REVEREND WILLIAM GRIMES
LIAISON SOURCE

Reverend GRIMES advised that he could substantiate

FROM : SA Charles R. Wood, Jr.

SUBJECT: MURKIN
CR

Rebutel all offices 6:37 PM 4-14-68.

A search of directories and source material for the communities within the Centralia RA does not disclose the presence of any of the commercially syndicated dance studio organizations.

There are a number of private dance teachers and instructors, most of whom confine instruction to school age pupils in techniques related to ballet, classic, modern a group dance instruction.

Mrs. JAN PEGG, J. & J. Studios, Centralia, advised she has been a professional dance instructor in Centralia for more than six years and has no knowledge of incorporated dance studios in the area, such as the Arthur Murray chain and the like. She also teaches in Salem and Vandalia.

SHIRLEY FARTHING, Odin, Illinois, teaches school age dance groups.

P. F. PROFANCEK, Circle Drive, Centralia, teaches dance groups.

MILDRED OSTERMEIER, Mt. Vernon, Illinois, teaches school age pupils only.

Each of the above advised no inquiries for dance instruction from adult pupils on an individual basis had been received during the past year or so. The only other sources would be club groups who meet for instruction in square dance techniques and these are composed of local area residents.

At 7:38 AM, 4/16/68, SA EMMETT A. SCHMITT telephonically advised as follows:

WILLIAM MATHEWS, 1501 Wiley Drive, Urbana, had just called Springfield Office to report he had seen a man in the Ill. Central RR freightyard, Champaign, during the early AM hours of this date, who answered the description of the composite of the KING killer. MATHEWS said he was an ICRR employee.

Writer and SA DELMAR A. CAIN established contact with MATHEWS and he advised man seen by him was observed by him in the freightyard on several occasions from about 2:30 AM on; that he had come in on a freight train from New Orleans; that he had slept in the old yard office during the night, and that he, MATHEWS, had given him 50¢ for breakfast as he was broke. MATHEWS said man was dirty and dishelved with a several days growth of beard. According to MATHEWS, the man asked for directions to local "skid row" and said he was planning to go to Chicago. MATHEWS last saw the man at Clifford Jacobs Restaurant, adjoining the freightyard, where he was having breakfast just before 6:00 AM.

MATHEWS accompanied writer and SA CAIN to the freightyard where man in question was found asleep on the second floor of the old yard office. He was interviewed with the following result:

He identified himself as MILFORD GEORGE TASKER, aka MEL TASKER. He is an unemployed common laborer from Baltimore, Md. He was last employed as an attendant at Transit Truck Stop, Inc., near Baltimore, where he worked about 3 weeks during late March-early April, 1968. He exhibited a statement of earnings form from this employer showing that he was last paid $41.69 on 4/5/68. He also exhibited a sales slip showing a purchase of clothing 4/6/68 from Benny's Army and Navy Store, 600 E. Baltimore St., Baltimore. His last address there was 116 S. Broadway, Baltimore. He has a brother, PAUL WILLIAM TASKER, residing 113 Van Dor(ph) Terrace, Dundalk, Md. Claimed to have been in Baltimore since about 8/67 until he left hitchhiking to New Orleans on or about 4/8/68. Caught a ride with a girl named AVON(ph)(Lnu) driving a new model red Pontiac. She was enroute to her home in Maysville, La. and let him out at Leesville, La. They spent 2 nights on the road. He caught a bus in Leesville on in to New Orleans. Paid $7.00 for a bus ticket. Spent night of 4/11/68 in New Orleans bus terminal and night 4/12/68 in mission for bums called Ozanam Inn, 843 Camp St., New Orleans. He exhibited a card confirming this and showing he was assigned bed #62 at the mission. Tried to sleep in park night of 4/13 but run out by PD and told to leave town. Had tried to get work in New Orleans 2-3 days thru local Manpower office but unsuccessful. Started to hitchhike to Chicago but couldn't catch a ride. Hopped freight and wound up in Champaign freightyard early AM 4/16. TASKER is W, M, A and further described as follows:

DOB: 4/9/37, POB: Keyser, W. Va., 5'11½", 150, thin build, brown hair, blue eyes, 5½" vertical scar on stomach, tattoo of black panther on left forearm, tattoo "Mel" left upper arm near shoulder. Served Army, 1961-63, SN US [REDACTED], honorable discharge. Immediately prior to last employment in Baltimore, he was jailed there for 90 days-charge-assaulting a police officer. Prior to this rap, he had been out only 8 days from serving a 30 day jail in Baltimore, again for assault. Claimed he had once used alias HAROLD CONNER while hiding from his wife who was looking for him for non-support. Claimed he had been in Tennessee only once in his life and that was while driving thru enroute Louisiana with AVON(ph)(Lnu), mentioned above. Claimed she was a nicely dressed young girl and had picked him up for company because she was afraid as a negro had thrown a rock thru her car window.

Documents in TASKER's possession seemed to confirm enough of his story to eliminate him.

O'BRIEN stated that sometimes last fall or summer, 1967, he traded machines with this company and received machine number 34320 in the trade and sent back to the company machine serial number 33407.

He said each laundry and cleaning establishment has its own particular technique in marking ~~laundry~~ laundry and described his as follows:

This laundry uses two numbers, a letter, followed by a dash and then followed by two more numbers, therefore, laundry marks 02B-6 and D2B-6 could not have been made at this laundry.
