~~Assassin~~ Suspect's Baffling Description

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — (AP) — A ranking Memphis police officer acknowledges there are "a whole lot of discrepancies" in official descriptions of the man sought as the sniper slayer of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Asst. Chief Bill Price referred to statements that James Earl Ray, 40, an escaped Missouri convict, and Eric Starvo Galt, first sought for King's April 4 assassination in Memphis, are the same person.

"You don't know what to look for," Price said yesterday as officers here and elsewhere continued their investigation of the slaying. The nationwide manhunt continues.

The FBI issued a conspiracy warrant Wednesday for Galt, then updated their case Friday by saying a fingerprint comparison showed Galt was really Ray.

The naming of Ray in the case caused confusion, primarily because earlier official statements indicate that Galt and Ray were in different places at the same time.

When Galt was charged as a conspirator in King's death by rifle bullet, the FBI said the man had taken dancing lessons in New Orleans in 1964-65. The FBI said later he earlier description should have said Galt reportedly took dancing lessons rather than stating it flatly.

During that time, Ray was in the Missouri State Prison at Jefferson City, serving a 20-year sentence for a 1959 supermarket robbery.

The age of the man also was in conflict.

Witnesses who saw a man in a Memphis rooming house from where the fatal bullet was fired estimated his age as in the late 20s. The FBI, in issuing its warrant for Galt, said he had given his birthdate July 20, 1931. That would make him 36. The FBI said Friday Ray is 40.

The personalities of the two men are sometimes at odds. A prison pal described Ray as virtually a nondrinker. The FBI describes Galt as a fancier of beer and vodka.

There were other differences:

Galt: neat appearance.
Ray: careless appearance.

Galt: Southern accent.
Ray: born in Alton, Ill. No Southern accent.

Memorandum

TO : SAC (44-1854)

FROM : SAWILLIAM P. KELLY

SUBJECT: JAMES EARL RAY, aka;
Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. - VICTIM

DATE: 4/23/68

This is to reflect that at 1:10PM, former PCI WINFIELD SCOTT GUIHER, room 15, Turf Motel, 7000 NW 27th Ave., Miami, Fla, tel: 691-9484, telephonically contacted the writer and advised that he was then with JAMES E. GALT, resident of apt 10 at the Turf Motel. He stated GALT is reportedly sought for questioning by the FBI. GUIHER then put GALT on the telephone.

JAMES E. GALT, who identified himself as a white, male, born 7/20/31, advised the writer that he had just been informed by his mother, Mrs. IDA DAECH, 6904 Hampton Ave., St. Louis, Mo, that she had been interviewed there by FBI agents about GALT and his location. The mother reported that she became so upset by the interview that she sustained a heart attack.

JAMES E. GALT further related that various of his friends in the Miami area had reported to him that the FBI in Miami was looking for him. GALT stated he is available for interview at the above address, where he would remain until about 2:30PM, 4/23/68, after which he was going to see an attorney, identified as EDWARD SCHROLL, Biscayne Bldg, Miami, with whom he had a 3:30PM appointment. Thereafter, he would return to the Turf Motel until about 8PM.

GALT stated he was injured in the back while working for a construction firm about one year ago. He stated that about the time Dr. KING was murdered, GALT was "flat on his back" with a recurrence of his injury.

It was determined by the writer that SA JOHN J. MC BREEN has a lead to locate and interview GALT. SA MC BREEN was contacted by radio at 1:14PM, and advised as to the location of GALT.

Re: Laundry Marking Machines and Code 20R-3

Enclosed for transmission to the FBI Laboratory are eight Thermo Seal Marking Machine Tapes, yellow in color, bearing code 20R-3.

ROBERT BERMAN, proprietor, Famous Cleaners, 3454 N. W. 7th Avenue, Miami, Florida, advised that his laundry does laundry and dry cleaning for several small cleaning establishments in the Miami, Florida area. He advised that he uses code 20R-3 about once every three weeks for the Royal Palm Cleaners, 4016 Royal Palm Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida. BERMAN believes that a yellow tape probably would have been used at least two or three times since April, 1967.

BERMAN advised that he is checking his records in efforts to determine the exact dates since April, 1967, that code 20R-3 has appeared on yellow tapes for the Royal Palm Cleaners. Thus far, BERMAN has determined this code was used on yellow tape for the Royal Palm Cleaners on September 28, 1967, and October 24, 1967.

He further advised that approximately three or four months ago the Thermo-Seal tapes changed somewhat and he is now using the new variety. He also stated that he replaces the blades in the machine that cuts the tapes about every three months.

BERMAN made available eight yellow tapes, produced by his machine, bearing code 20R-3, which are being furnished the FBI Laboratory for comparison purposes.

AT PRISON THEY'RE DOUBTFUL Is Suspect Galt Really Ray?

The New York Times News Service

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. —

Prison officials and inmates at the state penitentiary here are still stunned that James Earl Ray, an escapee, has been accused of conspiring in the slaying of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Last Wednesday the Federal Bureau of Investigation charged that Eric Starvo Galt, described as a 36-year-old loner, a neat dresser and avid dancer, had conspired in the civil-rights leader's murder.

Newspapers with pictures of Galt circulated behind the gray walls of the old penitentiary on the bank of the Missouri River, but no indication of recognition passed along the prison grapevine.

On Friday, the FBI said Galt was James Earl Ray, a 40-year-old habitual criminal who escaped from the penitentiary here April 23, 1967, after having served seven years of a 20-year sentence for armed robbery.

