Mr. ART DE LUCA, Plant Manager, O & R Engines, 3340 East Emory Street, was contacted at his place of business and after being advised of the identity of the contacting agent, was interviewed relative to a threat to the life of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., made during 1964.

Mr. DE LUCA advised that during the first part of 1964, possibly as early as January, O & R Engines, Inc., acquired a number of small portable generators from a bankrupt company which owed them a debt of about $150,000. Having no use for the generators, the O & R Company decided to market them through a mailing house. This was done under the fictitious business name of Portable Power Company and various individuals were mailed a blue business envelope, which bore an advertisement of the generators, a return address of the Portable Power Company, 3767 Tracy Street, Los Angeles, and a blank order space for the customer to fill in his name and address.

Numerous replies were received as a result of this marketing program, including one such envelope postmarked "Perry, Florida", which contained what DE LUCA believed to be a threat to the life of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. Mr. DE LUCA stated he retained this envelope in his desk drawer since the time of its receipt, as more of a curiosity than anything else. He made available this envelope, plus a small strip of paper and an expended .30 caliber shell casing, which items had been returned inside the envelope.

The business reply envelope bore a return address of "WILLIAM P. (illegible), 1118 Southampton Street, Perry, Ga., 415." Enclosed in the envelope was a white strip of paper on which was inscribed the following words, "Death Comes to Martin Luther King. The Truth is our Prime objective---Death is already inevitable for that Black Bastard!" Also enclosed in the envelope was an expended .30 caliber shell casing.

Both the envelope and the slip of paper were inscribed "4/8/68, tmg" by the contacting agent, and the shell casing was marked with two lines on the inside upper lip of the casing.

On April 8, 1968, at approximately 10:30 p.m., KATHLEEN MABLE MC BRIDE was interviewed in the vicinity of 910 West 81st Street, South Los Angeles, California. She stated that at approximately 3:00 in the afternoon of April 8, 1968, she and her sister, ROBERTA EDWARDS, were picked up by a young white male and a Negro male who were driving a 1965 Dodge two door, cherry red in color, license ROE 183, in the vicinity of Manchester and San Pedro Streets. She recalled driving around with these men for approximately three and a half hours. She stated her sister, ROBERTA EDWARDS, started preaching the Bible to the young white male, which caused him to become indignant and provoked him to use foul language. He struck ROBERTA EDWARDS on the side of the face, knocking off her earring. KATHLEEN MC BRIDE stated she tried to get out of the car, and as she did so, was kicked by the young white male who, in the meantime, was waving a two-inch revolver at the head of the young Negro who was driving the vehicle. MC BRIDE stated she and her sister left the vehicle in the vicinity of San Pedro and Jefferson Streets. During the course of the conversation, immediately before the girls left the vehicle, the young white male made the statement that he was the killer of MARTIN LUTHER KING and had just arrived in Los Angeles from Memphis by jet.

MC BRIDE described the white male as 25 years of age, 5'9", 170 pounds, with ruddy complexion and brown hair. He was wearing orange pants, a white shirt and black shoes. He was mean looking and acting, and he had a bad temper and used foul language. MC BRIDE stated the young white male apparently knew the unknown Negro male and was somewhat familiar with the area in which he was driving.

A photograph depicting a pair of duck-bill pliers containing the name of Rompage Hardware on the handle was exhibited to Mr. WARE. He was asked if he had ever seen such a pair of pliers. Mr. WARE related that he had ordered pliers such as were shown in the photograph from an unrecalled firm while he was manager of Rompage Hardware Store, 5542 Hollywood Boulevard, Los Angeles, California. He stated the pliers were seconds and were received by Rompage Hardware in an assortment of tools which were sold from a bargain bin.

Mr. WARE stated he was employed by Rompage Hardware from 1958 through February, 1967. He was manager of Rompage Hardware for approximately five years. He began ordering the assortment of tools for use in the bargain bin in approximately February, 1966, and continued reordering every three or four months until he terminated his employment with Rompage Hardware in February, 1967. Mr. WARE did not know exactly how many pairs of pliers were received in the assortment of tools but estimated probably no more than a dozen pliers were received in the assortment. He stated when receiving the assortment of tools, he only counted the number of tools received in the assortment and did not note the number of each type of tool received.

Mr. WARE related that he could not specifically recall having sold a pair of the pliers to anyone. He further stated that he did not possess a pair of these pliers himself.

