Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

April 22, 1968

Source, on this occasion, was shown copies of photos of JAMES EARL RAY (44-1368 - MURKIN) and re-alerted concerning this matter. He was unable to furnish any pertinent information in this regard at this time.

Source advised, from contacts with friends, neighbors, and association with members of the Negro community throughout the Greater Philadelphia area, he considers the present period following the assassination of Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., to be a period of "watch and wait." He stated, however, his impression is that "Philadelphia will get theirs" (riot outbreak), perhaps about June, 1968, probably largely due to resentment toward Police Commissioner RIZZO and the Philadelphia Police Department.

Source said he had no facts on which he based this opinion; that it is his over-all impression from sounding community attitude. He did add that he heard some weapons accumulated among the Negro community have been produced by returning discharged GI's or are being produced through connections with presently enlisted GI's.

Hunt For King Assassin Becomes Bungling Mess

ATLANTA, Ga. -- The investigation of the Dr. Martin Luther King assassination has been almost entirely an FBI affair, a fact that could prove somewhat embarrassing to the bureau if its No. 1 suspect, James Earl Ray, isn't apprehended -- alive.

The trail of Ray, who went by the name of Eric Starvo Galt; ended in Atlanta, where his white Mustang was found abandoned April 11, seven days after Dr. King was killed by a sniper in Memphis, Tenn.

SEEN LEAVING CAR

There has been no trace of him since early on the morning of April 5 -- 12 to 14 hours after the shooting -- when a man believed to be him was seen leaving the car in an Atlanta public housing project.

The FBI has labeled Ray "armed and extremely dangerous," and there is growing concern here that if the elusive ex-convict ever is located he will be shot by his captors.

This could mean the motive for the slaying would never be known and that the country would be wracked with rumors and doubts about the killing, much as it has been about the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, whose accused slayer, Lee Harvey Oswald, was fatally shot by Jack Ruby.

EDITORIAL APPEAL

The Atlanta Journal, in its lead editorial Saturday declared: "We regard it as imperative that James Earl Ray . . . be taken into custody alive and closely protected thereafter. If this is the killer, every possible step must be taken to see that he is not silenced before he talks."

The Journal said that "the country can be done great harm if the truth is not established" and added that it questioned the wisdom of labeling Ray "armed and extremely dangerous."

In four cities where the investigation has been concentrated -- Memphis, Birmingham, Ala., Atlanta and Los Angeles -- local police have been practically shunted aside by the FBI.

In Birmingham, a detective lieutenant who tried to talk to the clerk who sold Ray a rifle was called off the case after the clerk balked and the FBI complained to a police official that it did not want the witness questioned.

The FBI investigation has been handled at the highest levels, with its only two press releases on the case coming out of Washington and quoting Attorney General Ramsey Clark and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

The releases have given no indication why more widespread local police efforts have not been encouraged in a case that primarily concerns a State offense -- murder.

DATE: 5/13/68

FROM : SA KENNETH K. SMYTHE

SUBJECT: MURKIN

Re Bureau teletype to all SAC's, 4/29/68; memo of SA JAMES L. O'CONNOR, dated 4/30/68.

Re tel and memo stated that all offices having law-enforcement agencies in their territories which maintain unidentified latent fingerprints in connection with matters under their jurisdiction should immediately contact these agencies and request that the fingerprints of JAMES EARL RAY on IO 4182 be compared with latent prints obtained since RAY's escape from the Missouri State Penitentiary on 4/23/67.

It has been determined from PSP Headquarters in Harrisburg that each BCI Trooper at each Troop Headquarters maintains his own unidentified latent fingerprint file, which is separate and distinct from those at Harrisburg.

In other words, there is no central repository for latent prints at the PSP Headquarters.

Each of the 16 Troops must be contacted individually in order to check all PSP latents.

LEAD

Each SRA should contact each Troop Headquarters in his area and request the BCI Trooper to compare RAY's prints on IO 4182 against the latents in his individual file.

On 5/13/68, SA KENNETH K. SMYTHE telephonically requested the writer to immediately attempt to identify a Modern Transfer Company truck #201135STC, bearing Maryland license 6906GD, which reportedly was observed in the vicinity of a Philadelphia restaurant about 9:30 a.m., 5/13/68, by a Negro minister who believed one of the two individuals in this truck bore a resemblance to JAMES EARL RAY.

On 5/13/68, CARL REITZ, terminal manager, Modern Transfer Company, 1300 Hanover Avenue, Allentown, Pa., advised as follows:

Modern Transfer truck #201135, generally designated as truck #1135, was assigned on 5/13/68 to CLARENCE BEAR, JR., 314 Limestone Street, Allentown. REITZ stated that ~~the BEAR~~ BEAR has been a continuous employee of Modern Transfer Company since 9/30/55. BEAR reportedly left Allentown in instant truck about 6:30 a.m., 5/13/68, and drove directly to Modern Transfer Company terminal, 300 East Hunting Park Avenue, Philadelphia, where he picked up his helper RUSSELL HEY, 3234 A Street, Philadelphia, at 8:30 a.m., 5/13/68. According to REITZ, HEY has been employed continuously with Modern Transfer Company, Philadelphia Terminal, as a helper since 9/23/53.

REITZ telephonically contacted BOB TORZONE, clerk, Modern Transfer Company, Philadelphia Terminal, who reportedly stated he observed BEAR and HEY at the terminal this morning but could not positively attest that they were on instant truck. TORZONE allegedly told REITZ that instant truck as of 10:30 a.m., 5/13/68, would be in the vicinity of Butler and Sepviva Streets, Philadelphia, making deliveries to Western Carloading Company and/or Universal Carloading Company.

REITZ stated that JOHN RILEY is the Modern Transfer Company Philadelphia Terminal Manager with phone #GA 6-7750.
