"I have some independent information about the Ray case from sources I know in Memphis," said Stoner, who is representing Ray in suing some national publications for libel. "And from the information I have, I believe it would have been impossible for Ray to be guilty of having shot King."

Stoner, who is visiting friends here and will go to Nashville today to meet with Ray, said he thought that Ray had been pressured into entering a plea of guilty because national magazines had made it impossible for him to have a fair trial.

"Certain magazines are part of a conspiracy to libel Ray and deny him of a free trial," the attorney said. "This pressured him into pleading guilty."

If Ray had not pleaded guilty, it was possible that a jury, if convinced of his guilt, could have sentenced him to death.

Stoner, who said he will be aided by Chattanooga attorney Bob Hill, said he has known Ray since September 1968, when Ray employed him on civil action.

Stoner representing Ray in a libel suit against some national magazines including Life magazine which has accused him of a crime of which he is not guilty," Stoner reported.

The Atlanta attorney spoke in an exclusive interview over WRCB-TV, Channel 3 during the 11 p.m. newscast.

Stoner first broke into the news in 1940 when, as a 16-year-old preparatory school student, he was singled out by a Nazi propagandist with Radio Berlin to come to Germany after a Nazi victory over Great Britain for surgery on a leg affected by infantile paralysis when he was 2 years old.

Stoner had been writing Fred W. Kaitenbach, a former Iowa, who went to Germany in 1936 to do Nazi propaganda work.

Stoner said then that, although he was against Hitlerism, he had corresponded with the Nazis in the hope that "a German doctor might be able to cure me." He had been told that the greatest surgeons in the world were in Germany.

At the time, Stoner refused to say how he had met Kaitenbach.

Young Stoner was in the habit of listening to the Nazi propaganda broadcasts, and heard a broadcaster named "Lord Haw Haw of Zeesen," who was English, refer to his letters and refer to him by name on May 27, 1940.

About 12 years ago Stoner led an anti-Jewish demonstration featuring Nazi-type banners with swastikas on the Hamilton County courthouse lawn.

STONER RETAINED BY RAY'S LAWYER

CHATTANOOGA, Ga. (AP) — J.B. Stoner, an attorney long associated with anti-Jewish, anti-Negro causes, has been retained by James Earl Ray in his effort to win a new trial in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Stoner's office announced Friday.

Edward B. Fields, director of the militant segregationist National States Rights party, said Stoner would help Ray change his plea from guilty to innocent and would ask for another trial. Stoner is an NSRP attorney whose office is located in the party headquarters here.

(Attorney J. B. Stoner stopped over in Chattanooga Friday night en route to Memphis and was interviewed by WRCB-TV. See story on Page 4.)

Ray was sentenced to 99 years in prison after he pleaded guilty in Memphis to last year's sniper-slaying of King.

Fields said Stoner was en route to Nashville where Ray is lodged in cell No. 4 in the Tennessee State Penitentiary.

He said Stoner would confer with Ray Saturday morning.

Warden Lake Russell said he did not yet know whether Stoner would be allowed to see Ray.

"We'll let him see him if he can present the proper credentials," Russell said. He'll have to show that he (Ray) actually hired him as his lawyer."

In Memphis, court officials said there was nothing on file to indicate that Stoner had been designated attorney of record by Ray.

Criminal Court Judge W. Preston Hattle Jr., who presided in the Ray case, disclosed Wednesday that he had been notified by Ray that he wanted to withdraw his guilty plea and stand trial for first-degree murder.

The judge said also that Ray wrote him he had fired his attorney, Percy Foreman of Houston, Tex.

Stoner would be Ray's third attorney. He had also dismissed former Birmingham, Ala., Mayor Art Hanes.

Stoner, 44, has been involved in Ku Klux Klan and anti-Jewish activities since boyhood. At 16, he was an organizer and officer of a Chattanooga, Tenn., Klan and once was shown as the Klingle of Tennessee.

Formed Party

In 1945, he formed the "Stoner Anti-Jewish party" and mailed out pamphlets urging removal of the Jews. In 1952, he announced formation of the Christian Anti-Jewish party and urged deportation of Jews and confiscation of their property for distribution to "Christian Americans."

He authored a book entitled "The Gospel of Jesus Christ Versus the Jews."

Reared on a Walker County, Georgia, farm just outside Chattanooga, Stoner received 934 votes as a candidate for Congress in the 3rd Congressional District of Tennessee in 1962.

Among his later roles as an attorney was that of counsel for Klan elements involved in Montgomery, Ala., litigation over Freedom Rider outbreaks.

