severe loss. Chew said that there was considerable newspaper publicity over the matter at the time.

Chew placed King in the same category as Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown and stated frankly that he hoped the same fate befalls the latter two. He made the statement that he is not against the Negro race; that he was born in Georgia, brought up with Negroes and hunted and fished with them. He made it clear that he is against some individual Negroes like Carmichael and Brown, who advocate violence and have no regard for property rights, but is not against all Negroes.

Having made these points, he returned to the original question and stated that he had no recollection of the telephone call and admitted that the reason could be that he could have been drinking at the time the call was made. He volunteered that at that time in his life he was a "bad drinker". He emphasized that he had no doubt that he made the call, if interviewing Agents said he did, but that he could not recall it. He stated that he was certain, whether or not he had been drinking, that he would not have made a threat over the telephone since he knows such a threat could lead to trouble for him. He said if he had had any intention of doing anything concerning King, he would not have used the telephone, he would have taken direct action.

Chew advised that he is certain that no one "put him up" to making the telephone call, and it was not an action involving anyone other than himself. He was shown photographs of James Earl Ray, the man being sought in connection with the assassination of Martin Luther King, but disclaimed any knowledge whatsoever of Ray.

He constantly referred to King, Carmichael and Brown using expletives in an effort to show his intense dislike for these men.

He stated that he was in Denver on April 4, 1968 and April 5, 1968 and left the city by Eastern Airlines for Augusta, Georgia on April 6, 1968 where he is promoting business interests in the food industry, whereby he hopes to set up his son Bill in business. He was unwilling to further identify his business interests. He stated his son Bill is presently running the Paradise Motel in Ogden, Utah, Colorado and drove up from there to meet him in Denver the first part of the week of April 11, 1968. Both he and his wife drove to Silverton and on to St. Augustine, Florida where they were met on April 12, 1968 by Mrs. Chew and younger son, who had just returned from military service in Korea. He said his wife and younger son flew from Denver. Thereafter, he and his family vacationed in Florida until he, his wife and younger son returned to Denver on April 28, 1968 in a new car he purchased in Florida.

He specifically stated that he had nothing to do with King's death and said that he knew of no conspiracy relating to it. He stated that he saw King's funeral on television and the way it was conducted it looked to him like it had been planned for 20 years.

He volunteered to the interviewing Agents that he has every intention of protecting his apartment house property in Denver, Colorado with as much force as is necessary if anyone attempts to cause damage or loot it. He stated that he was angry at the leaders of this country for putting up with rioting, looting and the like. He thinks that the Attorney General is "very weak" and used more expletives to emphasize his point. He stated that he is "all for" law and order, but would like to see law enforcement empowered to act. He also stated that he was angry because the National Association For The Advancement of Colored People were able to close businesses throughout the country after King's death when very few businesses closed after President Kennedy's assassination; and he is convinced that threats were used to accomplish the closing of businesses in Denver, as he was so informed before he left on his trip.

It should be noted that a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1968 that Chew is a highly irascible and unpredictable individual, an alcoholic and possibly a user of narcotics.

Mrs. Holt Chew on April 30, 1968 advised that her husband left Denver on April 6, 1968 for Augusta, Georgia via Eastern Airlines and that she and a younger son traveled to Florida to meet him on April 18, 1937 via United, Eastern and Delta airlines.

He attended school there and came to Denver in 1932. He served in the United States Army during World War II and has been owner and operator of Holt Chew Motor Company for many years. At the time Charlotte was originally requested to conduct investigation to determine the manufacturer of the bedspread found abandoned at Memphis, Tennessee, the identity of the subject had not yet been determined and investigation was being requested which would have assisted in identifying the man who was known as GALT.

Since it is now known that GALT is JAMES EARL RAY, and since investigation regarding the bedspread would not in all likelihood assist in determining RAY's present whereabouts, Charlotte should disregard leads to further identify the manufacturer of the bedspread.

Mr. BROTON further advised that these machines may have been installed by Delta Cleaners and Equipment Company, 875 Prospect Avenue, Westbury, Long Island, who installed the majority of the machines for Pantex-Prosperity. He stated however that Delta Cleaners and Equipment Company is believed to be now out of business or in bankruptcy and these records particularly those prior to 1962 may not be available.

Mr. BROTON further suggested that if none of these avenues disclosed the locations of these machines he suggested contact with ARMY ROBOS, 301 Fyke Lane Teaneck, New Jersey, the Textile Marking Machine Company repairmen who did the majority of repair work on machines installed by Pantex-Prosperity.

RE: BOBBY JOE FAULKNER

On April 29, 1968, BOBBY JOE FAULKNER, employed by Alleghany Electric Company, a subcontractor of Rust Engineering Company, MacMillian-Bloedel Paper Mill Site, Yellow Bluff, Alabama, residing at Kimbrough Trailer Park, with father, JAMES FAULKNER, advised Special Agents ROBERT L. FRYE and DAVID A. CHANEY as follows:

He lived at Garner's Rooming House, Atlanta, Georgia, located on 107 14th Street, during the latter part of January and first part of February, 1968, while employed on a Government housing project in the Atlanta area. He left Garner's in February and moved to Chestatee Inn, Ponce De Leon Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia. On about April 1, 1968, FAULKNER returned to Garner's and obtained a room at the "Second House", operated by GARNER, which is next door to 107 14th Street.