MARIE MARTIN was interviewed at her residence, Apartment 201, St. Francis Hotel, 5533 Hollywood Boulevard. MARIE MARTIN furnished the following information:

She first met ERIC GALT in the Sultan Room at the St. Francis Hotel, a bar where she is a cocktail waitress and serves beer. Her first meeting was about mid December 1967, when during casual conversation she asked GALT if he would take her home. GALT said he would take her home and then she told him she lived in New Orleans. She explained to GALT that her cousin, RITA STEIN, had to pick up her children in New Orleans and GALT then agreed to drive to New Orleans. Later the same evening, GALT either took her to RITA STEIN's residence or RITA was at the bar and took GALT to her residence to meet RITA's brother, CHARLES STEIN. MARIE MARTIN did not remember whether she was at the STEIN residence that evening. Later the same evening, when GALT learned that CHARLES STEIN would accompany him to New Orleans instead of MARIE or RITA, GALT made the statement to MARIE that "If its a set up I'll kill him. I have a gun". MARIE reassured GALT that it was not a set up but only RITA STEIN's need to get her children. GALT then made the condition that RITA, CHARLES and MARIE had to register for GEORGE WALLACE in California and arrangements were made to register the next day. The following day, RITA, CHARLES and MARIE met at the Sultan Room and GALT picked them up in his Mustang. MARIE paid no attention to the conversation on the way to register for WALLACE, nor did she remember anything at the registration.

GALT's Mustang was believed to be forest green in color and very plain inside in that there were no extras, such as a console, FM radio or airconditioning. MARIE recalled one occasion when GALT told her he had had difficulty driving through a Negro community because of the Alabama license plates on his car and that tomatoes had been thrown at it.

After GALT returned to Los Angeles from New Orleans, MARIE saw GALT in the Sultan Room about 30 times. During these occasions she made the following observations:

GALT usually drank straight vodka and maybe had a tap beer on occasion. She never saw GALT smoke, nor was the ashtray near him ever dirty. GALT may have eaten a bar snack called beef jerky once or twice, but did not have a habit of eating while drinking.

GALT had very clean hands, not calloused, fingernails clipped short and no rings or wristwatch were observed. GALT appeared to be pale and not tanned as if he were indoors a great deal. GALT's eyes were blue, sometimes appearing hazel when the pupils were very large. GALT's eyes were best represented by the composite drawing from Birmingham, Alabama, but no other composite came close. GALT's expression was always very solemn and showed no emotion.

She and GALT once played a game of pool but GALT was not good, although he had probably played before. On one occasion in February 1968, GALT stated that he had just finished a six-week bartender school course, but could only make a screwdriver. GALT gave the impression to MARIE that he had been married once just by his cool manner.

The last time MARIE saw GALT was when they traded television sets and MARIE and GALT carried his console television from his room in the St. Francis Hotel to her apartment in the hotel. GALT's room was very neat and seemed picked up at that time. Nothing was noted laying around the room and it appeared GALT had moved out and the television was all that remained. The television was carried to the elevator, brought to the second floor and put in MARIE's apartment. At that time GALT was in the apartment for approximately ten minutes showing her how to work the television and at that time gave her $20.00 in addition to the trade.

Regarding the portable television set she traded for ERIC GALT's console-type television set, she is almost certain it was a General Electric with 21" screen of plastic material with built-in rabbit ear antenna with a handle on top. On the right corner in front was a push-pull on and off button and to the side of this was believed to be a push-button channel changer. Both of these buttons were recessed which served to conceal them. On the right side of the television was a magnetic-type cover under which were the three small adjustment knobs, i.e. horizontal hold, vertical hold and brightness.

She could not identify the photographs of the personal belongings of GALT as any possessions of his she had ever seen.

STEIN stated that during the trip GALT told him he was from Alabama and planned to return to Alabama.

STEIN stated GALT told him that he had recently returned from Mexico, where he formerly had part ownership of a bar. STEIN stated GALT mentioned that his former partner had been Mexican, and the bar was located near a seaport or boats. STEIN stated that he directed GALT to a motel in the 1000 block of Charter Street, name unknown, between Ursuline and St. Phillip Streets, New Orleans. STEIN advised that they had driven straight through from Los Angeles to New Orleans, arriving in New Orleans on December 17, 1967.

STEIN advised that after GALT registered at the motel, he and GALT proceeded to the residence of his (STEIN's) mother, CLOVINA ALONZO, 1907 1/2 Royal Street, New Orleans. STEIN advised that GALT left him there.