Attorney J. B. Stoner Says Impossible For Ray to Be Guilty in King Slaying

Former Area Man Hired by Prisoner

By BILL COOLEY
Memphis Press-Scimitar Staff Writer

Attorney J. B. Stoner of Atlanta, a former Chattanooga who as a youth embraced the anti-Jewish philosophies of Nazi Germany and 12 years ago led an anti-Jew, anti-Negro demonstration here on the county courthouse lawn, stopped here Friday night en route to Nashville where he has been retained to represent James Earl Ray in new proceedings stemming from the death a year ago of Martin Luther King.

"I believe it would have been impossible for Ray to have been guilty of having shot King," Stoner said as he was interviewed.

At Stoner's side was Robert Hill, a former law clerk for Federal Judge Frank Wilson. He is now in private law practice here. Hill will assist Stoner in the Ray appeal.

Ray entered a plea of guilt to the King killing last week in Memphis and is now in Cell No. 4 at the state prison in Nashville. He was to meet with Stoner and Hill today to discuss his 99-year term.

Stoner says he is in possession of "independent information" which will clear Ray of the charge.

M'CALLIE STUDENT

The former McCallie School student, who finished high school at City High, said he has filed libel suits on behalf of Ray against "certain magazines, including Life, which have accused him of a crime of which he is not guilty."

Stoner, who was an attorney for Ku Klux Klan elements involved in the Montgomery, Ala., litigation over Freedom Rider outbreaks, says he believes Ray has been pressured into entering a plea of guilty because national magazines had made it impossible for him to have a fair trial. He added that "certain" magazines were involved in a conspiracy to deprive Ray of a free trial.

Attorney Hill, a Sunday School teacher at First Baptist Church in Chattanooga who holds the highest karate degree attainable, the Black Belt, is a graduate of the Baylor School and the University of Chattanooga.

He earned his law degree at University of Tennessee in 1963 and, after a period of employment with Judge Wilson, entered private practice. He is associated with attorney Bob Wheat in the Pioneer Building.

Mr. Hill's father was coach, athletic director and commandant at Baylor School for more than 35 years.

Stoner first entered the news in 1940 as a 16-year-old McCallie student who was singled out by a Nazi propagandist to come to Germany after a Nazi victory over Great Britain.

Stoner had requested that a German doctor do an operation on a leg affected by infantile paralysis at the age of 2. He had written letters to Fred Kallenbach of Iowa, who had gone to work as a propaganda specialist for the Nazis in Berlin in 1936. The letters were later read worldwide on a Nazi broadcast May 27, 1940. Stoner was convinced that German doctors were "the greatest in the world."

Stoner's entry into the Ray case was announced by Edward R. Fields, director of the militantly segregationist National States Rights party, who said Ray first contacted Stoner after his arrest in London last year. Stoner, an NSRP attorney whose office is located in the party's headquarters in Savannah, Ga., ran for vice president under the party's banner in 1964.

Criminal Court Judge W. Preston Battle Jr., of Memphis, who presided in the Ray case, disclosed Wednesday that Ray had written him saying he wanted to withdraw the guilty plea and stand trial.

Stoner grew up on a Walker County, Ga., farm just outside Chattanooga. Since boyhood he had been involved in Ku Klux Klan.

At 16, Stoner was an organizer and an officer of a Chattanooga klan and was once shown as the kleagle of Tennessee. He has called himself imperial wizard of the Christian Knights of the Klan and published a klan newspaper in Louisville, Ky., and Atlanta.

In 1952, Stoner announced formation of the Christian Anti-Jewish party and urged deportation of Jews and confiscation of their property for distribution to "Christian Americans." The same year he polled 934 votes as a candidate for Congress in the 3rd Congressional District of Tennessee.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date April 8, 1969

BOY RICHARD ERVIN, Georgia State Prison (GSP) Number 57071, was located in the visitor's section just off the rotunda, GSP. He was advised he was to be interviewed in regards to a letter from a BOY ERVIN received at the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D.C. ERVIN was given a Rights and Waiver form, which he read and signed.

A letter was read to ERVIN as follows:

"Dear Sir:

"I would like to inform you that I drove a 1965 model Mustang from Memphis, Tenn. to Atlanta, Ga. on April 4th, 1968. If this date reminds you of anything that happen in Memphis, last April 4th at 9:45 p.m.

"Sincerely,

Boy Ervin"

BOY RICHARD ERVIN orally advised as follows:

He did not write the letter and did not send any letter to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington, D.C. No one has hinted to him that such a letter had been written. He was unable to think of any inmate in the GSP who would write such a letter. He knows of no inmate in the GSP that dissiles him who would write a letter and send it out with his name on it.

He has engaged in conversation with other inmates regarding the Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING case, but he does not recall ever having mentioned a Mustang automobile in those conversations with other; however, he could have said something about such a vehicle.

SV 44-1768

He recalled that a friend of his, JERRY BENNETT, had owned a 1965 Mustang, white, two door hardtop. BENNETT is employed at Coronet Carpet Company, Dalton, Georgia, but it is believed that he had traded the 1965 Mustang in on another car.

