Reference is made to Butel to all continental offices re suspect ERIC STARVO GALT.

At 10:10 a.m., Supervisor RICHARD LONG, Division VI at the Bureau called and wanted to know if New York had received the referenced teletype on suspect GALT. Mr. LONG advised that the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D.C., had advised the Bureau that an ERNEST S. GALT, 13 Millwood Road, Rockville Centre, New York, possessed a license for a Mobile Citizen's Band Radio. Mr. LONG advised that normally these radios are installed in automobiles and can be used to pick up police broadcasts. (Ref)

Mr. LONG advised that the automobile seen in Memphis, Tennessee which may be the car that the assassin escaped in, is described as a white Mustang, year not known. Further, some of the individuals who observed the white Mustang have also advised that this automobile had a large antenna attached to the rear of the car which might indicate that this automobile had one of these Mobile Band Radios.

LONG requested that we identify this ERNEST S. GALT and establish his whereabouts during 3/28, 3/29, 3/30 and 4/4/68.

LONG also advised that suspect ERIC STARVO GALT had bought a Mustang in Alabama. No further information as to when automobile was purchased, color of car or year.