STEIN advised that GALT later telephoned him and told him he had ascertained that a storm was presently blocking their return route, and that they would begin the return trip on the following day.

STEIN advised that he, GALT and RITA's two children departed for Los Angeles on December 19, 1967. STEIN stated that once again they drove straight through, stopping only for food and gasoline. STEIN advised that GALT paid cash for all expenses incurred on the trip. STEIN also advised that GALT did not make any personal contacts with anyone during the entire time he was with GALT.

STEIN advised that during the course of the trip, both to and from New Orleans, GALT expressed the view that if the Negro wants to be a free man, he should go to the north or west, and if the Negro wants to be a slave, he should remain in the south.

STEIN stated that MARIE then told him that GALT told her he carried a gun and would use this gun against him. STEIN stated he had no further descriptive data regarding the gun which GALT was supposed to have in his possession.

STEIN stated that, immediately prior to his and GALT's departure for New Orleans, he loaded some clothing into the trunk of the white Mustang owned by GALT. STEIN advised that located inside the trunk of this white Mustang was a small suitcase. He stated that the color of this suitcase was either blue or gray and appeared to be in good condition. STEIN also advised that he observed a yellow cardboard box in the trunk of this white Mustang. He stated that he thought this box contained camera equipment since the box resembled a Kodak camera box. STEIN further advised that he did not see any gun, hammer, pliers, or binoculars in the trunk of this car.

STEIN advised that, in traveling from Los Angeles to New Orleans, he and GALT took the following routes:

Interstate 10 to Indio, California, then south on Highway 86 to Highway 80 to Yuma, on Interstate 8 to Interstate 10 and then Las Cruces, New Mexico, through El Paso to Interstate 10 at Van Horn, south on Highway 90 to Del Rio, San Antonio, and then on Interstate 10 to Houston, and then on to New Orleans by Interstate 10 or Route 90.

STEIN stated the same route was used on the return trip.

STEIN stated that, while en route to New Orleans, GALT stopped at a used tire store in El Paso, Texas. He advised that this store was on the left side of the route they were traveling and GALT purchased one tire. STEIN further advised that GALT paid cash for this tire and gave no indication that he knew anyone at the store.

STEIN further advised that, during the course of their trip to New Orleans, GALT mentioned to him that he served in the U. S. Army. STEIN stated that it was his impression that GALT served in the Army during the Korean War. STEIN stated he could not remember any further details regarding GALT's military service.

STEIN advised that he and GALT conversed about the candidacy of GEORGE WALLACE and the nomination for President sought by WALLACE in California. STEIN advised that GALT told him WALLACE did not wish to run for President but only desired to obtain enough registrations in the State of California to place himself on the ticket. STEIN advised that GALT told him this being placed on the ticket would give WALLACE some sort of power. STEIN advised that he was told by GALT that he need not vote for WALLACE in the election and GALT only wanted him to register for WALLACE. STEIN further advised, in reference to his registration for WALLACE, that he now remembers GALT having carried on a conversation at the place of registration on Lankershim Boulevard in Los Angeles. STEIN stated that GALT had talked with a nice-looking elderly man in the rear of the registration location, while he, MARIE, and his sister, RITA, were registering.

STEIN stated that, while en route to New Orleans and at a point just outside of New Orleans, GALT specifically repeated his name to STEIN. STEIN stated that it was his impression at that time that GALT wanted him to know GALT only by the name of GALT. STEIN stated that he gathered this very same impression when GALT registered for a motel in New Orleans and in a loud and distinct voice told the desk clerk his name was ERIC S. GALT.

STEIN further stated that the expenses of their trip to New Orleans and their return to Los Angeles were nearly all paid for by GALT. He advised that, during the course of this entire trip, he spent only $35.00. He also advised that GALT paid cash for any expenses they incurred and he noticed that GALT had at least two or three $20.00 bills in his possession. STEIN further advised that, from his prior conversations with GALT, GALT obtained the money he was spending from the sale of a bar in Mexico. STEIN further advised that he does not remember GALT saving any sort of trading stamps offered at gas stations along their route.

STEIN advised that he remembers seeing GALT in the Sultan Room of the St. Francis Hotel approximately one or two weeks after their return from New Orleans. He advised that he conversed shortly with GALT at such time, and GALT told him that he planned to remain in California, inasmuch as he was planning to attend a bartending school in Los Angeles.

