Reference Bureau airtel to Philadelphia dated 1/21/92.

On 2/15/92, Special Agents (SAs) VINCENT C. MC GRAW AND NORMAN D. JAMES contacted RICKY WAYNE HILTON at the PENNSYLVANIA STATE CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTE, DALLAS, PENNSYLVANIA. Initially HILTON could not recall why he wanted to speak to the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI); however, following a review of a letter dated 12/1/91, that HILTON had sent to FBIHQ, he confirmed the information in the letter and that he had previously provided the information to other law enforcement and correction officials. HILTON reiterated that he will continue to volunteer his services as an informant. HILTON was asked if he had been assaulted or mistreated in prison and he replied in the negative.

No additional investigation is warranted and the above is being provided for informational purposes.

To: SAC (137-9014) (SUB Q)

Captioned individual was contacted by SAs Ernest C. Neil, II and Barry D. Gwinn on 1/13/82. Receipt of his letter dated 6/8/81, to Director William Webster was acknowledged.

Hilton advised he had no information to furnish at this time which he felt could be of value to the FBI. He said, however, he felt the crimes he had committed in the past were a direct result of his drug usage and he wanted to be allowed to help law enforcement in the fight against drugs and any other crime.

He noted he was convicted on three counts of armed robbery in Dauphin County, PA in 1976. He said he was involved in the use of drugs which was the ultimate cause of his committing the crime.

He said he was not asking for any help or other consideration and only hoped that he could be of some help to the FBI or some other law enforcement agency when he is in a position to do so.

He noted he was currently eligible for the pre-release program. He said all the necessary arrangements had been made and the paper work submitted for his release to the Community Service Center in Harrisburg, PA. He described the Center as a halfway house for convicts and noted it was operated by the Pennsylvania Bureau of Corrections. He said he expected to be located at the Center in about two or three months and felt he could be available to the FBI at that time.

22. Offense History

See attached rap sheets.

ADJUSTMENT SINCE RECEPTION: Mr. Hilton has been in EW Receiving since his arrival here. He has been no problem in this area but has not had free mobility due to the Escape detainer and his lengthy sentence. He is seen as a risk for an institution like SCI-Rockview.

23. Current Offense

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT: Mr. Hilton robbed Lester Shirk at knife point of $229.00. He committed a similar robbery of Chester O. Grissinger and Joseph McLain. All were threatendd at knife point in separate incidents.

ACCOMPLICES AND DISPOSITION: None.

OFFENDER ACCOUNT: "I was using drugs (heroin) and have no knowledge of the crimes."
Escape Detainer: "I had made parole in Tennessee. I went out on a three day furlough in Tennessee. Other inmates wanted em to being drugs in. After being with my family I changed my mind. The people I was to pick up the drugs from started pressuring me. So I took off."

24. Psychological Report

See attached report.

25. Counselor Evaluation

STRENGTHS AND WEAKNESSES: Mr. Hilton is confused by the escape detainer. He states it will be dropped according to his attorney. Tennessee on the other hand has lodged a detainer against him to be activated upon completion of this sentence. Overall, Rich has had a poor history within institutions. Indications from Tennessee are that he was less than a model prisoner. Therefore, recommendation for transfer to a more secure institution appears warranted.

While incarcerated, Mr. Hilton should become involved in Narcotics Anonymous and other drug programming. This will help to alleviate his involvement in the drug subculture. It is also seen as advantageous for him to expand his present educational and vocational bases. In addition he should become involved in group therapy to explore his prior behavior patterns.

COMMUNITY SENSITIVITY: Rich is originally from Tennessee. He has a detainer for escape from Tennessee. Indications are that release would include eventual transfer to Tennessee parole plan.

Correctional Counselor II

PSYCHOLOGICAL REPORT

Mr. Hilton was interviewed and was administered a series of tests to assist in the initial classification process. He was cooperative, readily completing all tasks and answering all questions. He did not seem very sincere in his presentation; the information he provided is, therefore, suspect. His affect was appropriate; his memory was good for both recent and remote recall. He was well oriented in all spheres; there were no indications of hallucinations, delusions, or loosening of associations.

Mr. Hilton relates that his father's death hit him hard; since that time (age sixteen) he has been getting into trouble. After a series of burglaries he was sent to reform school. He later committed an armed robbery that resulted in his being sentenced to serve ten years in a state prison in Tennessee. He relates that he robbed a cab driver but does not remember any of the details due to excessive drinking. His current account differs drastically from an earlier account in the records available from Tennessee. He insists that he did very well in prison (achieving trustee status) except that he became very involved in the use of drugs. He asserts that he had been granted parole, but was to have a temporary furlough prior to his release on parole. He was supposed to bring drugs back into the institution following his furlough, but he changed his mind. The people who were to supply him with the drugs threatened him with a gun, so he avoided them and did not return to prison. Traveling in Pennsylvania he apparently robbed three people at knife point. He denies any knowledge of these robberies, stating that he was too involved with drugs at the time to know what he was doing. While he states that he wants to do whatever was necessary to change and to stay out of trouble, he carefully avoids an honest self-appraisal. He externalizes the responsibility for his actions, placing the blame on alcohol and drugs.