On the last Saturday in March, 1968, he had left Dalton, Georgia, with JERRY BENNETT, and MICHAEL BLALOCK, who lives near Dalton, Georgia. BLALOCK's home is located by going out the Chatsworth Highway about six miles, then turn off the highway onto a dirt road. BLALOCK is in the U.S. Army at the present time.

After leaving Dalton, Georgia, on the last Saturday of March, 1968, BENNETT, BLALOCK and he drove in BENNETT's 1965 Mustang to Atlanta, Georgia, where they stayed about two hours. They then traveled back to Dalton, Georgia, where he, ERWIN, obtained his 1963 Lincoln Continental, light blue, and drove to Chattanooga, Tennessee, along with BENNETT and BLALOCK in BENNETT's 1965 Mustang. In Chattanooga, Tennessee, BENNETT, BLALOCK and ERWIN checked in at the Florida Hotel and stayed there for one night and a day.

He left his car, the Lincoln Continental, in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and drove with BENNETT and BLALOCK to Knoxville, Tennessee, where they stayed for four or five hours. They then drove to Memphis, Tennessee, where they stayed for a couple of days. They left Memphis and drove back to Chattanooga and checked in at the Florida Hotel, Chattanooga. A Florida Hotel porter, THASDALE ROOSEVELT, a Negro male, about 65 to 66 years of age, tall and muscular build, knows him, ERWIN, well. Between 9 PM and 10 PM on April 4, 1968, THASDALE ROOSEVELT told him about the fact that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING had been killed in Memphis, Tennessee.

The next day, April 5, 1968, in the early afternoon, he drove back to Dalton, Georgia, in his 1963 Lincoln Continental. About a half mile from Dalton, his 1963 Lincoln motor burned up and he had to have the car hauled into Dalton to his home.

He knows nothing about the murder of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING.

A description of ERWIN as obtained by observation and interrogation, is as follows:

MURKIN

Enclosed for Savannah are two true copies and one true copy for Memphis of a letter received at the Bureau from Roy Erwin, who is incarcerated by the Georgia Board of Corrections at Reidsville, Georgia.

Savannah should immediately interview Erwin for all information he possesses concerning the contents of his letter and set forth necessary leads to thoroughly resolve issues. It is to be noted that James Earl Ray owned a 1966 Mustang which was abandoned in Atlanta, Georgia, on April 5, 1968. It is also to be noted that Martin Luther King, Jr., was shot at 6:01 p.m. (Memphis time) on April 4, 1968, at Memphis, Tennessee.

Bufiles indicate that one Roy Erwin admitted stealing a 1963 Ford Fairlane in Dalton, Georgia, on 8-16-65, and abandoned same in Columbia, South Carolina. In this matter the Assistant United States Attorney in Columbia declined prosecution as subject juvenile and had been charged by local authorities for theft of same vehicle.

Bufiles further indicate that under FBI number 402 331 F one Roy Irwin, white male, born [redacted] was fingerprinted by the State Board of Corrections at Atlanta, Georgia, (number A-71338-57075) on 6-20-68, in connection with charges of forgery and received a sentence of two years and seven months.

Enclosed for the Bureau is one copy each of Savannah airtel to Memphis dated 4/2/69, and an FD-302 dated 4/2/69 which reflects an interview on 4/2/69 with ROY RICHARD ERWIN, an inmate of the Georgia State Prison.

The Bureau will note that ERWIN has denied writing a letter bearing his name which indicated that he had driven a 1965 Mustang from Memphis, Tenn., to Atlanta, Ga., on 4/4/68, the date that victim was killed. The subsequent interview with ERWIN on 4/2/69 indicates that ERWIN was in Chattanooga, Tenn., on 4/4/68, and ERWIN denies having any knowledge regarding KING's murder.

Since it does not appear to serve any useful purpose to conduct the investigation set out in Savannah airtel of 4/2/69, Atlanta and Knoxville should hold the requested investigation in abeyance and should not conduct same, WACH.

Re St. Louis airtel 5/1/69.

On 5/5/69, SV 524-R related that Attorney J. B. Stoner, NSRP official, is currently in Tennessee and that she believes that JERRY RAY is with him in connection with the case involving the RAY matter.

As Memphis is aware, source has previously advised that STONER is representing RAY in the civil aspect of his claims and periodically visits him. It is noted that informant was uncertain as to STONER's exact location in Tennessee but believed that he could possibly be in Chattanooga.

A copy of this airtel is being furnished Knoxville in the event Memphis desires to set forth a lead for JERRY RAY to be interviewed at that location.

In the event JERRY RAY cannot be located, Memphis is requested to advise Savannah in furnishing details of his reported statements concerning an alleged existence of a conspiracy.