CHARLES J. STEIN, 5666 Franklin Avenue, Los Angeles, California, was reinterviewed and advised that immediately prior to his and ERIC GALT's departure for New Orleans, he moved a suitcase belonging to GALT in the trunk of the white Mustang. STEIN advised that this suitcase had rounded corners, was in good condition, and was either blue or grey in color. STEIN was shown a photograph of the recovered blue suitcase, and he advised that the suitcase in the photograph appears to be similar to the one he moved in the trunk of the Mustang, but he cannot make a positive identification.

STEIN advised that in addition to the above described suitcase, he believes GALT also had a shaving kit in the trunk of the Mustang. He advised that he also observed a yellow cardboard box, approximately 18 inches in length, five inches in height, and eight inches in width, in the trunk of the Mustang. STEIN advised that the color of the cardboard box was similar to the color of a Kodak camera box and it was closed on top. He advised that he did not know the contents of the yellow box.

STEIN stated that GALT wore a watch. He stated that this watch did not have any unusual characteristics, except that he believes GALT told him that the watch was purchased by GALT in Mexico.

STEIN advised that throughout the trip to New Orleans and return to Los Angeles, GALT wore a dark brown suit with hardly noticeable vertical lines. He advised that GALT also wore a white shirt throughout the trip, and this shirt had a plain collar. STEIN also stated that GALT wore a tie throughout the trip, but he cannot remember the color, or whether the tie was of the clip-on variety. He also advised that he does not remember whether GALT wore a tie clasp. He stated that he does remember that GALT wore the brown suit pants throughout the trip, along with dark brown shoes. STEIN advised that these shoes were light weight, had laces, and were of a plain-toe style.

STEIN advised that GALT did not wear a topcoat, jacket, or hat at any time. He also advised that GALT did not wear sunglasses or any other type of prescription glasses. STEIN stated that he did not see a typewriter anywhere in GALT's car. He also stated that he does not remember GALT's wearing a ring of any sort. STEIN observed a photograph of the recovered bedspread, and advised that he never saw a similar article in the possession of GALT.

STEIN stated that GALT liked beer inasmuch as GALT drank beer throughout their trip, even when they were passing through cold weather, and also while GALT himself was driving the Mustang. STEIN stated that GALT drank different brands of beer, and did not express a particular taste for any single brand. STEIN also advised that when they stopped for food, GALT always ordered hamburgers. He advised that GALT ordered hamburgers with "everything on them".

STEIN advised that GALT did not smoke at all during their trip. He further advised that GALT is right handed, gathering this impression from observing GALT eat and drink. STEIN stated that during the trip GALT played country and western style music on the car radio. He further stated that GALT was very soft-spoken. He also stated that he noticed that GALT wore an excessive amount of hair cream.

STEIN advised that GALT had told him that the white Mustang was purchased by GALT from either a friend or relative. STEIN stated that he gathered the impression GALT had purchased the Mustang from someone GALT had known. STEIN also stated that GALT told him that the Mustang was purchased as a used car, and that GALT got a good deal on the car. STEIN stated that he does not recollect whether GALT told him the friend or relative who sold the Mustang to GALT was a car dealer. STEIN further stated that he remembers something about GALT's telling him he had a Mexican insurance policy on the Mustang. STEIN stated that he believes GALT did not have a United States insurance policy on the Mustang.

STEIN related that it became his conclusion that GALT had been in New Orleans before. He advised that GALT mentioned names of streets and places in New Orleans during their trip to New Orleans. He advised that he does not recollect the particular streets or places mentioned by GALT.

STEIN stated that during the trip to New Orleans they passed through a bad snow storm which had caused the road to become icy. STEIN advised that GALT was driving at the time, and was speeding. STEIN stated that he became concerned over GALT's ability to handle the car on an icy road and he instructed GALT not to brake the car if they started to skid. He stated that he then fell asleep and was awakened by GALT's losing control of the Mustang and going into a spin. STEIN advised that the Mustang went off the road, and finally stopped in a field, about two hundred yards from the road. STEIN stated that GALT later admitted starting to skid and then hitting the brakes. STEIN advised that it is his impression GALT had never driven in snow or on icy roads before.

