Reference is made to memo of VINCENT T. HARTNETT, 4-24-68, concerning a telephone call from Inspector THOMAS E. BISHOP, SOG.

On (this date) 4/25 Mrs. ROBERT STRADER of Lexington, Illinois, telephone 309 365-3148, telephonically contacted the office concerning this matter. Mrs. STRADER, who sounded considerably upset emotionally, advised she expected her husband to return home from Detroit sometime late this afternoon and wanted to know whether or not we would assure that his identity would be protected in regard to any information provided to us concerning the MURKIN case. Mrs. STRADER also asked what kind of protection we could give to her husband who felt his life was in danger.

- NCIC negative 4/30/68, per BSO/DTJ

Mrs. STRADER was advised that any information furnished to this Bureau in confidence would certainly be protected but that we were in no position to physically guard her husband and if he felt his life was in danger this was a matter he should take up with local authorities, however, we were desirous of interviewing him concerning any valuable information he might have in regard to this case and would do so at his convenience upon his arrival. Mrs. STRADER advised she would have her husband contact the office upon his arrival at Lexington, Illinois. She was also furnished the name of the SRA at Bloomington and of the whereabouts of our office there.

Mrs. STRADER stated she and her husband were passing through Memphis at the time MARTIN LUTHER KING was slain. Her husband allegedly overheard a conversation among five individuals one of whom he claims resembles the published photograph of RAY, the subject, in this case, in which they talked about the killing. Subsequently, last Sunday night their car was broken into and on Monday he claims he was followed from Lexington to Detroit by a tan Chevrolet, the registration number of which he was unable to obtain. This car contained two individuals whom he did not recognize and at a rest stop these men took a shot at him but did not hit him because he "hit the ground". He now fears he is in grave danger for his personal safety because he has information about the killing of MARTIN LUTHER KING.

Mrs. STRADER was advised immediately upon her husband's return she should contact this office and we would set up a mutually agreeable time and place during which we could interview her husband concerning this matter.

SA ARTHUR LEE WOODS was alerted to this situation telephonically. WOODS, through a quick check of the telephone directory, identified Mrs. STRADER as possibly VIRGINIA STRADER who resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. CARMICHAEL at Route 2, Lexington, Illinois. He believes ROBERT STRADER may have been the subject of some old ITSMV cases and these references are being reviewed prior to the interview.

ADDENDUM: On 4/30/68 SA WOODS contacted Mrs. STRADER to ascertain DTS:vr whether or not ROBERT STRADER has returned to Lexington, 4/30/68 Illinois. Mrs. STRADER advised STRADER returned Friday night but they did not contact the office inasmuch as he was allegedly followed from about a mile north of home and was fearful that someone would do harm to him. On Friday night he got into a controversy with his mother-in-law, was run off the property, and his current whereabouts are unknown. STRADER continues to contact his wife but will not furnish his whereabouts since the family is on a party line and he is fearful for his personal safety. This is for information in the event Bureau calls; however, it is to be noted ASAC contacted JAMES BLAND, #1 Man, Crime Records on 4/29/68 concerning this matter and Mr. BLAND advised the Bureau was not running a tickler on the information provided by STERN of NBC, Washington, but had merely passed it on for our investigative assistance.
