Re: Suspect JOSEPH THOMAS BUCHANAN

On April 18, 1968, PAUL ROBESON, 3412 West Bonner Drive, Esterbrook, Virginia, advised that approximately two to three weeks ago he was making purchases in the sporting goods department of the King's Department Store, Virginia Beach Boulevard, Norfolk, Virginia, at which time he observed two highly nervous men purchasing a 30-06 rifle. He again observed them leaving the store with the rifle, and saw them drive off in a white Mustang.

Mr. ROBESON said that he thought no more of it until seeing the photographs of ERIC STARVO GALT on television, at which time he observed a strong similarity between GALT and one of the men buying the rifle.

On April 18, 1968, Mrs. TAWANA SMITH, Assistant Manager, Sporting Goods Department, King's Department Store, Virginia Beach Boulevard, Norfolk, Virginia, furnished their log of firearms sales from December 17, 1967 thru April 18, 1968. A review of the log revealed that there had been only one sale of a 30-06 rifle. It occurred on March 21, 1968, to one J.T. BUCHANAN, 3625 East Sewells Point Road, Norfolk, Virginia.

The rifle was a 30-06 caliber Kodiak bolt action rifle with serial number 11156.

Mrs. SMITH advised that her manager, JIM PEARSON, actually made the sale according to the log.

Photographs of ERIC STARVO GALT were shown to the following clerks at the aforementioned King's Department Store with negative results:

TAWANA SMITH

NINA COLLIER

JEANNETTE GREEN

PEGGY HEATH

A review of the aforementioned firearms sale log, failed to reveal any name similar to that of GALT under his true name or aliases.

On April 18, 1968, JAMES W. PEARSON, 274 Sedgefield Avenue, Virginia Beach, Virginia, was interviewed, and he advised that he did not recall the sale of the aforementioned rifle. He was shown photographs of GALT with negative results. He advised that upon reviewing the matter more thoroughly, he recalled that he had one man in mind regarding the above sale:

A white male, approximately 24 years old, 5'6" tall, 150 pounds, with dark brown hair.

He could not recall whether it was the same man as was recorded as being J.T. BUCHANAN, the buyer of the aforementioned rifle.

On April 18, 1968, a neighborhood investigation was conducted in the area of 3625 Sewells Point Road, Norfolk, Virginia. It was determined that one TOMMY BUCHANAN, age approximately 21, resided at the above address with his parents. He was described as:

SEX:	Male
RACE:	White
HEIGHT:	Approximately 6'2"
WEIGHT:	160
HAIR:	Brown
EMPLOYED:	Main Naval Base, Norfolk, Virginia

The neighbors advised that he has resided in the area continuously for some length of time and several neighbors observed him personally during the pertinent dates involved in this matter. It was the neighbors' belief that he had served some time in the United States Army.

On April 18, 1968, Mrs. MAUDE BUCHANAN, 3625 Sewells Point Road, Norfolk, Virginia, advised that she is the mother of one JOSEPH THOMAS BUCHANAN,

She advised that he has been in the Norfolk area
at all times during the months of March and April.
She advised that he did purchase a new rifle at the King's Department Store recently.

She advised that he is employed at the Main Naval Base, Norfolk. Mrs. BUCHANAN furnished a photograph of her son, and it was observed that he was not identifiable with the subject.

"Objectivist Clubs"

On April 16, 1968, HAROLD WILSON telephonically advised the Norfolk Office of the FBI that he was a member of the faculty at the Old Dominion College Norfolk, Virginia. WILSON stated that he had been discussing the death of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. in one of his classes and had arrived at a theory that he thought might be of some assistance to the FBI.

WILSON stated that the aliases used by the assassin, i.e. WILLARD and GALT, are significant. He explained that the WILLARD Hotel was prominent in Lincoln's assassination, and the name GALT was the name used by the authoress AYN RAND in her novel
"Atlas Shrugged".