STEIN advised that while enroute to New Orleans, GALT told STEIN that he had to contact two or more men in New Orleans. STEIN stated he got the impression that these men were associated with a contracting or engineering firm. STEIN also stated that from this conversation with GALT, he also remembers that the men, or the firm, were located in the Chalmet (phonetic) suburb. STEIN also stated that he believes GALT mentioned a "Jackson Barracks" as being in the vicinity of those individuals he needed to contact.

STEIN stated that during a conversation he had with GALT while in New Orleans, GALT told STEIN that he had seen STEIN on a street while he (GALT) was in a bar. STEIN advised that the only possible area where this could have occurred would be in the 400 or 500 block of Canal Street, near the river, in New Orleans.

Mrs. RONALD G. MC INTIRE, 12219 Darlington, viewed a composite picture of GALT showing his hair combed straight back. She stated he looked familiar but could not place him. She could not explain why her telephone number was in his possession. She was asked if she had ever had her phone number published for any reason, for example in the newspapers. She stated that she placed an ad in the paper in early November 1967 to sell a console TV. She stated that an individual remarkably close in resemblance to the composite of GALT answered the ad and bought the TV set for $90. She said it was a Montgomery Ward TV with the trade name Airline. She said he paid cash and placed the TV set in a white Mustang with red interior.

"Dear Single People's Advertiser: As I am happily married now to a wonderful man I met through your paper, please discontinue running my ad. I must say that my ad brought very good results, as I met some other very nice gentlemen before I met my husband. Incidentally, I know of eight — yes, EIGHT — other marriages that resulted from ads in SPA. Keep up the good work!" SPA appreciates this letter from a 48-year-old widow who placed a simple 15-word ad a few months ago.

CASH-PRIZE CONTEST For Women Ages 18 to 30

Desiring to increase its number of women advertisers in the under-31 age group, Single People's Advertiser is awarding a cash prize of $15.00 each month to the woman between the ages of 18 and 30 who submits (in our opinion) the most "attention-getting" ad containing a phone number (either a paid or a free ad). Your phone number and age must be included in the ad, and no one person may win a prize more often than once every six months. The prize money will be mailed to each winner two weeks after publication date. "Dear Single People's Advertiser: Please be good enough to remove my ad from your publication since through same I have found a wonderful man and am going to be married within the next month." This note from a 37-year-old divorcee is just one of the many similar letters received by SPA.

The periodical described below is NOT the same as Single People's ADVERTISER. Please read carefully:

Do SINGLE PEOPLE Have More Fun?

You would think so, judging by the 150 or more social-type activities in Los Angeles and vicinity attended each week either exclusively or largely by unescorted singles—20 to 2000 at each gathering; activities to which new people of both sexes and various ages are most cordially invited, be they divorced, separated, widowed or just unmarried.

Among these are activities to suit every taste: dancing and dance classes (ballroom, square, round, folk, etc.); skiing; discussions; group trips; bridge; house parties; dinners; theatre parties; beach parties; bowling; picnics; lecture-social groups; camping-out; volleyball; ice-skating; cycling; special activities for tall people, business and professional people, college grads and single parents; and many more.

Since so little information about these single adult activities is otherwise available, a magazine—Single People's Directory—was started in 1960 to assist single people in locating the activities suited to their particular desires. It was an immediate success. Single People's Directory gives the time and place of each activity (there are many activities every night of the week and even weekend afternoons), along with other highly useful information such as approximately how many attend, age ranges, the cost if any (some activities are free), etc. This most comprehensive magazine contains information about many activities in suburban areas, too, such as: the San Fernando and San Gabriel Valleys, Long Beach, Orange County, etc.

A special 9-months trial subscription to Single People's Directory is available to new subscribers for only $2.00 (an actual $3.00 value). Just fill out the order blank below—or write a note mentioning this ad—and mail it to us along with your remittance, and you will receive your first issue by return mail. If you are not entirely satisfied with the Directory for any reason whatever, we will refund your $2.00 immediately on request, and you needn't even return the magazine! Incidentally, any organization devoted to better business will vouch for our spotless reputation.

(Mail to: Single People's Directory,

I want to take advantage of your special offer of nine months of Single People's Directory for only $2.00, and am enclosing that amount herewith.

