

of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and as the person directly responsible for the overall supervision of this investigation, I am fully qualified to and do state that at no time did the Federal Bureau of Investigation or any of its Special Agents or other employees offer a bribe or a reward to any witness in this investigation.

It is presumed that the witness STEVENS mentioned in JERRY RAY's affidavit is CHARLES QUITMAN STEPHENS, who was a tenant in the rooming house at 422½ South Main Street, Memphis, Tennessee, on the date that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was murdered. As stated above, no person representing the Federal Bureau of Investigation has ever offered any bribe or reward to obtain testimony from CHARLES QUITMAN STEPHENS.

I, Frank V. Hitt, having been duly sworn, make the following statement to Jack Keith, Jr., who is qualified to administer oaths.

I am Special Agent in Charge of the Atlanta Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and occupied that position on April 15, 1968.

On April 15, 1968, in connection with the Civil Rights investigation following the murder of Martin Luther King, Jr., I instructed Special Agents of the FBI to interview James D. Garner, operator of a rooming house at 113 14th Street, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia.

On April 15, 1968, Garner advised these Special Agents that Eric S. Galt rented Room Number 2, 113 14th Street, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia, from March 24, 1968, to April 7, 1968. Garner stated Galt was offered an adjoining storage room in which to place his surplus belongings. This storage room had two doors, one off of the hall and one off of Room Number 2. Garner continued to utilize this room for storage while Galt was using it. Garner last saw Galt on March 31, 1968. On April 5, 1968, Garner entered Room Number 2 to change the bed linen and found an undated note from Galt, which he destroyed, stating Galt had gone to Birmingham. The note further stated Galt had left his television set and would try to return for it in about one week. Galt left his key to Room Number 2 with the note.

Garner advised that Galt's rent expired April 7, 1968, and Galt had not returned to claim any of his belongings that he left behind. Garner stated after April 7, 1968, the exact date unknown, he had his employees clean Room Number 2 in order to rereant it.

All items left by Galt were placed in the storage room according to Garner.

With Garner's consent and in Garner's presence, Agents searched the storage room, which was under Garner's care, custody and control as landlord. Several items which were located during this search were voluntarily turned over to Agents, by Garner, for transportation to and examination by the FBI Laboratory in Washington, D.C.

A high-contrast, black and white mugshot of a man. The man is facing forward, looking directly at the camera. He has short, dark hair and is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, shirt. He is holding a dark rectangular sign in front of his chest. The sign contains white text. To the right of the man, there is a vertical line, possibly a wall or a door frame, and a dark, shadowed area. The overall image is grainy and has a high level of contrast, typical of older mugshots.