Mr. Hilton is currently pleasant, cooperative and expressing his motivations to achieve a good institutional adjustment. However, his motivation and his ability are suspect. It is suggested that he be transferred to a more secure institution and that he be placed on program status II to monitor his initial adjustment in population. He has expressed interest in being transferred back to Tennessee to complete this sentence; if that could be arranged it would be advisable. The staff there would be more familiar with him and better able to deal with him. In addition it would avoid the disruption in any programming that a later transfer (upon completion of this sentence) might entail. The prognosis appears guarded for any real change, but he could participate in school programs to earn his G.E.D. in Alcoholic Anonymous and/or a drug therapy program. It is anticipated that he would be unresponsive to individual or group counseling, but it may be worthwhile to allow him to participate for several sessions to more fully evaluate whether or not he is amenable to such interventions.

22. Offense History

See attached rap sheets.

ADJUSTMENT SINCE RECEPTION: Mr. Hilton has been in EW Receiving since his arrival here. He has been no problem in this area but has not had free mobility due to the escape detainer and his lengthy sentence. He is seen as a risk for an institution like SCI-Rockview.

23. Current Offense

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT: Mr. Hilton robbed Lester Shirk at knife point of $223.00. He committed a similar robbery of Chester O. Grissinger and Joseph McLain. All were threatened at knife point in separate incidents.

ACCOMPLICES AND DISPOSITION: None.

OFFENDER ACCOUNT: "I was using drugs (heroin) and have no knowledge of the crimes." Escape Detainer: "I had made parole in Tennessee. I went out on a three day furlough in Tennessee. Other inmates wanted em to being drugs in. After being with my family I changed my mind. The people I was to pick up the drugs from started pressuring me. So I took off."

24. Psychological Report

See attached report.

25. Counselor Evaluation

STRENGTHS AND WEAKNESSES: Mr. Hilton is confused by the escape detainer. He states it will be dropped according to his attorney. Tennessee on the other hand has lodged a detainer against him to be activated upon completion of this sentence. Overall, Rich has had a poor history within institutions. Indications from Tennessee are that he was less than a model prisoner. Therefore, recommendation for transfer to a more secure institution appears warranted.

While incarcerated, Mr. Hilton should become involved in Narcotics Anonymous and other drug programming. This will help to alleviate his involvement in the drug subculture. It is also seen as advantageous for him to expand his present educational and vocational bases. In addition he should become involved in group therapy to explore his prior behavior patterns.

COMMUNITY SENSITIVITY: Rich is originally from Tennessee. He has a detainer for escape from Tennessee. Indications are that release would include eventual transfer to Tennessee parole plan.

PSYCHOLOGICAL REPORT

Mr. Hilton was interviewed and was administered a series of tests to assist in the initial classification process. He was cooperative, readily completing all tasks and answering all questions. He did not seem very sincere in his presentation; the information he provided is, therefore, suspect. His affect was appropriate; his memory was good for both recent and remote recall. He was well oriented in all spheres; there were no indications of hallucinations, delusions, or loosening of associations.

Mr. Hilton relates that his father's death hit him hard; since that time (he sixteen) he has been getting into trouble. After a series of burglaries he was sent to reform school. He later committed an armed robbery that resulted in his being sentenced to ten years in a state prison in Tennessee. He relates that he robbed a cab driver but does not remember any of the details due to excessive drinking. His current account differs drastically from an earlier account in the records available from Tennessee. He insists that he did very well in prison (achieving trustee status) except that he became very involved in the use of drugs. He asserts that he had been granted parole, but was to have a temporary furlough prior to his release on parole. He was supposed to bring drugs back into the institution following his furlough, but he changed his mind. The people who were to supply him with the drugs threatened him with a gun, so he avoided them and did not return to prison. Traveling in Pennsylvania he apparently robbed three people at knife point. He denies any knowledge of these robberies, stating that he was too involved with drugs at the time to know what he was doing. While he states that he wants to do whatever was necessary to change and to stay out of trouble, he carefully avoids an honest self-appraisal. He externalizes the responsibility for his actions, placing the blame on alcohol and drugs.

Mr. Hilton is currently pleasant, cooperative and expressing his motivations to achieve a good institutional adjustment. However, his motivation and his ability are suspect. It is suggested that he be transferred to a more secure institution and that he be placed on program status II to monitor his initial adjustment in population. He has expressed interest in being transferred back to Tennessee to complete this sentence; if that could be arranged it would be advisable. The staff there would be more familiar with him and better able to deal with him. In addition it would avoid the disruption in any programming that a later transfer (upon completion of this sentence) might entail. The prognosis appears guarded for any real change, but he could participate in school programs to earn his G.E. in Alcoholic Anonymous and/or a drug therapy program. It is anticipated that he would be unresponsive to individual or group counseling, but it may be worthwhile to allow him to participate for several sessions to more fully evaluate whether or not he is amenable to such interventions.