Mrs. LUCY PINELA, Manager, Home Service Laundry and Dry Cleaning, 5280 Hollywood Boulevard, advised the laundry uses a Thermo Seal marking machine manufactured by the Textile Marking Machine Company, Syracuse, New York. The serial number on this machine is 31454 and the model number is RH-5K 1. She said the machine was not new when purchased and she believes it was purchased some time in February, 1968, through MAURY M. DATER and Associates, 844 South La Brea, and the salesman was OSCAR BURKE. PINELA checked available laundry mark records and advised that she could not locate a record of O 2 B-6. She stated this number would have been used sometime after mid-February, 1968. She said she recently took over management of the laundry from JEROME W. VERNON, who went bankrupt and has disappeared. She said she took over operation of the business on about March 24, 1968, and VERNON was last seen about that time at the laundry. PINELA furnished samples from the thermo seal marking machine using the numbers and letters, O 2 B-6, on red colored tape. She noted that the machine was defective and parts of the first letter O were cut off from the left side of the tape. PINELA advised there were letters unopened, which were delivered to VERNON at this address from the Allstate Insurance Company and Crocker Citizens National Bank. PINELA advised she was sure that the records which contained the laundry mark O 2 B-6 were in the possession of VERNON. She described VERNON as follows:

Sex	Male
Race	White
Height	About 5'9"
Weight	Unknown, husky build, wears about a size 42-44 undershirt
Age	37
Hair	Full head of hair, prematurely greying, sometimes silvered for uniformity
Peculiarities	Handsome man.

LUCY PINELA, Manager of the Home Service Laundry and Dry Cleaning, 5280 Hollywood Boulevard, Los Angeles, advised SAs FRANCIS G. KAHL and DENNIS C. LE MASTER, after observing a color photo of the shorts and T shirt found in connection with this case, that she believed the shorts might belong, or were the same type, to a former employee known only to her as JIM (last name unknown) or "Uncle". She said JIM worked at the laundry for a period of about one month during February and March 1968. She said JIM was a personal friend of J. W. VERNON, and was formerly employed by a garbage disposal firm, name unknown. She believed JIM was a former member of the U. S. Armed Forces, branch unknown. She described JIM as follows:

Sex	Male
Race	Caucasian
Age	About 35
Height	About 5'2"
Weight	About 200 pounds
Hair	Dark brown
Eyes	Grey, frequently wore sunglasses with heavy dark frames

She commented the photo on his drivers license showed him with a large, full beard, which he did not have while working at the laundry. JIM had a girlfriend named DONNA (last name unknown), who was also a former employee at the laundry. JIM had no car.

She advised there were no employment records left at the laundry with which to further identify the former employees, since VERNON paid employees in cash and kept no payroll records of which she knew.

PINELA stated she last saw VERNON on March 27, 1968 at about 9:00 A.M. at the laundry. He gave no indication concerning his future plans. She advised VERNON had a girlfriend, DIANE WALL, who lives in Pasadena, exact address unknown.

PINELA advised she never saw VERNON or JIM in the possession of any type of gun. She said a large box of tools belonging to VERNON are now missing from the laundry. She advised she had the home address of DIANE WALL at her residence, and would make this information available later in the day. PINELA's home telephone number is 748-4260, and she would be home between 6:30 and 8:30 P.M.

Concerning the placement of the laundry marks on the garments in the photo, she advised this is where their laundry would place thermo-seals to indicate that the clothing was not to be starched.

While Miss PINELA was cooperative, she said it would be difficult at this time to fully answer questions because of the continuous traffic of customers in and out of the store, requiring her attention.

PINELA furnished additional thermo-seal samples on cloth during this interview.

Mrs. LUCY PINELA Manager, Home Service Laundry, 5280 Hollywood Boulevard, advised that the laundry marking machine located in the laundry is a Thermo Seal model made by the Textile Marking Machine Company, Inc., Syracuse, New York, and its serial number is No. 31454.

PINELA stated that the tapes used in the above machine were purchased by JAY VERNON after he took over the operation of the laundry in January of 1968. She said that the tapes currently at the store were the same ones that VERNON had originally purchased. She said that VERNON probably purchased the tapes at the Hollywood Supply Company, 7362 Santa Monica Boulevard in Los Angeles, but might have purchased it at the John P. Lynch Company, 7317 Paramount Boulevard, or the Calusa Chemical Company, 801 East Macy, Los Angeles, California, because he has dealt with all three places in the past.

The above-mentioned tapes were examined and the following numbers were observed on the inside of the roll:

Red tape, No. 4379.5L7; Red tape, No. 4379.__(last three figures indistinct);

White tape, 4379.5H3; Yellow tape, 4379.5__ (last two figures indistinct);

White tape, 4379.5H7; Blue tape, 4379.5H7.

