On April 12, 1968, R. OBESTER, Desk Clerk, Briarcliff Hotel, 1050 Ponce de Leon Avenue, NE, Atlanta, advised he thought he recognized a composit photograph of the assassin of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. as being identical with a guest registered as H. H. FLETCHER. FLETCHER called the hotel on April 7, 1968, and made reservations for a double and a single room. He appeared at the hotel on April 8, 1968, and made a $10 deposit on these rooms. On April 9, 1968, two women approached the desk at the hotel and identified themselves as the wife and a friend of FLETCHER. FLETCHER and his wife occupied Room 501 and the other girl occupied Room 528. It appeared FLETCHER did not have an automobile but was traveling in the second girl's automobile.

Atlanta Police Department officer JACK POPHAM, assigned to the beat around the hotel also advised he also recognizes a composit drawing of the assassin as an individual he saw around the hotel.

DAVID ELLER, Alternate Desk Clerk, also advised he places a person similar to the composit drawing in and around the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. FLETCHER gave an address of 615 Stirling Street, Greensboro, North Carolina. The second girl was identified by registration records as SARAH E. COLLINS, 601 Guilford Avenue, Greensboro. She was described as 5'3" tall, 23 or 24 years of age or younger, dishwater blonde, medium length, wears glasses, hippy-type dress.

By telephone call on April 13, 1968, the Atlanta Office advised as follows:

RE: WILLIAM N. HESTER, TROY, ALABAMA, FORMERLY REGISTERED REBEL MOTEL, MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

AT TROY, ALABAMA

WILBUR N. HESTER, 109 Forrest Avenue, Troy, Alabama, on April 11, 1968, informed SA CHILTON B. CREASON that he made a trip to Memphis, Tennessee, on April 4, 1968, spending that night at the Rebel Motel in Room 35. HESTER is a clerk at the United States Post Office, Troy, Alabama. Thursdays are his off-days and he frequently on such days drives trucks for various concerns in the Troy area to supplement his earnings. On April 4, 1968, he drove a tractor-trailer unit delivering a load of chemicals from the Chevron Chemical Company to Swift and Company, Memphis, Tennessee. He traveled alone.

About 7:00 or 7:30 p.m., April 4, 1968, he arrived at Memphis. Since it was too late to deliver his load, he stopped at a service station to inquire as to where he might find a motel for the night where he could keep his tractor-trailer unit nearby. He was referred to the Rebel Motel. He had never stayed at this motel before and had not been in Memphis for a number of years. While at the service station, he heard of the shooting of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING but had no information concerning the details of this event.

HESTER drove on to the Rebel Motel where he checked in at approximately 8:00 p.m., April 4, 1968. He was given Room 35. It was dark by this time and after checking in his room, he cleaned up and ate dinner at the motel restaurant. Following this, he endeavored to call his wife by long distance telephone to allay any apprehension she might have for his safety in view of the tense atmosphere at Memphis; however, he was unable to get a long distance operator and was unable to place the call. After eating dinner, HESTER returned immediately to his room, heard a 9:00 p.m. news special, and then went to sleep. At 5:30 a.m., April 5, 1968, he was called by the motel office. After dressing, he checked out and drove to Swift and Company for his delivery. Immediately thereafter, he left Memphis for his return trip to Troy, Alabama.

HESTER informed that he did not see a white Mustang parked in the vicinity of the Rebel Motel and had no contact with any other occupants of the motel except the motel employees at the office and the restaurant. He did not notice any of the neighbors in the adjoining motel rooms, although he did hear some talking in Room 34. He was unable to discern any of the words or whether this conversation was by men or women.

HESTER informed that he knows of no one by the name of ERIC S. GALT nor by the name of ANDY CAST.

~~Pahokee Fla~~
April 14, 1968

Dear Sir:

I live in Starkville, Miss but am visiting in Fla. - was at home when King was dispatched. Last Sunday (April 7) an idea suddenly came to me so very clearly about the slaying that I can't help but believe it was revealed as a "vision" altho I don't believe in such.

I firmly believe now that King paid someone to kill him so he would go down in history as a martyr. His program had lost some of its speed + thrust, he had been to Memphis the week before & had discovered even he couldn't keep violence out of a march. I believe he returned to Atlanta and hired a man to follow him to Memphis the next week.

