Dear Mr. Hoover,

On April 3rd my son William set out for a hitch-hiking trip to Florida. His aim was to see Ft. Lauderdale. He is a college student at the Univ. of Conn. He visited his Aunt in Lake Alfred a couple of days, Ft. Lauderdale and Miami a couple of days, and then decided to see the Florida Keys. On April 10th he was part way down on the Keys at a place called Marathon. A man picked him up there in an old beat up foreign car. As they jogged along the man told him, William, that he had just got out of jail that morning in Miami and that he had had the car only two hours. He also said he did not have any plans and didn't know what he was going to do at Key West when he got there. As this did not seem very desirable company William asked to be let out at the first traffic light in Key West. That was the last William saw of the man.

The other day we were talking about all this and it occurred to me that this could have been Galt, the man that shot Martin Luther King. William said he could have been in his thirties but otherwise he can't remember what he looked like.

At this late date this may not be any help to you but it was a bit coincidental time wise and thought you should know about it.

Sincerely yours,

Ruth E. Jones

Re: Bureau airtel to New Haven, 5/13/68.

WILLIAM N. JONES, home address 557 Israel Hill Road, Shelton, Conn., who is a Freshman, residing in Room 416 Eaton House, University of Connecticut, Storrs, Conn., was contacted May 17, 1968, at which time JONES stated he went to Florida by hitch-hiking during spring vacation from the University of Connecticut.

After arrival in Florida, he spent some time in early April, 1968, in Lake Alfred, visiting an aunt and thereafter visited Fort Lauderdale and Miami. He decided to visit the Florida Keys and on April 10, 1968, while he was hitch-hiking there, he was picked up in Marathon, Florida, by a white male driving an "old, beat up" foreign automobile, make unknown. Its color was greenish and fading. JONES advised during the ride the driver who did not reveal his identity, informed JONES he had been released from jail that day. This individual did not name the jail but JONES felt it was located in Miami, Florida. JONES stated that the man did not reveal why or for what period he was incarcerated. This individual stated that he was driving to Key West, Florida, seeking work.

JONES stated he did not care to remain in the company of this individual and left the car at the first traffic light in Key West. He advised he had no definite reason to believe the driver was JAMES EARL RAY and he noted it was Mrs. JONES' idea to contact the FBI.

WILLIAM JONES advised he has seen photographs of RAY or ERIC GALT as he has read about him and he did not believe there was anything about the man who gave him a ride that would make him think it was RAY.

JONES described the driver as being in his 30s, 5'10", 185 pounds, with medium to heavy build. He had brown, slightly grey hair and his complexion was light to medium. No particular accent was noted and JONES stated the man "looked broke and bummy". He wore a white T shirt, dark brown pants and had no luggage.

In view of the foregoing, no further investigation is being conducted.

Dear Sir,

I thought you would have found the assassin of Martin Luther King before now so I haven't presented this possible clue.

My brother-in-law ^{John Kinsella} was an FBI agent in Buffalo, N.Y. a couple of years ago until he retired and transferred to the New York State Police as a crime analyst. He died of cancer recently and a dozen FBI agents came to his funeral. He told me that no matter how outlandish ^{44-1987-Sub E-241} was, the FBI would look into it.

Well, for what it is worth, here it is. I was driving to work on Friday, the morning after King was shot. I stopped at a red light on Irving St., at Sherman Street, N.W. A beetle Volkswagen painted (repainted) a peculiar yellowish green pulled up beside me on the one-way street about 15 feet away from me.

I saw that his headlights were on in broad daylight, ^(at the time no other travelers were showing this deference to King) so I supposed he had been driving all night and had neglected to turn off his lights. I started to lean over and wind my window down and call to him about his lights, but to my surprise he wound his window down first and waited for me to speak. He appeared nervous and watching for challengers.

I told him that I didn't know whether he knew it or not but his lights were on. He said, "I know it!" rather gruffly and then added, "Thank you!" He resembled "Ray" although his face appeared fuller. He had a pasty complexion with a fresh red scar in the middle of his left cheek as though a boil had been lanced.

Now here is the way I look at it. He was tipped off in prison in Missouri that on account of his successful assassination of President Kennedy, another job was being offered, to assassinate King. (Where else would a small time hoodlum get all that money except by a big job like Kennedy's assassination) His escape from prison was arranged by this powerful group of Catholic and Colored haters.

He bought a deer rifle but was told by a brother (non-son brother) that it was not powerful enough and exchanged it for a 30.06 with telescopic sights, and went to the neighboring rooming house in Memphis to await King. (Incidentally, don't rule out the possibility that King was a part of the plot, because he expected to be killed when he returned to Memphis and by being a martyr he could best further his ends and those of his colleagues.

This fellow, Ray or Galt, who was discharged from the Army for being inept, is still inept and it will get him in the end, but for the present he is carrying out instructions of his fellow conspirators. Like the game "hare and hounds" he dropped clues like his rifle and drove off in a white Mustang Convertible that stuck out like a sore thumb.

When he reached a rendezvous in Memphis, he switched cars with a conspirator who drove the Mustang to Atlanta to throw the hounds off his (Ray's) trail. Ray took the yellowish green beetle Volkswagen (the model doesn't change and there are millions of them on the road) and drove north.

The time was just right for him encountering me at 7:30 a.m. the next day (Friday) in Washington. He was keeping off the main highways where the police might catch him.

For some unknown reason he had made a trip to Montreal a short time ago. Now the reason is known - to establish his identity and have a place to hole up in a foreign country where the FBI would not be looking for him. He could either remain in hiding or take off from there for Europe. He probably has a hundred thousand dollars with him.

I believe you could find him in the red light district of Montreal, or possibly Paris. If you go along with the Kennedy assassination, he has established a M.O. I believe you could find out how his escape was arranged from Missouri State Penitentiary, and how the plot was hatched in Atlanta. Sincerely yours
Paul J. Hanson