PINELA advised that the ink on the above machine was very heavy and blurred on the tapes for the first week of operation and then it cleared up and was normal.

She advised that JAY VERNON took over operation of the Home Service Laundry and Dry Cleaning Store, on January 15, 1968. VERNON had entered into an escrow agreement to purchase the business from MAURICE HOWARD, the owner. HOWARD owned the business from approximately, September, 1966, to January 15, 1968. For some unknown reason the sale was not completed. VERNON brought Thermo Seal marking machine, serial number 31454 into the store in early February, 1968. During the first week of operation there was too much ink being printed on the laundry mark tabs and most were quite blurred. PINELA advised her salary is currently being paid by LOUIS PUTERMAN, 340 North Martell, Los Angeles.

ALBERT BALLAN, Mechanic, H. Beckman Chevron Service, 1506 North Normandie Avenue, Los Angeles, was interviewed at his place of employment, at which time he furnished the following information:

BALLAN located H. Beckman Chevron Service Station copy of Chevron Service Order No. 423676 which was made out in the name of GALT. The service order indicated that on February 13, 1968, a Mustang with the license 1-38993, no state recorded, speedometer reading 34,185, was brought to the H. Beckman Chevron Service, 1506 North Normandie Avenue, Los Angeles, where two front wheel seals were replaced. The front end was aligned, and the front wheels were repacked. The total charge for the bill was $12.47 which, according to the service order, was paid in cash.

BALLAN stated he recognized the handwriting on the service order to be that of his own, with the exception of the name "GALT", "Pd. Cash" and the initials of the person receiving the cash from GALT for the work performed. BALLAN stated he did not know which employee had filled out this portion of the service order.

BALLAN stated he could not recall having taken the service order for the above described vehicle, but this could have been done by another employee and he had been advised orally of the work to be performed on the vehicle. He could have, based upon another employee's instructions, then made out a service order. BALLAN related he could not recall the individual bringing the vehicle into the service station for the above repair work, nor could he recall whether the individual stayed at the station while the work was being performed. BALLAN could not recall the time of the day the vehicle was brought into the service station nor could he recall the time it was picked up from the service station.

BALLAN advised the work performed on the Mustang would take an hour to an hour and a half to complete if an individual did nothing else at the service station, such as pumping gas and waiting on customers. BALLAN stated that while performing work on the Mustang he would have had to wait on customers and assist with the other duties of the station. The time it would have taken for the job would have depended upon how busy the station was on February 13, 1968. BALLAN further stated that he was not sure he had performed the work on the Mustang as H. Beckman has another service station located at 8th Street and Western Avenue, Los Angeles, where work is sometimes sent if too large a volume of work is at the Chevron station located at 1505 North Normandie Avenue, Los Angeles.

BALLAN added that had the work been performed at the service station on 8th Street and Western Avenue, Los Angeles, no additional record would be made other than the one at the Chevron service station on Normandie Avenue, Los Angeles.

BALLAN related he did not believe the Mustang had been serviced at the H. Beckman Chevron Service Station anytime prior inasmuch as a record is maintained on the service orders of all regular customers. The service order which he had in his possession did not indicate GALT to be a past customer.

BALLAN voluntarily furnished H. Beckman Service Station's copy of Chevron Service Order No. 423676 to Special Agents of the FBI.

THOMAS R. DAVISON, Apartment 7, 1535 Serrano Avenue, Los Angeles, was interviewed at his home at which time he furnished the following information:

DAVISON advised he has resided at this address since April 1, 1967. He advised that he was familiar with the name ERIC GALT only from the name having appeared on the mailbox in the apartment house. When asked if he was acquainted with the former tenant who resided in apartment 6, 1535 Serrano Avenue, Los Angeles, during December, 1967, and January, 1968, DAVISON replied that he had only seen this individual who was a white male in the hallway of the apartment house. He never had any conversation with the individual and never saw him under circumstances under which he could make an identification. He stated the only time he saw the individual who resided in apartment 6 was as he passed his door in the hallway. The light bulb in the hallway is continuously burned out and the only light available to see anyone in the hallway is from his room. DAVISON related he did not know if the individual had a vehicle or if he was employed while a tenant in the apartment building. DAVISON commented the individual, to the best of his knowledge, did not have any girlfriends and never had any noisy parties in his apartment.