Listen again to the speech he made on Wed. nite before his death. He all but tells the crowd he won't be there long. Alternatively remarked he had never heard him make a speech like that. Why did King spend the night in a $13.00 room and on the second floor, where there was a balcony? The week before he had been at the Ruermost at $29.00 a day. Everyone knows he was used to the best of everything.

Why did the man wait until five o'clock to go and get the gun? Was it because he knew King would be on that balcony between 6 & 6:15? King didn't have to go out for a "breath of air" as it was chilly that night I remember, because it was also very cool at home and we had the heat on a little.

The slayer is indirectly someone who lives in or around Atlanta, someone King met between the two visits to Memphis.

I won't sign my name as the people I've talked with think I'm a nut but a few agree with me. One said she thought King meant for the man only to wound him.

Sincerely,

A reader of the Commercial Appeal

RE: INFORMATION RE ERIC STARVO GALT

On 4/16/68 Mrs. SARAH T. VAN BUREN telephonically contacted the Memphis Office and furnished the following information:

She stated she heard that ERIC GALT is possibly involved or employed as a Merchant Seaman. She stated she was acquainted with an individual named Mr. JOHN THOMPSON who is an ex-Navy officer and presently has a shrimp fleet in Key West, Florida, called Thompson Enterprise. She stated the shrimpers are a very close group in Key West and suggested that if any information was needed by the FBI in this area, namely Key West, Florida, she felt JOHN THOMPSON would know everyone on the docks and would cooperate.

Re Bureau teletype to Baltimore, dated 4/16/68.

On April 18, 1968, CLARENCE L. BLACKBURN,⁰ #56984, Maryland House of Correction, Jessup, Maryland, advised that he believed the killer of Doctor MARTIN LUTHER KING to be, one, JAMES VAUGHN⁰ (phonetic), aka "Buddy". BLACKBURN worked with VAUGHN in late 1965 or early 1966 in the Washington, D.C., area out of Carpenter's Local #132. BLACKBURN said that VAUGHN is a native of Memphis, Tennessee and has a lengthy police record there. He stated that VAUGHN once told him that "If KING ever came to Memphis, he would never leave there alive".

BLACKBURN described VAUGHN as follows:

Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Age:	26-30
Height:	6'
Weight:	165
Hair:	Brown hair which is combed back
Characteristics:	Long Nose

He said that VAUGHN is a heavy drinker and could be regarded as a loner. He also stated that VAUGHN is a neat dresser. VAUGHN also has a silly smile which BLACKBURN stated was the reason he wrote the letter to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, feeling that VAUGHN was the one who killed Doctor KING. BLACKBURN indicated that VAUGHN had once told him that "He had shot at people in Memphis" before leaving there in 1965.

VAUGHN allegedly has a brother-in-law in Norfolk, Virginia, named THOMAS BRENT (phonetic), address unknown.

BRENT is described as follows:

Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Age:	Approximately 37
Height:	5'6"
Weight:	150-160
Hair:	Brown - worn in a flat top
Marital Status:	Married
Wife's Name:	ANN

BLACKBURN stated that VAUGHN is to be in Norfolk with his brother-in-law at present, although he could furnish no address for either party and requested that the interviewing Agent attempt to obtain BLACKBURN'S release from the Maryland House of Correction, so that he could go to Norfolk and locate VAUGHN.

A review of BLACKBURN'S medical record at the Maryland House of Correction, Jessup, Maryland, reflected that a prison psychiatrist considered him as "emotionally unstable with a tendency to exaggerate on things which he has very little knowledge of".

On April 19, 1968, Mrs. IDA WASHBURN, Carpenter's Local #132, Washington, D.C., was telephonically contacted and she advised that her records reflected that CLARENCE BLACKBURN was a member of Local #132 in late 1965 and early 1966 but that there is no record of any JAMES VAUGHN under all conceivable spellings, as having been a member of that Local at that time. Mrs. WASHBURN stated, however, that it is possible that if VAUGHN did work out of Local #132, he may have only obtained a work permit and not a full membership, in which case, he would not be carried on their records.

On April 22, 1968, Miss VIOLA WOOD, District Council of Carpenter's Locals, Washington, D.C., advised that her files reflected no JAMES VAUGHN under any conceivable spellings as having been a member of any Carpenter's Local in the Washington, D.C., area in either 1965 or 1966.