FAULKNER claimed that GARNER had closed this house for a period of time as GARNER said, "the hippies were moving in on me." When FAULKNER returned to Garner's about April 1, 1968, he obtained a similar room in this house that GARNER had closed for a period of time.

FAULKNER claimed he knew of no one else who lived in the second house with him during the period of about April 2-8, 1968, except an individual he described as a white male, 50 years of age or older, 6', 150-160 pounds, gray hair, wrinkled rough skin on face. FAULKNER claimed this individual did not resemble any of the photographs of JAMES EARL RAY, also known as ERIC STARVO GALT. He does not know where this individual was employed, but he wore gray work clothes.

FAULKNER recalls that this person was in the company of two other individuals on the evening of April 1, 1968, when he was waiting for GARNER on the front porch of the house to see about a room. These two other persons were on the porch; one was a white male, 40-45 years of age,

Hester 10A

5'8" or 5'10", 200-250 pounds, dark brown hair, balding on the top. This individual apparently had a throat operation as he had a hole in his throat covered by a piece of gauze and spoke in a gruff whisper. The other man was a white male in his late forties, 5'6" to 5'8", gray hair, and was "very short". Both of these men had on gray work clothes and he assumed that they were possibly electricians. The man who stayed in the house with him was with these two men on that evening.

FAULKNER stated that the only other person who in any way resembled the photograph of RAY was a "young fellow", name unknown, who lived in the second floor, in the front bedroom of the house at 107 14th Street. This individual resembled the photo of RAY which is shown on Identification Order with close cropped hair. FAULKNER pointed out, however, that this "young fellow" whom he described as a white male, 25-30 years of age, about 5'10", 140 pounds, light brown close cropped hair, driving a 1963 or 1964 gold colored Plymouth, had roomed at Garner's for "a long period of time". This person appeared to be well-educated, and FAULKNER thought the person was a "college student."

FAULKNER stated that although the Missouri State Penitentiary photograph of JAMES EARL RAY resembles the individual he does not believe the "young fellow" could have been RAY.

FAULKNER states he believes the time he was at Garner's Rooming House on the second occasion was the period of April 2-8, 1968, as he recalled hearing the news of KING's death in Memphis while he was at Garner's the second time. He had checked in at the rooming house two or three days prior to the time he heard the news on the radio. He recalled that Friday of that week he left work early, went to his home in Columbus, Georgia for the weekend, and on the following Monday, which was April 8, 1968, he turned his key in to GARNER at Garner's Restaurant, located on Northside Drive, Atlanta, Georgia. He did not return to the rooming house after the early morning of April 5, 1968, which was the preceeding Friday. FAULKNER stated he left Atlanta after he picked up his money at the job on April 8, 1968, and traveled to Pine Hill, Alabama, where he has been employed since that time and has not returned to Atlanta. FAULKNER left Atlanta alone and came to Pine Hill, Alabama, where he is working with his father, JAMES FAULKNER at the paper mill site at Yellow Bluff, Alabama.

FAULKNER advised that during his last stay at 107 14th Street, Atlanta, in January and February, 1968, he shared room with ERNEST WILLIAM HARPER of Columbus, Georgia. He stated that at no time during his residence at this address did he see a white Mustang automobile parked in that area.

Info.

Dear Sir,

In our town there is a broadcaster who resembles the artist's sketch of the assassin of Martin Luther King. Please check his whereabouts on April 4th. His name is Joseph Forester, on a talk show at CHIN 637 1/2 College Street. His nose - very sharp and long - hair and things he had to say re Mr. King 2 weeks before Mr. King's death & other psychological aberrations - calling Mr King a "Commie" and after death broadcasting TWO eulogies on Mr King very favorable ... ?!

and in complete contradiction of former open line opinions. "Joe" describes himself as a "militant anti-Communist" (?)
but categorizes all liberal thinking people like the late J. McCarthy in USA, as "communies". "Commie" dupes or Commie fellow travellers. He sees "Commie" in the higher levels of government, university
and POLICE FORCES (!)

Check with airlines told that a trip to Memphis could be made, return in 4 hrs.
and in the time when Dr. King was slain.

In any case the artist's photo is very similar to the appearance of Joe Foweraker who is also, an ex-seaman, pro Vietnam war and generally in the lunatic fringe.

Mr. has travelled extensively in the deep South USA (according to his own stories.)

and is very pro war and has said
"a person once killed is nothing more than a hunk of meat."

He seems a dual personality and holds deep grudges, resentments and is vindictive He claims to have punched a grown man in the face who he had not seen for 15 years
because, the man, as a kid had stolen some comics from him, also a kid at the time. He claims to have ruined the career of a deliberately of a medical doctor
in a government department some 10-15 years after said doctor had "smubbed" him - "Joe"
when he was a cub reporter.

Please investigate this clue, as it may lead to something. I cannot sign this as like all people I am afraid - especially of people like Forrester who on the surface pretend to have compassion and say they help old age pensioners & the dispossessed but this is a cover up for a hate laden set back on life which comes out at other times. I feel the man is laughing at his audience behind their backs. He has discussed this case in a most peculiar manner. He said he was heavily in debt just two months ago. Now, after the assassination he said he is going to Europe (West Germany) in 3 weeks! He seems to have a lot of peculiar connections both here, USA and Europe (he says)

The photograph certainly shook me when I saw it! Please, please look into this in your best detective manner and do not be CHUMSY - as the man is quite sensitive!