DAVISON stated he had ascertained from the landlord that when GALT skipped from the apartment, he had taken a key belonging to the building. The landlord told DAVISON that GALT had returned the key by mail. Shortly after GALT skipped from the apartment house, a male and female who resided on the second floor of the apartment house skipped. DAVISON did not know the names of these individuals.

Miss SYLVIA BLANK, Manager, Gramercy Park Apartments, 1831 Gramercy Place, was contacted at her place of employment during the early morning hours of April 12, 1968, and after being advised of the identity of the contacting agents, she was interviewed regarding her knowledge of ANITA KATZWINKEL and the occupants of Apartment 303.

BLANK stated that she has never heard of ANITA KATZWINKEL and that the occupants of Apartment 303 were a couple by the name of FLIKEID. She then explained that she took over as manager of the Gramercy Park Apartments on April 1, 1968, from the previous manager RUTH SMITH. Apparently SMITH had some sort of difficulty with the apartment owners because she left in a rush and did not tell BLANK anything about the job.

BLANK stated she recalled that on the day she took over as manager of the apartments, April 1, 1968, she had not been in her apartment for more than five minutes when Mr. TOM FLIKEID came in and paid her $140.00 for the rent of Apartment 303 for the month of April, 1968. At the same time, he told her that he and his wife would be leaving on a three month vacation at the end of April and that he would vacate their apartment at that time.

BLANK stated that for approximately the first week after she took over as manager, she did not stay at the apartments at night because she did not have her drapes up. One day during that week, possibly on the 4th or 5th of April, she arrived at the apartments and found a note from Mr. FLIKEID, along with the key to their apartment. This note advised that they had moved out of their apartment. She did not see them go nor did she know the moving company that had moved their furniture. She thinks they possibly might have had their furniture stored, rather than taking it along with them as they rented an unfurnished apartment and had a lot of furniture.

BLANK stated that there is one person in the apartments who might know what moving company moved the FLIKEIDS. That person is a Cuban girl who lived in the apartment next to them and who seems to know just about everyone in the apartment. Also the previous manager, RUTH SMITH, should have some information regarding them. SMITH can be contacted through the apartment's owner, Dr. GILL MARTIN, who is a dentist and who resides in Orange County, California, and who has a phone number of 714-541-3386.

BLANK then stated she believed that it was the Friday following April 1, that she found the note from FLIKEID in her mailbox. They also left a lot of food in their refrigerator and a pair of woman's shoes and a torn man's bathrobe. BLANK stated she owed the FLIKEIDS the balance of the $140.00 rent money Mr. FLIKEID paid on April 1.

BLANK stated she could not furnish any descriptive data regarding the FLIKEIDS as she never saw Mrs. FLIKEID, and only saw Mr. FLIKEID for about five minutes on one occasion. She did advise she thought her first name was SUE.

BLANK then made available the note she had found in her mailbox that was signed Mr. FLIKEID; one Rental Application, dated May 17, 1967 signed THOMAS FLIKEID; and one Standard Rent Agreement dated December 5, 1967, for Apartment 303, signed by Gramercy Park Apartments lessor agent, RUTH SMITH, and by lessee, THOMAS M. FLIKEID. The note was written on a 3 x 5 piece of white note paper and bore the inscription, "Keys from 303 Sorry we could not get to know you better Mr. Flikeid".

After furnishing the above information, BLANK stated that something occurred to her on the night of April 11, 1968, that might have some bearing on the FLIKEIDS. She then stated that at about 9:30 p.m., April 11, 1968, there was a knock on the door to her apartment. She opened the door and there was a white man standing there who she could only describe as being in the late thirties, having dark brown wavy hair, and whose eyes were red-rimmed as if he had been drinking. She could not recall smelling alcohol. This man asked BLANK if she knew what happened to the previous occupant of Apartment 102 who had moved upstairs. BLANK advised that she was afraid of the man and told him she did not know; however, SUE FLIKEID formerly was the occupant of Apartment 102 and later moved to Apartment 303. BLANK stated that after she told the man she did not know, she heard him go to the present occupants of Apartment 102 and ask them the same question. Shortly, thereafter, she observed this man walking up and down in front of the apartment house. He did this for approximately three or four minutes and then left the area. She did not see this man enter an automobile.

Miss BLANK stated she could not furnish any further information regarding the FLIKEIDs, but stated that if she did recall anything she would immediately contact the Los Angeles FBI Office.