He was advised by SA DOLAN that if he still felt the way he did at that time when he is released he may desire to contact the nearest FBI office and offer his services. He said he would consider doing this.

On 4/13/77, CURTIS CARSON, Records Officer, SCIH, advised review of their records disclosed that RICKY WAYNE HILTON, Inmate number K-3065, was born [REDACTED] at Kingsport, Tennessee and was currently serving a sentence of 7½ to 20 years on charges of three counts of robbery. His minimum release date is 9/21/83. In addition, a detainer has been lodged against HILTON by the State of Tennessee authorities.

Also for information of the Bureau, HILTON's letter to the FBI dated 5/9/77, was received by Philadelphia as an enclosure to referenced Bureau letter to Philadelphia dated 5/13/77. This letter contained substantially the same information and request that HILTON had made in his letter to the FBI on 3/23/77 and during his interview with the FBI on 4/13/77.

In view of the above, Philadelphia did not deem it advisable to recontact HILTON and no recontact was made.

22. Offense History

See attached rap sheets.

ADJUSTMENT SINCE RECEPTION: Mr. Hilton has been in EW Receiving since his arrival here. He has been no problem in this area but has not had free mobility due to the Escape detainee and his lengthy sentence. He is seen as a risk for an institution like SCI-Rockview.

23. Current Offense

OFFICIAL ACCOUNT: Mr. Hilton robbed Lester Shirk at knife point of $220.00. He committed a similar robbery of Chester O. Grissinger and Joseph McLain. All were threatened at knife point in separate incidents.

ACCOMPLICES AND DISPOSITION: None.

OFFENDER ACCOUNT: "I was using drugs (heroin) and have no knowledge of the crimes." Escape Detainer: "I had made parole in Tennessee. I went out on a three day furlough in Tennessee. Other inmates wanted me to bring drugs in. After being with my family I changed my mind. The people I was to pick up the drugs from started pressuring me. So I took off."

24. Psychological Report

See attached report.

25. Counselor Evaluation

STRENGTHS AND WEAKNESSES: Mr. Hilton is confused by the escape detainer. He states it will be dropped according to his attorney. Tennessee on the other hand has lodged a detainer against him to be activated upon completion of this sentence. Overall, Rich has had a poor history within institutions. Indications from Tennessee are that he was less than a model prisoner. Therefore, recommendation for transfer to a more secure institution appears warranted.

While incarcerated, Mr. Hilton should become involved in Narcotics Anonymous and other drug programming. This will help to alleviate his involvement in the drug subculture. It is also seen as advantageous for him to expand his present educational and vocational bases. In addition he should become involved in group therapy to explore his prior behavior patterns.

COMMUNITY SENSITIVITY: Rich is originally from Tennessee. He has a detainer for escape from Tennessee. Indications are that release would include eventual transfer to Tennessee parole plan.

PSYCHOLOGICAL REPORT

Mr. Hilton was interviewed and was administered a series of tests to assist in the initial classification process. He was cooperative, readily completing all tasks and answering all questions. He did not seem very sincere in his presentation; the information he provided is, therefore, suspect. His affect was appropriate; his memory was good for both recent and remote recall. He was well oriented in all spheres; there were no indications of hallucinations, delusions, or loosening of associations.

Mr. Hilton relates that his father's death hit him hard; since that time (age sixteen) he has been getting into trouble. After a series of burglaries he was sent to reform school. He later committed an armed robbery that resulted in his being sentenced to ten years in a state prison in Tennessee. He relates that he robbed a cab driver but not remember any of the details due to excessive drinking. His current account differs drastically from an earlier account in the records available from Tennessee. He insists that he did very well in prison (achieving trustee status) except that he became very involved in the use of drugs. He asserts that he had been granted parole, but was to have a temporary furlough prior to his release on parole. He was supposed to bring drugs into the institution following his furlough, but he changed his mind. The people who were to supply him with the drugs threatened him with a gun, so he avoided them and did not return to prison. Traveling in Pennsylvania he apparently robbed three people at knife point. He denies any knowledge of these robberies, stating that he was too involved with drugs at the time to know what he was doing. While he states that he wants to do whatever is necessary to change and to stay out of trouble, he carefully avoids an honest self-appraisal. He externalizes the responsibility for his actions, placing the blame on alcohol and

Mr. Hilton is currently pleasant, cooperative and expressing his motivations to achieve good institutional adjustment. However, his motivation and his ability are suspect. It is suggested that he be transferred to a more secure institution and that he be placed on program status II to monitor his initial adjustment in population. He has expressed interest in being transferred back to Tennessee to complete this sentence; if that could be arranged it would be advisable. The staff there would be more familiar with him and able to deal with him. In addition it would avoid the disruption in any programming a later transfer (upon completion of this sentence) might entail. The prognosis is guarded for any real change, but he could participate in school programs to earn his release in Alcoholic Anonymous and/or a drug therapy program. It is anticipated that he would be unresponsive to individual or group counseling, but it may be worthwhile to allow him to participate for several sessions to more fully evaluate whether or not he is amenable to such interventions.