Warden Harold R. Swenson said in an interview Sunday night that the FBI had not notified officials here before the announcement. Nor, he added, has any representative of the agency come to Jefferson City to look at Ray's record or interview prisoners who knew him.

"I was floored," the warden said. "This guy's penny-ante. It doesn't shape up, does it?"

Noting that the pictures of Galt had meant nothing to the staff and that there had been no reaction from the inmates, the warden added:

"If there's anyone who'd talk, it's the prisoners. Once a guy's gone they'll talk."

An aide entered the warden's office and interrupted.

"We've got 2,000 prisoners in here," he said, "and none of them recognized him."

Ray was not a trouble maker in prison, the warden said. Aside from two escape attempts, one in 1961 and one in 1966, his file showed only two minor disciplinary reports, one for trying to smuggle contraband, cigarettes and other items, to a friend in the hospital, and one for refusing to work. A highly unusual record, Swenson explained.

Although it is against his policy, Swenson agreed because of national interest in the case, to allow an interview with the prisoner who had been closest to Ray. A condition of the interview was that the inmate would not be identified.

The prisoner, the work shirt of his faded green uniform open over a stained white T-shirt, entered the warden's office hesitantly. The other prisoners were wondering, he explained nervously, why he was being questioned.

Shown a picture of Galt and asked if that was his friend, Ray, he shook his head vigorously.

"No, sir, not this," he insisted. "I guess I knew him about as well as anybody. He was here when I came here, in 1960. I knew him from about 1962, well, I associated with him right up to 1966 when he tried to escape."

He struggled for words as he tried to describe Ray's personality.

"I just don't know how to explain it," he said. "He was just the type of guy who took a long time, well, if you didn't know anybody he knew, well . . ."

"The picture with the bow tie on (the FBI photo of Galt) nobody thinks it's him. They think it's a different guy altogether. We think it's two different people altogether."

Prison Buddy Reveals Ray's 'Bounty' Plans

DALTON, Ga. — (UPI) — A prison buddy of James Earl Ray said Tuesday that when Ray heard there was a "million-dollar bounty" on Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., he smiled and said, "I'll collect it."

Ray, a 40-year-old fugitive from the Missouri State Prison, is accused by the Federal Bureau of Investigation of assassinating King in Memphis on April 4.

In the Dalton jail, Raymond Curtis, 40, awaiting appeal on a murder sentence, said he had known Ray in the Kansas City Jail, in federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., and in the state prison at Jefferson City, Mo.

Curtis, described Ray as likable, addicted to "dope," a loner and a man concerned only with money.

On the day President Kennedy was assassinated — Nov. 23, 1963 — Curtis said he, Ray and about 150 other prisoners were in an exercise yard when they heard the news.

Curtis said Ray remarked, "Well, somebody made a pretty penny on that."

About a week later, Curtis said, he and Ray were in the yard when "a new man just in off the street" told them "the businessmen's association has a million dollar bounty out for Martin Luther King."

RAY SMILED Curtis recalled, and said "if there's a million dollars out for King, I believe if I ever get out I'll collect it."

Curtis said he never figured out what the "new man" meant by the "businessmen's association." He said he couldn't remember who the man was.

"I didn't think much about it at the time. In prison, you hear all sorts of hellacious ideas," said Curtis, a tall rawboned man.

Authorities in Jefferson City confirmed that Curtis and Ray were in prison at the same time. Authorities in Dalton said the FBI had interviewed Curtis Sunday and again Monday night. It refused comment on the matter.

Curtis said Ray told him that he always carried a gun. "He was always interested in money," Curtis said, but never mentioned racial matters.

"He never made no statements of any kind in a group," Curtis said. "He was a loner."

RAY COULDN'T "make a long conversation unless he was planning something," said Curtis. "If he was planning something, you could bet they'd be thorough plans." Ray, Curtis said, masterminded things "that would be small . . . outside, but were pretty big jobs in prison" — such as the theft of eggs and drugs and cigarets.

Curtis said Ray told him that if he ever wanted to kill someone, he would buy a gun under a false name, and have everything ready for an escape. "He used to talk a lot about escaping to New Zealand, Brazil and Argentina," Curtis said.

"I wouldn't consider him dangerous," Curtis said. "He didn't look for trouble."

"Of course, I'm not saying he wouldn't shoot you if you ran up on him now."

Curtis said he first met Ray in 1955 — when he was serving time for bank robbery, and Ray for forging postal money orders — in the Kansas City Jail. He said they were transferred to Leavenworth, where Ray "played a lot of miniature golf."

They met again when Curtis was sent to Jefferson City on a 10-year armed robbery conviction.

Asked about Ray's habits, Curtis said that "he talked about beer — he liked beer, I knew that." Curtis said he never heard Ray talk about dancing, but that Ray "did a lot of weightlifting" at Jefferson City.

Re: Laundry Marking Machine and Code 20R-3.

ROBERT BERMAN, proprietor, Famous Cleaners, 3454 N. W. 7th Avenue, Miami, completed a review of his records dating back to April, 1967, and determined that only two yellow tapes bearing code 20R-3 were used for the Royal Palm Cleaners, 4016 Royal Palm Avenue, Miami Beach, since April, 1967. These tapes were used on 9/28/67 and 10/24/67.

ROBERT ROTH, proprietor, Royal Palm Cleaners, reviewed his records for 4/28/67 and 10/24/67 and determined that code 20R-3 was used on three undershirts and six handkerchiefs in the name of Mr. LAURENT on 9/28/67. His records further indicated that on 10/24/67 code 20R-3 was used on two shirts in the name of Mr. COHEN. At no time was code 20R-3 on a yellow tape used on any bedsheets or pillow cases.
