1. NUMBER OF EXEMPTIONS.—Do not claim more than the correct number of exemptions. However, if you expect to owe more income tax for the year than will be withheld if you claim every exemption to which you are entitled, you may increase the withholding by claiming a smaller number of exemptions or you may enter into an agreement with your employer to have additional amounts withheld. This is especially important if you have more than one employer, or if both husband and wife are employed.

2. CHANGES IN EXEMPTIONS.—You may file a new certificate at any time if the number of your exemptions INCREASES.

You must file a new certificate within 10 days if the number of exemptions previously claimed by you DECREASES for any of the following reasons:

(a) Your wife (or husband) for whom you have been claiming exemption is divorced or legally separated, or claims her (or his) own exemption on a separate certificate.

(b) The support of a dependent for whom you claimed exemption is taken over by someone else, so that you no longer expect to furnish more than half the support for the year.

(c) You find that a dependent for whom you claimed exemption will receive $600 or more of income of his own during the year (except your child who is a student or who is under 19 years of age).

OTHER DECREASES in exemption, such as the death of a wife or a dependent, do not affect your withholding until the next year, but require the filing of a new certificate by December 1 of the year in which they occur.

For further information consult your local District Director of Internal Revenue or your employer.

3. DEPENDENTS.—To qualify as your dependent (line 4 on other side), a person (a) must receive more than one-half of his or her support from you for the year, and (b) must have less than $600 gross income during the year (except your child who is a student or who is under 19 years of age), and (c) must not be claimed as an exemption by such person's husband or wife, and (d) must be a citizen or resident of the United States or a resident of Canada, Mexico, the Republic of Panama or the Canal Zone (this does not apply to an alien child legally adopted by and living with a United States citizen abroad), and (e) must (1) have your home as his principal residence and be a member of your household for the entire year, or

(2) be related to you as follows:

Your son or daughter (including legally adopted children), grandchild, stepson, stepdaughter, son-in-law, or daughter-in-law;

Your father, mother, grandparent, stepfather, stepmother, father-in-law, or mother-in-law;

Your brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half brother, half sister, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law;

Your uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece (but only if related by blood).

4. PENALTIES.—Penalties are imposed for willfully supplying false information or willful failure to supply information which would reduce the withholding exemption.

James -

just a short note to let you know how things are going. I wrote you another letter but put the wrong town down, (Dumb huh?) So that's why I'm writing you now. Things are pretty well about the same here as before. When will you be going to court?

I hear you have a pretty good lawyer. Don't forget that there are a lot of people behind you and that you are still in the "south".

I was down in a small town in Santa Barbara then I jump here to Stockton.

Might go to Australia if things keep going bad. I know that you must feel pretty "down an out now" but believe in that all things are going to be alright. Are you aloud visitors there? If so I may come to "Memphis" for about a week and see you (OK)?

Do you want me to do anything for you or get you anything. Just let me know.
I'm going to Tulsa Monday for a few days, just to take in the sites. My mom went back to Ohio to visit her folks. I guess they are not going to live much longer.

You did the right thing, it just fail. Maybe RW will be easier. Well I'm going to have to go. Let me know how things are going and let me know if how things are working

and if you need any thing write soon.

James -

I hope things are going well for you, considering the surrounding you are in. They have kept everything pretty well quiet about your trial. I can imagine the treatment they have been giving you? "No tea party I guess"

The weather out here in California is quite sunny and cloudy at times. If there is anything you want or want me to get you, I will get it to you as soon as possible.

I was wondering if they let you read the paper there? There are quite a few people out here

routing in your corner
for you. I'm sure you will win an aquital.

If you are short of funds I will send you money for cigarettes, candy, books etc. (How about a cold beer). I guess things are pretty gloomy in there.
I hope this letter make you feel alot better.

I would like to see hear from you
and let me know if you need anything. Take it easy and don't worry about anything. Write soon