WILSON stated that at present there is a disciple of AYN RAND named BRANNIGAN (phonetic) who is organizing "objectivist clubs" in the United States, and that the killer of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. could possibly be associated with one of these clubs.

WILSON stated that objectivism is the philosophy of AYN RAND, and followers of it are disenchanted with the present society, and are

Re: Suspect; Unknown Subject
City Repair Crew Worker,
Norfolk, Virginia

On April 18, 1968, ARTHUR STEWART, 1109 Centerville Turnpike, Virginia Beach, Virginia advised that one ALFRED BABCOCK, 2909 Berkley Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia, had informed him that he had observed a man who strongly resembled ERIC STARVO GALT, including the habit of pulling his ear, working on a street repair crew in front of Zed's Store on Liberty Street in Berkley, Norfolk, Virginia.

STEWART stated that Mr. BABCOCK did not call the FBI personally, as he did not think that the FBI would be interested in what he thought would be recorded as a crank call.

On April 18, 1968, the City repair crew, working on Liberty Street, Berkley area, Norfolk, Virginia, was observed by SAs JOHN P. BUNSZEL and JOSEPH E. SMITH as a result of receiving the above information.

It was determined from JAMES SOREY, Foreman, that he had had a crew at that location for the entire day, and that all of his workers are employees of the Department of Public Works, City of Norfolk, Virginia. SOREY advised that only two of the crew were white males, and that neither of these individuals even remotely resembled ERIC STARVO GALT. SOREY confirmed that both of the aforementioned white male employees had worked on his crew for several months, and had not missed any days of work.

Re: Suspect ROBERT FRANKLIN WILLIAMS

Mrs. LLOYD BLACK, 839 Marvin Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia, advised on April 18, 1968 that she is the sister-in-law of the captioned suspect.

She advised that newspaper pictures and the description listed for ERIC STARVO GALT are identical to her brother-in-law who escaped approximately one year ago from confinement at Ashville, North Carolina. She noted that WILLIAMS had repeatedly stated that he would kill Dr. KING. She furnished the suspect's wife's name as CAROLYN RUTH WILLIAMS, 1107 Ray Avenue, Sanford, North Carolina. WILLIAMS' wife supposedly received information that he called another sister, (unknown) from Atlanta, Georgia, and requested money approximately one week prior to April 18, 1968.

NESKIS was hesitant about cashing this check, so WHIRTH gave him the title to a 1955 Buick automobile as security.

WHIRTH and LEBER told NESKIS that they were working in the Norfolk area, as "roofers", and were living at 244 Freemason Street, Norfolk.

On April 20, 1968, NESKIS was looking at a newspaper, and saw the photograph of JAMES EARL RAY, and felt that WHIRTH somewhat resembled RAY.

On April 22, 1968, NESKIS was shown several photographs of JAMES EARL RAY, and WALTER TERRY RIFE. After viewing these photographs, NESKIS advised that neither WHIRTH nor LEBER resembled RAY or RIFE.

On the same date, Mr. and Mrs. FREDERICK C. HAND, 244 Freemason Street, Norfolk, advised that there had been two young men living at their rooming house at that address, until about two days ago when they were evicted. The following investigation was conducted at Forth Eustis, Virginia by SA H. CURTISS BURRELL on May 6, 1968:

Private TIMOTHY JOHN TAYLOR, was contacted at Fort Eustis, Virginia. He advised that he is in Company E of the Second School Battalion, Transportation School Brigade. He sat in the most rear seat in the tourist section, next to a white female with blond hair. He was shown a photograph of JAMES EARL RAY with negative results. He advised that he could recall no one on said flight who even resembled RAY. He noted, however, that due to his close attention to the white female with whom he was sitting, that he did not really pay too much attention to any of the other passengers. He stated that due to his seat in the most rear section of the airplane also, that his observation of all passengers in the tourist section would have been quite limited.
